Council and Commercial Club Com. mittees Look Over Highway.

A committee from the city council, comprising President A. J. Davis, Councilmen Wood, Reedall, Raybould and Cowburn, City Engineer Kelsey and Cowburn, City Engineer Relief and Street Supervisor J. T. Raleigh visited the Ogden road between the city and Beck's Hot Springs, in company with Dr. Stauffer and W. H. Ellieon, a committee from the Com-mercial club. The trip was made for the purpose of examining the stretch of road just north of the city, which is said to be very rough and in no shape for the passage of automobiles. It was found the complaints were well found-ed and the complaints were unanimous ed and the committees were unanimou

and the committees were infaminous in expressing the opinion that the road should be repaired at once. Mr. Kelsey and Mr. Raleigh were asked to make estimates of the cost of moving the boulders, mixing clay in the sandy stretches and sprinking the road.

When Smoked Out By the "News' Organ of the Crooks Gracefully Subsides.

It is not often that the Tribune will make an attempt to right a wrong that it has perpetrated upon the Church or its members, but at last one such instance can be recorded in its favor. Xesterday morning that paper printed a long firade against the bishopric and other individuals of the Eighth ecclesia long firade against the Dishopric and other individuals of the Eighth ecclesi-astical ward, charging them with idly standing by while a woman and her three children were starving at their very doors. Nor did the accusations end here, but serious instinuations were directed towards an aged and respected clitizen. The "News" completely punc-tured the bag of hot air in last eve-hing's issue, and this morning the Trihume publishes the following: "From neighbors and others who are in a position to be cognizant of the real facts in the case it appears that Mrs. Emma Josephs of 594 south Second East street, who Thursday night volum-tarily gave this newspaper a stariling story of destitution and alleged mis-treatment at the hands of Mormon Church officials, is not desorving of ns-sistance.

"Bishop Oscar F. Huuter of the ward n which the woman lives said Friday algoit that Mrs. Josephs recently declined that aris, Josepha recently de-clined to accept futier aid from the Relief society, of which Mrs. Hunter is president, on the grounds that that or-granization had done more than its part in the past. In reality, the bishop says, the woman declined the proferred aid because she was fishing' to obtain a monthly allowance from the Morenee manthly allowance from the Mormon Church. In regard to her charges that a groceryman upon whom she was giv-en an order for provisions had paid improper attentions to her he said that he had made an investigation and found the accusations to be wholly
