THE security of Diamonds, Gold and Silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value. Thus it is with a valuable medicine. Dr. Aug. Kaller's Celebrated German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom or put out a prairie fire with a leaf.

For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchial Affections, it is unequalled. Its cures are truly magical. Ask your Druggist for it. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the facsimile signatures of Dr. Aug. Kaller, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents.

THROUGH countless little openings in the skin, invisible except through a microscope, the perspiration, in a state of health, exudes, hour by hour, night and day. The total obstruction of these minute ducts would produce death; and when they become partially blocked, the skin grows dry, yellow, and finally diseased, and the general health is injuriously affected. GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, by opening the pores, removes eruptions and unhealthy granulations on the skin, and imparts to it a healthy cleanness, humidity and smoothness, banishing from the face of beauty complexional blemishes, whether attributable to impurities in the capillaries, or to an undue exposure to the sun and wind. For obstinate scrofulic complaints like the itch, salt rheum, and erysipelas, it is a sovereign remedy, being as effective as Sulphur Baths, for such maladies, as well as rheumatism and gout. It is wonderfully healing and soothing in its action, removing the curdles where broken by external injuries, relieving the swelling and inflammation attendant upon sprains, scalds and bruises, and curing the most obstinate sores and ulcers. The Medical Profession sanction its use, and, from all classes of society, voluntary evidence in its favor is continually emanating. Ladies of fashion prefer it to the bath, since it promotes not only health, but personal attractiveness. As a disinfectant of disease-contaminated clothing it has no peer. After they have been washed with GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, garments and linen from the sick room may be handled with perfect impunity.

Sold by Druggists. Price 25c per cake. 1 Box (3 cakes) 75c, sent by mail, prepaid, on receipt of price. C. N. Gifford, Prop'r, 7 Sixth Avenue, New York. Hill's Hair and Whisker Dye, Black or Brown, 50c.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Thermometer.—The mercury was up to 97 deg. at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Gone to Bingham.—U. S. Commissioner Sprague left this morning for Bingham, to stay a day or two in the "old reliable."

Going East.—Mr. Royd P. Hill, the gentlemanly late deputy clerk of the Third District Court, will start for his home in Freeport, Ill., next Tuesday morning. His father, Mr. C. E. Hill, has been there since May.

A Stable Project.—It is said that J. H. Haverly, the great theatrical manager, with a view to the future importance of Ogden, has recently been negotiating for the purchase of the Woodmouse theatre.—Dispatch.

Why not Barn-um?

Modern Chivalry.—The Dispatch says that at the depot in Ogden the other day, two emigrants got into an altercation over the occupation of some seats on the train, when one of them drew a pistol on his opponent, but was prevented from using it by the timely interference of the bystanders.

French Opera Bouffe.—Mademoiselle Almee, the celebrated French opera bouffe artiste, with a full opera company will be here about the 18th inst., and play two nights.

Study up your French grammar.

Information Wanted.—Mrs. Sarah Ann Bennett, maiden name Greenwood, 29 Cassel Street, Middleborough-on-Tees, Yorkshire, would like to learn the whereabouts of Mrs. Harriet Williams, maiden name Perran, who emigrated from Aberystwyth in the year 1861. Address as above.

A Malicious Fabrication.—We have received a communication from Bishop John Hopkin, of Crofton, Morgan County, in refutation of a malicious rumor which has been circulated regarding the condition of affairs in that settlement, in which the people there were said to be starving, and the authorities, instead of attending to them, selling their stock and produce to speculators for cash. The Bishop declares this to be a malicious falsehood. Only one family had called upon the authorities of the Ward for assistance, and this call was made through the Teachers and immediately granted. The Relief Society had on hand over forty bushels of wheat and a quantity of flour, laid up on purpose for the poor, to be had for the asking. Some men had been there recently, buying stock for cash or store orders, but had only obtained a few head. There was a board of trade at Morgan which the people patronized when they had any stock or produce to sell. It was true that crops were gone and the range dried up, but the people were hopeful, and it would be a long time ere they would, as a community, seek to stir up sympathy by detailing falsehoods such as the one just refuted.

The Counter Suit.—In chambers yesterday, the following motion was made in the new case of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the Trustee-in-Trust, against the heirs and executors, and was overruled by Chief Justice Hunter.

In the District Court for the Third Judicial District of Utah Territory.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and John Taylor Trustee-in-Trust for said Church, plaintiffs, vs. George Q. Cannon, Brigham Young and Albert Carrington, executors of the last will of Brigham Young, deceased, et al., defendants.

Come now the attorneys for said plaintiffs and move the appointment of persons to defend in the above entitled case suitable for such purposes, it being impracticable to bring all of said defendants before the court in person by reason of the great number of said defendants, on whom all papers, notices, orders and papers necessary to be served in said case may be so served as by law in such case made and provided.

RICHARDS & WILLIAMS, AUGUSTUS MINER and W. N. DUSKINBERY, Attorneys for Plaintiffs.

Helping Himself.—Last evening, the nightwatchman at the Sierra Nevada lumber yard, near the depot, discovered a man helping himself to the lumber stored there, and as in duty bound summarily interfered. The man asked if it was not T. R. Jones' lumber yard, and on being answered in the negative, said he thought it was, and that he was taking the lumber because he had an open account with Mr. Jones, and, desiring to go to work at a job early in the morning, wanted a board to begin on. The nightwatchman evincing an incredulity most tantalizing to the other's feelings, and otherwise expressing himself in terms calculated to harrow up one's soul, the sensitive individual drew a pistol, and told the guard he'd be d—d if he could talk to him in that manner. The nightwatchman, finding he had caught a tartar, did not further urge the point at issue, and the affair happily ended without bloodshed.

