

STORMY SCENE IN FRENCH CHAMBERS

Prominent Nationalist Deputy
Slaps Face of Gen. Andre,
Minister of War.

TREMENDOUS TUMULT ENSUED.

Offender Beat a Hasty Retreat, Taking Refuge Behind Members of The Opposition.

Paris, Nov. 4.—Today's sitting of the chamber of deputies was one of the stormiest and most heated in recent years, the excitement culminating when Gabriel Syveton, a prominent Nationalist deputy, stepped up to Gen. Andre, the minister of war, and slapped his face. After accomplishing this feat Syveton retreated rapidly to the uppermost row of seats, taking refuge behind members of the opposition.

A tremendous tumult ensued, members of both parties crowding on the floor of the house, where a free fight was soon in progress. Speaker Brisson left the chair, thus suspending the sitting.

Eventually order was restored, and the sitting being resumed, Syveton's temporary exclusion was voted. The offender, however, refused to quit his seat and it became necessary again to suspend the sitting while he was removed by a military guard.

It is probable that this misconduct, which occurred just before the final division, materially contributed to the strengthening of the cabinet, which at one time seemed very critical, after securing a majority of only two on a preliminary question of confidence by over 100 majority.

At midnight the officials of the chamber of deputies assembled in the private cabinet of Speaker Brisson, where they discussed the course of action to be taken regarding Deputy Syveton.

Deputies who witnessed the assault upon the minister of war, Gen. Andre, were wholly taken by surprise and were struck with such violence that he would have fallen had not Premier Combes stepped forward and supported him.

Gen. Andre's face was much swollen and was cut by a ring worn by Syveton. Speaker Brisson has notified the judicial authority that an assault has been committed within the precincts of the chamber.

The debate was a sequel to that of last Friday. After several prominent deputies had spoken, Premier Combes intervened, maintaining the necessity of keeping the army republican and declaring that he should not accept the previous question, but demanded a vote of confidence.

The previous question was then put and rejected, 275 to 277. Next the chamber, by a vote of 298 to 276, gave priority to the resolution of confidence drawn up by ministerial supporters, which was just about to be put to a vote when the proceedings were interrupted by Syveton's assault upon Gen. Andre. When order had been restored the chamber passed the vote of confidence, 343 to 238.

A PRACTICAL JOKE.
In Fun, Man Said, "Throw Up Your Hands," and Was Shot.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 4.—James M. Maxwell, president of local union No. 65 United Mine-Workers of America, at Virden, has been shot and killed by Thomas Hall, a bartender, as the result of a practical joke. Hall was returning home after closing the saloon, through North park, when Maxwell, for a joke, stepped from behind a door and ordered Hall to throw up his hands. Hall, who had been a victim of hold-ups twice recently, drew a revolver and shot Maxwell in the stomach. Maxwell, who lived for several hours after being shot, said he did not blame Hall for shooting him.

RESTLESSNESS IN MOROCCO.
There is an Increasing Tendency
Towards Lawlessness.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Consul-General Hoffman Phillip reports to the state department from Tangier, by mail, under date of Oct. 19, that in Morocco, particularly in the northern portion, there appears to be an increasing tendency toward lawlessness and disregard of authority among the restless tribes. From the south, where the people heretofore have been more loyal than in the north, news has been received of some disturbances.

ITCHING ECZEMA

In July, 1883, I began to break out with Eczema on my head, legs and arms, and began treatment with local doctors, but did not get much relief. They said the disease had become chronic. I then quit them and tried various ointments and soaps for another two years, but as soon as cold weather came I was as bad off as ever, so I finally decided to let medicine alone, and for twelve or thirteen years did nothing towards curing the Eczema, except bathing. This seemed to do about as much good as anything I had tried.

During the time I lost about one-half of my hair. I began S. S. S. doubtful of a cure, because the disease had run so long, but soon discovered your medicine was doing me good, and continued to take it. I used seven bottles, when I was completely cured, not having a single spot on my body, which before was almost completely covered. F. C. NORFOLK, 107 Hackberry St., Ottumwa, Ia.

The head, feet and hands are usually the parts affected, though the disease appears on other parts of the body. While external applications allay the itching and burning temporarily, it is the acid thrown off by the blood that causes the irritation and eruptions upon the skin. The acids must be neutralized and the system cleansed of all humors and poisons before the cure is permanent.

S. S. S. is guaranteed entirely free of Potash, Arsenic and other minerals. Book on the skin and its diseases sent free. Medical advice furnished free.

The Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.

Powerful chiefs between Mogador and Cape Verde, who have been placed in control of a large section of the country by order of the sultan, the other rebellion against being superseded and refusing to obey the sultan's summons to Morocco City.

