WEBER STAKE CONFERENCE

Unity and Harmony in All Organizations-Addresses by Elders Teasdale and McKay.

COUNTY SCHOOL AFFAIRS.

Regulations Regarding the Driving of Sheep Through Ogden Canyon-Harvest of Grim Reaper.

Ogden, April 22 .- The family conference of the Weber stake was held in the Ogden tabernacle yesterday with services in the morning at 10 o'clock and in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. They were presided over by President L. W. Shurtliff, who, after the usual devotional exercises, briefly reported the condition and progress of the various organizations and quorums of the stake, among all of which unity and harmony prevailed.

Mrs. Lillie Pye Bradford and choir sang "Scatter Sunshine."

Elder David O. McKay took the words

Elder David O. McKay took the words of the last song for his text, from which he preached a most interesting sermon on the necessity of people living up to their ideals and make life better. Samuel T. Whitaker rendered an or-gan solo and was followed by Elder George Teasdale in an address on the beauties of a well spent life, and the pleasure the contemplation of such allife must give to all when they go hence to meet their Creator. 'It would seem that we do not fully appreciate the wonderful things the Lord has brought to us,'' said the speaker. 'If we would stop to think of God's blessings at all times, it would be impossible to find it stop to think of God's Diessings at an times, it would be impossible to find it irksome to do His will, and to keep His laws. We cannot do too much for God because we know that by observing His commandments we will gain eternat sustained.

Miss Maud Belnap sang the solo. "There is a Green Hill Far Away." Benediction was pronounced by Presi-dent N. C. Flygare. The afternoon services were com-menced by the choir singing "Softly Beams the Sacred Dawning:" prayer by Elder Joseph Parry. Miss Myrtle Ballanger and choir sang "In Thee, O Lord, Do I Put My Trust." Counselor C. F. Middleton was the first speaker, reporting the condition of some of the auxiliary organizations, and the great responsibility of par-ents to teach their children the gospel. The general church and stake author-tiles were presented and unanimously sustained.

Elder George Teasdale delivered an inspiring addres on the first principles of the Gospel, faith, repentance, bap-tikm and the laying on of hands, and read from the scriptures the Savior's teachings on the same, which principles the speaker said are taught by the Latthe speaker said, are taught by the Lat-ter-day Saints. The Gospel principles are eternal and offer the only means by which mankind can be saved. The by which mankind can be saved. The speaker touched upon the personality of God and read from the Scriptures to prove the truth of that doctrine. Ho read a number of phophesies concern-ing the Jews, that they should be gath-ered together in the latter days and hear the Gospel from the servants of God; which would bring them to a knowledge that Jesus was the Messiah for whom they had longed and prayed. Through That Roadway. Ogden, April 22.—There is every in-dication now of overcoming the diffi-culties that have arisen in the past between Weber county and the sheep men, caused through the driving of herds of sheep through Ogden canyon without proper precaution and care, thus greatly damaging that excellent driveway. A meeting was held Satur-day afternoon at the county court house, which was attended by the three county. The matters were thor-oughly discussed, and Commissioner Madson and J. S. Peery, representing the sheep men, were named as a com-mittee to draft rules governing the driving of sheep through Ogden can-yon or any other canyon in Weber county. The rules submitted and unanimously adopted are as follows: All flockmasters driving herds of BRIEFS AND PERSONALS. Mrs. Jennie Tullock of Australia arvisit with her brother, George Lock-head, Sr., whom she had not seen for over 17 years. Their meeting was a joyous of byous one. Proposition to Establish Electric Light Plant-Two Cases of Diphtheria.

Special Correspondence. Bountiful, Davis Co., April 19.--The funeral services over the remains of Hugh Moss was held in the Bountiful tabernacie Thursday. The attendance was very large. The speakers on the occasion were Patriarch Judson Tol-man, Elders Levi S. Heywood, John H. Barlow, Jed Stringham, Wilford Tut-tile and Amos Cook, each speaking of the excellent character⁵⁰ the deceased, of his honesty and integrity, who was a kind husband and father, and good neighbor. He leaves a wife and three children, who keenly feel the loss of his departure. Deceased had just past the fifth year of his age. There are two cases of diphtheria here, but the patients are nearly re-covered, and the quarantine will be removed in a few days. ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT. Special Correspondence.

ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT.

There appears to be a prospect of Bountiful having an electric lighting system in the near future. A number of mass meetings have been held to consider the proposition, and an incorporating committee has been appoint-ed to incorporate under the state laws The system will be owned by the citi-zens. Considerable stock has been subscribed already.

Special Correspondence. Eureka, Juab Co., April 18.-James A. Pierce, a well known resident and prop-erty owner of Eureka, was robbed of about $65 Wednesday night. A little niter 10 o'clock Mr. Pierce and J. A. O'Brien, who was staying with him, were seated near the stove engaged in a conversation when the door was sud-denly forced open and a masked man entered. Mr. O'Brien, who had his back toward the door, was immediately struck on the head by a gun in the hands of the robber, and was knocked meonscious. The man then turned to Mr. Pierce and demanded what money there was in the house, threatening his life with the gun in his hands if he did not obey the demand. Mr. Pierce has been in feeble health for some time, and he could offer no resistance. Mr. Pierce would not tell where the money was, so the stranger began to ransack the premises, search-ing in everything and finally come across the $65 that had recently been paid to Mr. Pierce by his tenants. The robber then made a hurried get-away. The officers were notified at once, but the chances are had good to catch him, because he left no clue upon which to work. Sheriff Henroid expresses his belief that the deed was done by some one, evidently, who is familiar with Mr.