A Momentous Question.—"Elizabeth Ann! Elizabeth Ann!" screamed a little girl yesterday, running breathlessly into an office on Main Street, where a young lady was busily engaged writing, "Ma is over by the Co-op, and wants you to come there quick—oh, hurry! hurry!" With visions of upset baby carriages, sunstrokes, and runaways glancing through her mind, the frightened young lady dropped her pen and paper and rushing across the street to where another of her sex was standing calmly waiting, asked tremulously, "Oh, what is the matter? Speak, quick, let me know." The other said, "Why, I want to know if you would trim a white dress accorde with lace or with embroidery." "Thank heaven it is no worse," cried the other. "Embroidery, by all means."

Hardly The Thing.—The Herald, this morning, congratulates itself, and accepts the thanks of the inmates of the penitentiary, for "originating the idea" of a library at that institution, which idea is being carried into effect. Casual reference to back numbers of both papers will show that the suggestion for a penitentiary library appeared in the News twelve hours previous to the Herald's article referred to, and we do not claim the honor of originating the idea either, for we have ample proof to the effect that it came from the penitentiary itself. The Herald has laurels enough already, without this. Honor to whom it is due.

Dragged to Death.—Yesterday a young boy at West Jordan, while leading a horse to water, met with a fatal accident. He had the halter tied around his wrist, and the horse becoming frightened ran away, and the unfortunate little fellow was dragged along until life was extinct. Further particulars unknown.

Lake-shore Looming.—The business on the bathing trains to this point is rapidly increasing; yesterday afternoon four cars loaded with candidates for the brine went up, and last evening three more coaches well filled joined them. There were upwards of 200 people returned on the joint train last night.

Barker to Return.—A private letter from Mr. Ally Barker, Esq. Lake pitcher, who went west with the California Athletics some time ago, states that he starts on his return to Salt Lake about the 10th inst. The Athletics have been beaten several times recently.

Found.—The owner of a whip which was found on the street today, may have his property by calling at this office.

Financially a Failure.—The performances of the "Pinafore" juveniles in Ogden yesterday, were an unqualified success artistically, but financially were not so encouraging. It cost $300 to take the opera there, and the total receipts were about $50 less than this amount. Messrs. Harris and Smyth deserve great credit for their enterprise, and it is to be regretted that it met with so poor a return.

News from London.—A private letter from Mr. S. W. Sears, received this morning, states that wheat has risen in the London market, and that he had retained his cargo, which he disposed of some time ago at a fair profit, until now, he could have cleared $6,000 more than he did when he sold.

The Whipping Case.—The police court room this morning was packed with spectators, attracted there by the information that Mr. Musser and others were to be examined on the charge of beating Mr. Harry Bane. The affidavit in the case is sworn to by M. M. Bane, and charges A. M. Musser, Alex. McRae, Elbridge Tufts and some 12 or 15 others unknown, with an assault upon Harry Bane, with intent, as the affiant believed, to kill.

Mr. Rawlins, who appeared for the three defendants, stated that they were ready to plead to the charge of assault and battery, but as this was not the extent of the crime charged, he waived an examination, each defendant giving bonds in $500 to await the action of the grand jury.

Judge Snow appeared for the prosecution, and was assisted, in behalf of the Banes, by Judge Van Zile.

For some time after the announcement that bonds were given, the crowd remained in the hall, and it was apparent that a single unwise act would have precipitated a conflict between the opposing factions. A few words from the authorities, however, caused the multitude to disperse, and the police court, half an hour after, had its usual deserted appearance.

"Pinafore" To-Night.—This evening the most accurate interpretation of this favorite production which has yet been given here, will be presented to the Salt Lake public. Rehearsals have been of almost nightly occurrence for over a week, and the performers are trained to an advanced state of perfection in their various roles. The cast will include Miss Amy Sherwin as "Josephine," a card of itself that should fill the house to overflowing; Miss Olsen as "Buttercup," a part with which she is already identified; Miss Sanders as "Hebe," which she has also rendered with notable credit several times; Mr. J. D. White as the "Admiral," Mr. McAllister as "Ralph," Mr. Stephens as "Capt. Corcoran," Mr. McCurdy as "Deadeye," Mr. Huey as "Boatswain," Mr. Spencer as "Bos'n's Mate," and Master Joey Dunbar as the "Midshep-mite," characters which they have personated in a most unique and pleasing style before, excepting two, who now make their first appearance in the parts. The new business, stage effects, new music etc. etc., and above all Miss Sherwin's voice constitutes an attraction unparalleled in the career of this opera in our community. No extra charge for reserved seats will be made, and a good house is already assured.

To-morrow afternoon a grand Pinafore matinee will be given. The Careless Orchestra and the Philharmonic chorus will assist at both performances.

His Occupation Gone.—Had the Arkansas "doctor" that "tapped" the fat man, thinking he had dropped, but finding no water pronounced it "dry drops," lived to-day, he would, like Othello, find "his occupation gone." For Allan's Anti-Fat, a purely vegetable remedy, safely, but positively, reduces corpulency from three to six pounds per week. Sold by druggists.

New Fall Goods Shortly to Arrive.

Past experience has taught us that in this age of fast changing Styles and Fashions, it is better to sell goods subject to Season or Fashion at less than cost, than to carry them over at an expense of storage, insurance, &c., &c., only to find next season that new styles compel their sale at a loss anyway, and rather than blind the public by offering Calicoes at less than cost, we offer the following