The followers of the pretender have renewed their activity in the north and east, and there has been much fighting in the neighborhood of the French frontier. The important town of Tadmort has been besieged and is reported to have been taken by the rebels, owing to the weakness of the Moroccan forces. Fez remains quiet, but there is great unrest in the region surrounding Tangier.

A part of the numerous mountain tribe of Beni M'Sowar, reported allies of Rasuli, the unpunished abductor of Perdicaris, made a raid on a village in the Fehs district, about 10 miles from Tangier. Several villages in the neighborhood went to the aid of the village attacked; eight or 10 men were killed and the raiders driven off. Similar disturbances occur at intervals throughout this region, the hill tribes being the aggressors. The Republicans are generally closed to traffic. There are as yet no evidences of French intervention to assist in the restoration of order.

BABCOCK'S PREDICTION.

Says Republicans Will Have 203 Members of the House.

New York, Nov. 4.—Chairman Babcock of the Republican congressional committee today sent a telegram to Speaker Cannon at Danville, Ill., in which, after congratulating him on behalf of the national Republican congressional committee "for the magnificent campaign you have made during the past six weeks," he says:

"From our reports and the information available I am pleased to advise you that the Republicans will elect not less than 203 members of the next house, with a probability of at least 10 seats more."

SALOON MEN PROTEST.

Soldiers of Twenty-Eighth Infantry Going Without Being Paid.

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—A great protest is going up just outside the gates of the Presidio. The protest is made by the owners of the saloons and grocers in the immediate locality because the Twenty-eighth infantry, which is on the eve of departure for eastern posts, has not been paid off and will not be paid off here, so that the $5,000 or thereabouts that is coming to the regiment will be spent around the Presidio gates.

When Gen. MacArthur found he could not get the saloons suppressed he decided to take the matter into his own hands.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Southern Pacific Overland Runs Into Pile of Ties.

Stockton, Cal., Nov. 5.—The Southern Pacific overland due here late last night narrowly escaped serious disaster at a small station named Peyton, near Martinez. The train ran into two loose ties on the track and the engine was disabled to such an extent that another locomotive had to be sent out to pull the train. It is thought that an attempt was made to wreck the train by bandits. No one was injured.

MATRON ASSAULTED.

Female Prisoner Beats Her Almost to Death.

Auburn, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Mrs. Annie M. Welsh, matron of the state prison here, has been beaten almost to death by an infuriated female convict. The latter is a woman of great strength. She is believed to have suddenly lost her mind.

Mrs. Welsh was requested by the woman to grant her an interview in the matron's office and at once summoned the prisoner. Without a word of warning the woman picked up a chair when she entered the room and shattered it over the matron's head, felling her with the first blow. The infuriated convict then began to beat Mrs. Welsh over the head with a club.

Another woman convict who acted as a servant, hurried to the rescue and was also knocked down. But for the timely arrival of the engineer and the gatekeeper the victims probably would have been killed. After a terrific struggle the two men succeeded in overcoming the frenzied convict.

James M. Thaw Dead.

New York, Nov. 5.—James M. Thaw, president of the Grand National Curling Club of America and one of the most devoted enthusiasts of the game in America, is dead at his home in Hoboken, N. J. He was born in Scotland in 1858.

Studying Church and State.

San Francisco, Nov. 5.—Valentine Brusaletto of Brussels, has arrived here. His mission to this country is a dual one. Mr. Brusaletto was delegated by the king of Belgium as his representative to the international arbitration congress and to later make a tour of the United States for the purpose of studying the legal relations between church and state.

BAD BANDITS IN THE BAD LANDS.

Sheriff's Posse Strikes the Trail
Again and is Not Many Miles Behind.

A BLOODY BATTLE IS CERTAIN.

An Effort Will be Made to Intercept
Robbers at Eastern Exit of the Hole-in-the-Wall.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 4.—A special from De Ranch, Wyo., says: Sheriff Stough of Fremont county and Sheriff Fenton and posse of Big Horn arrived here shortly after sundown, having found the trail of the Cody bank robbers again and followed it into the very heart of the Bad Lands. They are now not more than 10 miles behind the outlaws. Reliable information has been received here that the bandits have taken refuge at the ranch house of a sympathizer near the notorious Hole-in-the-Wall rendezvous, southwest of this place, and do not know that the officers have followed this trail. Sheriff Fenton, who is directing the movement against the desperadoes, has asked for reinforcements from Casper, 100 miles southeast from here, and a telephone message was received last night stating that Sheriff Webb and a large posse had started for the scene. Fenton and his men will do a little scouting quietly tonight and tomorrow to see that the outlaws do not leave their hiding places before Webb and his party arrives. Should the outlaws become alarmed and attempt to leave the county Sheriff Webb will be advised at Wolton, Lost Cabin or one of the smaller stations on the telephone line and an effort will be made to intercept the bandits at the eastern exit of the Hole-in-the-Wall. Should the robbers attempt to double back on their trail to escape by the only other, exit from the Hole, the route they followed in entering the rendezvous, they will be attacked by Fenton and his party near this place.

