Chronicle.

There will be no service tomorrow at the First Congregational church, as the pastor is called away. But there will be evening service instead.

Unless the brother or some relative of the late Aurora Hodge is heard from today, as to the final disposition of the remains, they will be buried at the ex-pense of the county,

Tomorrow night President Anthon H. Lund will deliver a lecture in the Twen. ty-eighth ward meetinghouse, the meeting commencing at 6:30. His sub-ject will be, "Missionary Work in the Holy Land."

There will be a meeting held at the Veteran Volunteers' hall, 271 Canyon road, on Monday night, Dec. 7, at 8 o'clock sharp. All old firemen are re-spectfully invited to be present, as business of importance will be transacted.

Mrs. Lucy W. Smith will give "A Short Talk on Rome," which she has lately visited, before the joint meeting of the two Improvement associations of the Eighteenth ward tomorrow night. ward choir will also render a special program.

The funeral services over the mains of the late Elizabeth Bean, wife of William Bean, aged 65 years, will be held Sunday, the 6th, at 12 o'clock noon from the Twentieth ward meeting-house. Friends are invited to attend, and can view the remains at family res-idence from 10 to 11:30 a, m, on day of funeral.

The Home Fire Insurance office received this morning, a letter from Lake Butler, Florida, enquiring as to the chances for investment in the far west, as 4 per cent is about all people with money to invest can get in the south-eastern country. The inquirer had seen the insurance company's advertisement in the Descret News, thus showing that the "News" has a wide circulation.

Secy. Harris of the Commercial club is busy issuing notices today, to the effect that the second annual banquet of the club will be held at 8 p. m. Dec. 14. The name of the Weber club is interwoven at the head of the notice with that of the Commercial club, and attention is called to the fact that the We-ber club will be associated at this function with the Salt Lake club, Ac-companying the notices is the menu card containing the names of 25 delicate articles of diet.

The Holy Cross hospital now has The Holy Cross hospital new has what is believed to be the finest operat-ing room between Chicago and San Francisco. It is composed of a suite of five rooms, the main one being where the operations are performed. East of the main room is the sterilizing room, and beyond that a room where the phy-leting and suggeons does not sicians and surgeons change their clothes and prepare for operations, Op-ening off the west side of the operating room is the anestbetic room, where pa-tients are prepared for operations, and tients are prepared for operations, and beyond is another apartment, where attendants and physicians prepare to use the knife. All the rooms are fitted with marble and white enameled brick. The floors are marble, as is also the wainscoting to the height of about six feet. Above that is a smaller wains-coting of enameled brick, extending to the ceiling, which is also of brick.
