

made, and by others to the fact that everybody seems to be buying. It was said to-day that the Cincinnati who realized so heavily on the August corner, were short on September, and sold 1,000,000 bushels this morning to break the market, but failing in this they began to buy heavily to cover their shorts, thus swelling the boom in prices. The rates for wheat were higher to-day than for several years past, and there seemed to be less corners here than in Milwaukee, to which city 22,000 bushels of wheat were shipped at a fair profit at present prices, and consequently the elevators here are approaching their limit.

Corn and oats advanced considerably, and provisions were firmer in sympathy.

NEW YORK, 29.—The Sun to-day says: It is reported from excellent sources of information that Robert will soon resign the collectorship. He has himself furnished conclusive proof of his intention to withdraw by consenting to be elected delegate to the republican state convention. His view of civil service reform would not allow him to become a delegate to the nomination convention unless he intended to retire from the collectorship.

During the President's illness able dispatches were sent daily to W. Mackey by George L. Brander of the Nevada Bank. On Saturday Brander received from Mackey the following dispatch, dated Berlin: "Just arrived from Moscow. Learn with deep regret of the President's death. Please enclose the thousand dollars as my subscription."

A check for this amount was at once sent to the Garfield fund. A Utica special says: Jones, of Nevada, arrived at noon, and with the private secretary of Arthur in a closed carriage to Conkling's house. It is reported that Conkling expected during the night, but a hint apropos to this visit, that within the next three or four days such decisive action will be taken in Washington as to leave no doubt that Arthur, with all his executive power is enlisted in Conkling's interest in this state and that stalwart managers will have the blank for the federal patronage of the state to be used in New York city, and that the convention at the Academy of Music will be an administration affair.

Information at whatever cost, and it is believed that a large number of alleged anti-stalwart delegates are being elected in the interim can be converted by sufficient patronage and pressure into Arthur Conkling men after they get to New York. The general understanding among the stalwarts is that Grant will head the delegation from New York City; that everybody save Lincoln in the Cabinet must go, and that Arthur and Conkling are in a trifle closer accord to-day than they ever were before.

WASHINGTON, 29.—If bonds come the same as yesterday, the pre-call will exhaust 29 million dollars of the extended sixes. Army officers say that Col. Rockwell retires from the position of superintendent of public buildings and grounds because of the statement made by Gen. Drum, adjutant-general of the army, that the position was not legally authorized and had sprung up under the presiding administration through neglect to comply with the law. Judge Advocate General Swain overruled this decision, but there was much feeling about it, and particularly because Rockwell was promoted over the heads of older servants in the army. The case would have been brought to the notice of the President had Col. Rockwell not resigned.

It is believed that Gen. Swain will resign his commission in the army, where he ranks as Brigadier-General and gets pay, $5,500 with allowances.

Secretary Lincoln declines to discuss the Cabinet, but appears to be willing to remain in the Cabinet. The prospect is that he will resign with Fair, of Nevada, is suffering with cancer in the breast. He is not likely ever to take his seat in the Senate again. Senator Hill is now in the hospital in Philadelphia. He writes that he will be able to vote on the organization of the Senate. He has lost about a quarter of his tongue, and has been subjected to a surgical operation on the throat and parotid gland, which will interfere with his speaking. His general health is good.

Attorney General MacVeagh is the first member of the Cabinet to announce his determination to have his formal resignation of last week regarded as final.

President Arthur to-day directed the removal of Sol Star, postmaster at Deadwood, Dakota, for confessed complicity with the Star route contractors in defrauding the Postoffice Department.

Col. Corkhill, United States District Attorney, received this morning from Attorney General Stockton, of New Jersey, a communication in which he states that no action will be taken in Guiteau's case by the authorities of that State.

B. H. Brewster, of Philadelphia, arrived in Washington, to assist ex-District Attorney Bliss, of New York and District Attorney Cook, in preparing the prosecution of the Star route cases. When indictments are secured, Bliss thinks ample evidence will be secured for presentation to the grand jury to entitle the government to indictment.