A bloody battle is certain to occur during the next 24 hours, either at the western or eastern exit of the Hole, or in the vicinity of the present hiding place of the outlaws. Should the bandits remain in ignorance of the plans to bottle them up in the rendezvous then the fight will occur at the ranch house of their friend for the two posses from the east and west will combine forces as soon as Webb arrives and close in on the bandits at once. The officers here are completely worn out, but they are anxious for the fight. They will get almost 24 hours rest, however, if present plans carry, and will be in prime shape for the battle when Webb arrives.

Chinese Denied Admission.
San Francisco, Nov. 5.—Twelve Chinese, alleging themselves to be merchants desirous of visiting the St. Louis fair, were denied a landing today by the local immigration bureau.

A FAMILY QUARREL.

The Husband is Dead and the Wife in a Hospital.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 4.—James C. Braman, a restaurant man of Brererton, a suburb of this city, is dead and his wife is lying at the Seattle general hospital here as the result of a shooting which was the outcome of a quarrel between them. Braman shot his wife as she was going to the main street in an effort to escape him, and then returning to the restaurant, blew out his own brains. The couple had been here only a short time, coming from Wisconsin, where they were married but seven weeks ago. The woman is wounded internally and it is thought there is no hope for her recovery.

FRAUDS ON TAXPAYERS.

Orphans Sent to This Country to Be Taken Care Of.

San Francisco, Nov. 5.—A report from the local United States immigration inspectors has been forwarded to Frank P. Sargeant, commissioner of immigration, on certain frauds on taxpayers being perpetrated by aliens. The administration has discovered that in nearly every state in the Union a large percentage of the inmates of asylums for orphans and aliens are sent to this country specially for the purpose of being placed in those institutions where better care and treatment are given than can be obtained in similar institutions in Europe. The report deals with institutions of the kind in this district. The facts will be presented to Congress.

EDUCATIONAL.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, the venerable author of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," listened philosophically the other day to the complaints of a woman whose son's education at Harvard was costing a great deal of money.

"Many sons' education cost a great deal of money," said Mrs. Howe. "And yet, it is the most expensive education, usually, that is the least valuable."

"I had this fact brought home to me a short time ago. I was visiting a certain family, and one morning at breakfast the father said, as he handed his son, a sophomore, a ten-dollar bill: 'Your studies are costing me a great deal.'"

"I know it, father," the son answered. "And I don't study very hard, either."

THE TIME WILL COME

When the Advice of This Salt
Lake City Resident Will Help You.

Very few people are entirely free from backache. It does not take much to derange the kidneys. A little cold, a strain, stooping positions or hard work, overtaxes those delicate organs, and many aches and pains promptly follow. A Salt Lake City citizen tells you here how every kidney ill can be relieved and cured. Read about it:

Robert C. Kirkwood, engineer on the Oregon Short Line Railroad, residence 424 west Fourth South, says: "Like most men who follow the occupation I do, the jarring and jolting of the engine causes a constant strain on the small of the back, and a lameness, soreness and aching is the result. I suffered severely at times with my back and on more than one occasion I have been relieved by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the F. J. Hill Drug Co.'s store. Not only can I speak positively about the preparation myself, but Mrs. Kirkwood derived so much benefit from the use of the remedy that we both look upon it as of great value. I will be pleased to tell others about the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills."

HE DID A LITTLE LYING.

Judge Henry A. Shute, the author, was born in Exeter, N. H., and an ex-eter man said to him the other day. "Harry Shute and I used to fish together in our childhood. Many a mess of brook trout, perch and horned pout we hooked before we knew how to read or write."

"One day when we were fishing a city boy joined us. He sat down on a piece of granite rock, and while we fished he lied to us about city life."

"When we got through I thought I would do a little lying for the country's sake."

"You see that farm over there?" I said. "Well, that farm belongs to Cyrus Skinner, our champion farmer. Do you know how much butter and cheese Cyrus Skinner makes? Why, he makes 1,000,000 pounds of butter and 1,000,000 pounds of cheese a year. I turned to Shute to back me up. I turned a little timidly, though, for Shute was, as a rule, a truthful boy."

