satisfaction to all concerned. All things continuing favorable the district schools will commence again next Monday, in the same building that a former correspondent of yours called a miserable shack, a term that some of our substantial tax payers object to.

If there is anything in your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. She can surely belp you, for no person in America has such a wide experience in treating female ills as she has had. Address is Lynn, Mass.; her advice is free and alway helpful.
