LOCAL BRIEFS.

Wool Men After Coyotes—The Utah Wool Growers' association will meet in this city at 2 p. m. Feb. 5, to discuss the coyote situation.

To Address Salesmen—Vice President L. S. Highway of the Home Hardware company of Chicago will address the salesmen of the Utah Hardware Association at the Hotel Utah, at 2 p. m. today.

Howard Hall Calendar—Howard hall pupils have prepared a hall calendar, attractively illustrated with scenes in and around the school. Quotations from the standard poets are freely used, with original drawings, the whole being handsomely bound.

Will Address Principals—Ex-Chief Justice Zane will address the principals meeting this afternoon in the board of education room on "Lines of a Knave Him." The judge was one of the committee of three who notified Lincoln of his first nomination for the presidency by the Chicago convention.

Police Court Reporter—Attorney A. V. Irvine was yesterday afternoon named as supreme court reporter, to succeed A. B. Edler. The appointment was made by the judges of the supreme court, and carried with it a salary of $800 per annum. Colonel Irvine will assume the position April 1, at which time Mr. Edler's resignation takes effect.

Big Generator in Use—The new motor-generator of the Utah Light & Railway company is running today, helping run the street cars which require from 2,500 to 3,000 horse power for operation. There are no more trouble, the sources of power within command are sufficient, notwithstanding the loss of power from Provo canyon.

Bringing Kennedy's Body Home—The body of M. J. Kennedy will arrive from San Francisco Thursday, and be taken charge of by O'Donnell. It is possible that it may be sent to Springfield, Mass., for interment, where a sister is living.

Kennedy's Death was something—Kennedy's death was something tragic. His wife was lying ill at the hospital, where he went to see her; but he had only entered the building, when the alarm came, and he dropped lifeless to the floor.

Vandal Destroys Windows—Two costly plate glass windows were kicked in by some vandal last night and the police are unable to discover a clue leading to the identity of the miscreant. One of the windows was at the Western Arms & Sporting Goods house, 155 Main street, and the other at the New York loan office, 42 east Second South street. When the Main street window was broken a man was seen to stand with his back to the window, and crash his foot through the heavy plate. Both windows were completely demolished.

Injured in Odd Manner—A peculiar accident occurred last evening on Eleventh South and State streets to Charles Yetter, a teamster. One of his horses became sick and Yetter stopped at a store to get medicine for the animal. While Yetter was giving the horse the medicine the animal laid down in a dying condition. With a final shudder the horse kicked backward and the iron shoe hoof struck Yetter on the left ankle, fracturing it. The injured man was taken to the emergency hospital where Drs. Paul and Steele reduced the fracture. Yetter was then sent to St. Mark's hospital.

Teachers in Sad plight—The teachers of the public schools held a meeting yesterday afternoon, at which the subject of salaries was discussed at considerable length. An agreement exists between the teachers and the board of education whereby the former are to wait one week after each month's salary becomes due before receiving their checks. This time it happens that the teachers drew their pay Dec. 15, and will not be paid again until Feb. 5. Some find rather strenuous scheming to tide themselves over until the regular payday to another, without having to wait a still longer time.

AN EXPLANATION.
The reason for the popularity of the Fleur-de-lis chocolates is that they are absolutely pure and of the very best quality. For sale at Willis-Horne Drug Store, Smith Drug Store, Brigham Street Pharmacy and Holiday Drug.

A MATTER OF CHOICE.
Really, as a matter of choice, we would rather have ten persons deposit $1 each than one person deposit $10. True, the smaller deposits give us more labor in caring for them, still we prefer them. No one, therefore, should be at all timid about bringing in small deposits. Make our bank your bank.

MRS. R. R. GRANT'S CALLED HOME

Death of Well Known Woman Occurs at an Early Hour
This Morning.

MOTHER OF HEBER J. GRANT

Affectionately Known Throughout the Church for Her Good Works—
Death Follows Pneumonia.

Mrs. Rachel B. Grant, affectionately known throughout the Church as "Grandma Grant," passed away at the residence of her granddaughter, Mrs. George J. Cannon, 880 First Avenue, at 1:10 this morning. Death followed an attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Grant was identified with the Church since the old Nauvoo days and through all the trials and tribulations of pioneer life, she preserved the sunny disposition which endeared her to all with whom she came in contact. Prior to her marriage to Jedediah Morgan Grant, second counselor to President Brigham Young, November, 1855, Mrs. Grant had been in Utah two years. Her maiden name was Rachel Ridgeway and she was the sixth child of her father, Jedediah Morgan Grant, whose grandmother was a Shreve, a family whose members have figured conspicuously in the history of New Jersey.