Orders are issued by Secretary Hunt placing the United States steamer Dispatch, now at New York, at the disposal of King Kalakaua, while on his way to Fortress Monroe and Yorktown. The Dispatch will meet the royal party at Hampton Roads to-morrow.

King Kalakaua and party accepted the invitation from the Secretary of the Navy to go to Yorktown and Fortress Monroe in a government vessel as soon as a suitable one arrives.

District Attorney Corkhill to-day took the last steps in the preliminary arrangements for securing the indictment of Guiteau next week by issuing subpoenas to the following witnesses for the government: Edward A. Bailey, stenographer, who has a large mass of notes of conversation with Guiteau, while in jail, covering his history from early boyhood, his reason for committing the act, etc.; George W. Adams, President of the Evening Star publishing company, who was in the depot en route to Cape May, when the shooting occurred; Geo. W. McElfresh, detective; Dr. D. W. Bliss, and Dr. D. H. Lamb, who were at the autopsy; Jacob P. Smith, special officer at the Baltimore & Potomac Railroad depot, who witnessed the shooting and assisted in the arrest of Guiteau; Sarah White, in charge of the ladies waiting-room at the depot, who saw the shooting and helped raise the wounded President; Robert A. Park, ticket-seller, who jumped through the window of his office and assisted in raising the President; Policeman Patrick Kearney, who told the President he had ten minutes to wait for the train. This witness also assisted in the arrest of Guiteau. The District Attorney will ask Senator Don Simon Comacho, Charged d'Affaires of Venezuela, who was in the depot at the time and witnessed the shooting, to testify. All the above named witnesses were directed to be in attendance at the reassembling of the Grand Jury at the Criminal Court room on Monday next, when the case will be presented to the Grand Jury.

No answer has yet been received by the District Attorney from Geo. M. Scoville, Guiteau's brother-in-law, who was requested by the prisoner to appear as his counsel. Guiteau says he is not afraid of the law, for that will protect him and prevent his being hung. He is reported as feeling somewhat disappointed at not receiving a prompt reply from Scoville.

NEW YORK, 29.—The Sun's Milwaukee correspondent interviewed Scoville, Guiteau's brother-in-law and lawyer, selected by Guiteau to conduct his defense. He said he could not decide what course he would pursue until he had conferred with his wife, Guiteau's sister. His sister will do all she can for him, and he will do the same, as he is firmly convinced that the man is demented. He said: "There won't be any great effort made to defend him. If I appear I will simply put before the jury matters relating to his mental condition, whether the indictment is faulty or not."

Christianizing Indians seems yet to be far off. Yesterday a son of Saco, formerly chief of the Victoria band, died, and he applied to-day for permission to kill a squaw charged with bewitching him. Permission was denied.

The surrender of hostile Sanchez and other bands number 60 bucks 73 squaws and 73 children.

Judge Advocate General Egbert is here to ascertain whether the renegades can be tried by a military commission.

An officer of General Carr's command reports that when they returned to Cibola they found that the Indians had exhumed the bodies of Capt. Hentig and the soldiers killed there. The dead men had been buried in a canvas tent, which the Indians had carried off, leaving certain articles they did not want. Capt. Hentig's head was crushed with large stones, and badly mutilated. One hand and foot was gone. The command buried the remains and fired a salute. One tent has been found here occupied by Indians. It is believed that the real murderer of Captain Hentig has been discovered and will be arrested.

Marshal for New Mexico, a son of the late Judge Charles Sherman, of Cleveland, and a nephew of Honest John, was indicted by the United States grand jury for this district yesterday, for the embezzlement of government money. He passed the night in the county jail, not having been able to procure bonds for $10,000 until morning.

