 ANOTHER VICTIM DISCOVERED

CHICAGO, 4.—Another cut was made in the Southwestern passenger rates and the war has extended to Council Bluffs. Tickets are now being openly sold in the railway ticket offices in either Kansas City or Council Bluffs at $7, while the scalpers are quoting at $8. It is expected the rates will drop to merely a nominal figure within a few

Boston, 4.—An important action has been taken within a day or two by the Burlington and Quincy roads, which were virtually set aside, for 120 days, the operation of the tripartite agreement in relation to the Colorado, Utah and California business, and insures a restoration of peace among the trans-Missouri roads and the maintenance of the freight rates.

Sheriff T. O. of Nance County, Okla., has arrived, having traced Baird to Tulsa. The theory is that Baird, during his husband's absence, criminally assaulted Mrs. Percival, who was envious, and the brutality produced a divorce. Then to seal the woman's lips and prevent her from awaiting the husband's return, he killed him. The circumstances indicate Baird was pursued by Hugh Blair, the neighbor, and during the flight shot and killed Blair; that then he rode to Fullerton and took the train for Omaha. It is thought he pawned some jewelry here and started for New York en route for England. Baird is an Englishman of day were Mr. James Graves and wife. Graves is a member of the firm of Fox Brothers, jewelers, 12 Maiden Lane. He made a declaration in which only a few dutiable articles of small value were reported and was about to leave when the custom house inspector insisted on making a more thorough search of his baggage. He indignantly protested he had no other dutiable articles, and when the inspector still persisted, he fell to the floor in a faint. Graves and wife were carefully searched, and $39,000 worth of uncut diamonds were discovered. Both were held for examination.

A special to the Republican states that the cause of the horrible murder perpetrated in Nancon County is yet a mystery. Yesterday a new victim was added to the list. George Farnival, a partner of Percival, who had disappeared and been suspected of the murders, was found dead in the bottom of a pond. A farm hand of Percival's, who also disappeared and for whom a warrant has been issued, has not yet been apprehended.

NEWARK, N. J., 4.—J. B. Ward, the accountant employed by the city to examine the various departments, has reported that during the twelve years ending 1876, City Treasurer Jno. W. Stout, who died a fortnight ago, habitually loaned the city money to contractors and others without due warrant of law. The accountant says he is unable at present to state what loss the city then suffered, as the books were not well kept. He puts down $70,000 as not being accounted for. All the money lost, if any since, has been covered from other sources, and no

The Blaine Room.

NEWARK, Ohio, 4.—Mr. Blaine and party left Columbus by special train at 10 o'clock, for Newark, where they were met by Governor Foster and Mr. Hanna, of the state committee, left the party, and Mr. Chas. Moore, of Columbus, and Hon. Stuart L. Woodford, of New York, took the people at the depot and cheered as the train moved out, and Mr. Blaine bowed his acknowledgments from the car platform.

The first stop was at Newark, where a large crowd, composed largely of workmen,

"I came from this depot, but Newark is a prosperous town and the demonstration there was a great success. I was not leaving the court house, were tamer than at other places. Four or five boys from eight to ten years of age were also here, and the captain of the party and shouted "Hurrah for Cleveland." In front of the court house Col. C. H. Kibbler introduced the guest as "Fas. G. Blaine, late of the army, and now of the navy of America." Mr. Blaine said: "While I accept your kindly compliment to myself, I desire to say that the mere personality of a candidate for the presidency is of small account. The Policy that has been established by the republican party, and for myself, am only of importance because I represent the people of the state, and I stand in the midst of a rich community that is so familiar with, one that I have known from my earliest childhood. I know your great growth in wealth, I know your progress in moral and material interest, and I call you to witness, every candid man in this assemblage, whether he be a republican or a democrat, and perhaps some democrat, that I am very much interested in all your progress in the last 30 years, during the existence and enforcement of the Independent system of the republican party, in which the executive, legislative and sound currency are the great ness and your progress has been rapid. You are in the lead in the preceding years. Your vote will decide the contest on the 14th of October, the current month. You meet your duty, and you are a citizen that will discharge it like a man. You are a man of the people. Bellaire, O. & Co.—The comparative meanness of the reception at Newark was offset by the Zanesville people. They were charmed by the visit and reception, and made a brief reference to the industry and interest of Ohio, and of the country at large, presenting the tariff as the chief cause of the trouble. H. C. Bellaire, president of A. W. Tenney in a short speech, on behalf of the ladies of Zanesville, there was presented to Bellaire a beautiful floral ship of State.

At two or three other points where the train stopped, between Barnesville and Ballisre, the people gathered and

F. W. Gobeil, Druggist, of Louisville, Kansas, says: "I have sold 'Pinky' Ray Bitter for five years, and I have never had a medicine which I gave more universal satisfaction. It has been doing it for years in this section. I have warranted dozens of bottles and never had one returned."

For the Sarsaparilla, which beat blood medicine ever devised. I took one bottle, and was three times as well, and, in 47, lost three more bottles, and then, from that time, my appetite, sleep and strength were restored.

Yours respectfully, Z. P. WILSON.

The above instance is but one of the many cases coming to our notice, which prove the efficacy of Ayer's Sarsaparilla in Purifying the blood, and restoring the Purification to the cure of all diseases