It was while residing at Horners-ton, New Jersey, that she first heard the Mormon elders preach. She laughingly used to relate that after being induced to go and hear the elders, she went home and prayed that the Lord would forgive her for doing such a thing on the Sabbath. She continued to go, however, even after the Baptist minister threatened to banish her from his church. Eventually she joined the Church and in 1842 she visited Nauvoo with one of her cousins and there became acquainted with the Prophet Joseph, also John Taylor and other leaders of the Church. She remained in Utah through many severe trials; among them was the experience at the time of the martyrdom of the prophet.

After this tragic event she returned to Horners-ton, N. J., and remained there until 1852, when in company with her sister, Anna, and a number of other people of that neighborhood who had joined the Church, she emigrated to Utah, arriving in Salt Lake Aug. 10 of that year. Two years later she married Jedediah Morgan Grant, and the following year her son Heber Jedediah (now member of the quorum of apostles) was born. Nine days later she was left a widow in very humble circumstances. By renouncing her religion she would have been welcomed and cared for by her eastern relatives—who were in good financial circumstances. She preferred to remain in Utah and rear her boy in poverty, earning their living by sewing and keeping boarders.

Subsequently for 35 years Mrs. Grant served as president of the Relief Society of the Thirteenth ward of this city, having at one time as her counselor Mrs. Bathsheba W. Smith, who now stands at the head of these organizations throughout the world. Since her eightieth birthday she lived quietly at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Lucy Grant Cannon. To the last she was an active worker and took an interest in things pertaining to her Church and friends. Her features can be seen at the place of funeral on the day of funeral between the hours of 9:30 and 10:30.

BENEFIT FOR SUFFERERS.
The best performance in aid of the Italian earthquake sufferers took place at the Colonial theater yesterday afternoon. The program was under the stage management of Willard Mack, of the Broadway theater, and the acts were made up from every theater of the city. Fourteen acts were given and each number was excellently rendered. Returns from the sale of tickets are not all in, but it is expected that about $1,000 will be realized. The ticket selling was done in greater part by the students of the High school, under the supervision of the woman's relief committee.

Those taking part in the performance were, Theodore Lorch and company, from the Grand Old Palace; Jennie Grinnell, Eddie Ridgeway, Alchella Gunnison, and May Aubrey, of "Babes in Toyland," from the Colonial; Harry Herndon, R. W. Allright, of "The Vagabond," the playlet at the Salt Lake theater; Mr. and Mrs. Brandon, in "The Tailor," from the Bungalow; John Allison, in "Travels of an Imperialist," in vaudeville from the Orpheum; Mlle. Lavelle, in serpentine dances, from the Empires. The proceeds will be forwarded at once to the general relief committee.

PUT IN JAIL.
Very accurately describes anyone's feelings who is subjected to the loss of an attack of rheumatism, lumbago, stiff joints or muscle. Ballard's Snow Liniment will cure the trouble, relieve the pain and make you as supple as a two-year-old. Sold by C. M. J. Drug Store, 103 and 111 South Main St.

HANDSOME DOORS INSTALLED.

Magnificent productions of the manufacturing arts are the great solid bronze doors that have just been set up in the entrance to the banking apartment on the first floor of the Newhouse block, facing Main street. These doors have not as yet attracted much attention, on account of the high fence on the street which shuts out public view on the east side while from the west side of the street the valuable character of the doors is not so apparent.

But a closer inspection, accorded through the courtesy of Supt. of construction, Morton, gives a clear idea of the value of these great portals. They were manufactured in New York expressly for Col. Newhouse with the solid bronze grill work already set up in the window openings of the bank. Each door weighs 1,500 pounds. The height is 15 feet, 4 inches, and width, 9 feet, and the contractors say they cost $5,000. Their architecture is massive and imposing. The entrance to the bank is grand, will also be equipped with heavy bronze doors, and the two pairs, with the ornamental and extensive bronze grill work, will surpass anything between St. Louis and San Francisco.
