> to acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend a select sociable party at the 12th Ward Assembly ms on Thursday evening, Dec 18th. Our pleasure does not arise articularly or specially from the act of receiving the invitation, which is an often extended couresy, but rather from the object of the sociable, which is announced of this object the committee say: "Gentlemen and ladies will ob lige the committee by dispensing with everything that may be deem ed unnecessary or extravagant, such as kid gloves, swallow-tailed coats, trailing dresses, &c. will combine and ald with their endeavors to introduce sociables of this kind, promising, if this be suc-

essful, to give a series of similar ntertainments." Nearly all of the gentlemen com men, which makes it doubly gratifying to see them take this necessary step in the matter, not only of etrenchment but also of the breaking down of class distinctions to growing tendency of late years among the Latter-day Saints.

The names of the gentlemen mposing the committee are: John R. Winder, H. B. Clawson r.; A. S. Patterson, John T. Caine ir.: L. Cummings, C. S. Burton, Wm. G. Sharp, A. D. Young, Ru-lon S. Wells, John R. Winder, jr.; lon S. Wells, John R. Winder, Jr.,