ST. PAUL, 29.—The Republican State Convention met, organized and committees reported without delay. The resolution holds the executive of the nation should not be controlled by senatorial dictation, and the executive should not interfere with senators' actions in his appointments; that in Chester A. Arthur, upon whom has fallen the mantle of an illustrious man, we hope to find a successor who will in no wise disappoint the just expectations of the republican party, or the country. Chosen by the nation as an associate of Gen. Garfield on the presidential ticket, selected by the people to be his successor in any emergency which might render such succession necessary, the republicans of Minnesota, with a due appreciation of the peculiar embarrassments surrounding his assumption to office, in full expectation of his faithfulness to the party, and his devotion to the best interests of the country, pledge him their cordial consideration and united support.

The following ticket was nominated: Governor, L. T. Hubbard, of Red Wing; lieutenant-governor, Charles A. Gilman, of St. Cloud; secretary of state, Fred Von Bamach, of Alexandria; treasurer, Chas. Settleson, of Rashon; attorney general, W. J. Hahn, of Lake City; railroad commissioner, Gen. J. G.

The following were nominated: Governor N. D. Fratt; Lieutenant Governor, W. A. Anderson; Secretary of State, Michael Johnson; Treasurer, W. H. Jacobs; Attorney-General, M. J. Briggs; Superintendent of Public Instructions, Robert Graham; Railroad Commissioner, Rudolph Kemper; Insurance Commissioner, Ambrose Hoffmann. The boat was just finished at a cost of $80,000.

FOREIGN.

ST. PETERSBURG, 28.—For some days past considerable excitement has been noticeable here, calculated to make one suppose that we are on the eve of great events. A large number of students have arrived in the city, and the police are more active than ever. Proclamations issued by secret printing establishments, are being profusely circulated, and houses are being searched at all hours of the day and night. The Emperor's body guard has again been increased. Last Saturday the Minister of the Imperial Household and General Scherevinon, an officer specially intrusted with the charge of His Majesty's person, held a conference which lasted several hours in the Kassar cathedral. All this may be connected with the approaching interview of the Czar with the Emperor of Austria. One of the ministers to-day said, without positively denying that the interview was to take place, that if it did take place it would not take place till next spring. This, however, is doubtless merely intended to mislead the public, as on the occasion of the Dantzic meeting. The departure of the Emperor will probably not be known to most people till he has actually started. Every one is suspected here. A ukase prescribing additional measures of precaution will be issued shortly. The Emperor leaves for Warsaw to-day or to-morrow.

LONDON, 28.—Secretary Blaine, at Washington, received the following telegram from the Queen:

"Would you express my sincere condolence to the late President's mother, and inquire after her health as well as after Mrs. Garfield." Her Majesty adds: "I should be thankful if you would procure me a good photograph of Prest. Garfield."

LOWELL, U. S. Minister. Assistant Secretary Hitt replied as follows:

Lowell, Minister, London.

Your telegram expressing the compassion of the Queen for the mother of the late President, was duly forwarded to Mrs. Garfield, at Mentor, Ohio. I have just received the following reply:

Please request Mr. Lowell to express to Her Majesty, the Queen, the grateful acknowledgment of the mother of General Garfield, and also my own, for the tender, womanly sympathy she has been pleased to send, and also Her Majesty's wish will be complied with at an early day.

Signed, LUCRETIA R. GARFIELD.

You will please make fitting communication of this reply to Her Majesty.

He will be replaced in London by the present ambassador to Berlin, who, it is said, will be succeeded by M. Delgiers. There is serious talk of appointing M. Delgiers Russian ambassador to Berlin.

DUBLIN, 29.—The Catholic bishops of Ireland, in session at Maynooth College, adopted a resolution that the land act is a great benefit to tenants, for which gratitude is due the government and all who helped to carry the measure. The bishops summon the clergy to guard their flocks against all secret agencies of violence and intimidation.

PARIS, 29.—There is an impression that France desires to force a treaty on the King of Tonquin, and there will be a repetition of the Tunis affair there. Such a course would very likely involve a rupture with China.