"Ain't that so, Harry?" I said. "Don't Cyrus Skinner make 1,000,000 pounds of butter and 1,000,000 pounds of cheese a year?"

"Well," says Harry, "I can't say as I ever heard precisely how much cheese and butter Skinner makes, but I know for a fact that he has eleven saw-mills that all run by buttermilk."

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

(DO YOU REMEMBER?)

The Salt Lake Tribune raised a storm of protest from prominent Salt Lake citizens by its malicious misrepresentation of the local political situation. Election returns from the presidential election of the day before failed to show either candidate elected. Both parties claimed a victory, and awaited further returns with great interest.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY.

Great rallies were held throughout Utah it being the eve of the state election day. Sentence was passed upon Charles Theide of Murray, ordering that he be hung.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY.

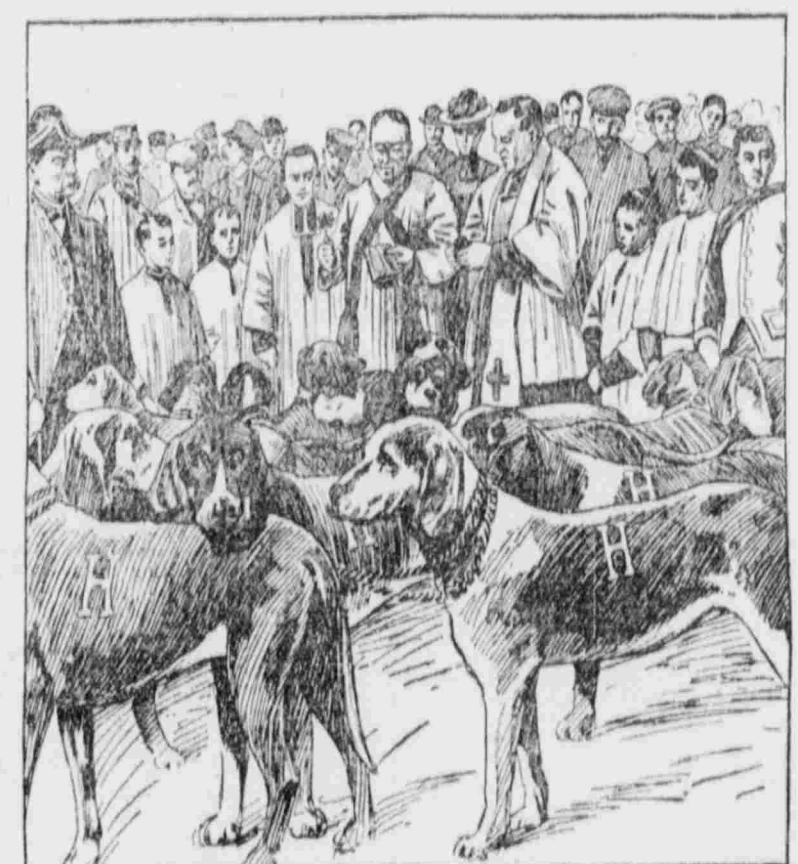

Gen. Whamton left Manila in command of an expedition intending to land at Dagupan and move northward to join McArthur's and Lawton's armies in surrounding Tarlac. It was thought that the move would result in Aguinaldo's capture.

JAPANESE REPAIRING THE GRAVES OF RUSSIAN SOLDIERS.

The Japanese have not only demonstrated in the present war that their troops in the matter of gallantry and courage are second to none in the world, but they are also anxious to have it acknowledged that their soldiers are as considerate and humane as are those of any Christian nation. Not only are the Russian wounded who fall into their hands treated to receive the best of surgical treatment, but their captives even take great pains to see that the graves of those killed in battle are marked and kept in good condition. In all the history of military operations there is no instance recorded of a more striking exhibition of humanity than this.

BLESSING THE HOUNDS OF ST. HUBERT.

The picture illustrates a quaint French ceremony in connection with the patron saint of hunters. It is performed at the doorway of the Cathedral of St. Senlis each autumn at the opening of the hunting season and always attracts an interested crowd of sportsmen of every degree. Preceded by the pompous verger in his robes of office, the officiating priest and his attendant acolytes appear at the church door and at once proceed to bless the hounds of St. Hubert, which are in charge of their keeper. St. Hubert was a worthy who lived a worldly life at the court of King Theodorice. At the death of his wife he retired to a monastery, and after death he was canonized. In middle age art he always appears as a mighty hunter who is met by a stag with a radiant crucifix between his antlers.
