REPUBLICAN CRAND RALLY.

Senator C. D. Clark of Wyoming and Other Speakers.

Hold Forth in the Opera House-Republican Good Times-Democrats Open Headquarters.

The Republicans held forth last evening at the Grand Opera House, opening the campaign in this county, The evening's exercises were o pened by a quartet of colored men known as the Eureka Glee club singing "When the Good Lord Sets You Free." They were encored twice. The speakers were Judge Agee, Col. A. B. Hayes, Senator C. D. Clark of Wyoming. The senator was Clark of Wyoming. The senator was warmly received upon being introduced. He stated that he had always had a desire to speak to a Utah audience, and appreciated the opportunity. He did not desire, he said, to give any set speech, but to talk upon matters that pertain to the general welfare of our homes and countfy. "What is good for one family is good for another, wheth, one family is good for another, wheth-er it be a Republican or Democratic family. There is not a Republican prin-ciple that I would not give up if I thought it would benefit my country. and will my Democratic friends do the same? If in looking over the past of our country you find that during Re-publican reign there has been prosperity and happiness, then is it not good principles that bring about such a state of affairs? That is surely the condition of our country today. "In 1857 I knew that something wa wrong in my home, I knew that my jo was lost and the food and clothes wer scant, but I never knew the cause ur If I commenced to investigate the pol tical policies. At that time the song wa sung, "Hard Times Come Again N More," and thank Go dthey have neve come again during the time when th tepublicans have had contra in ou

Smith, who now stands at the heim, sont jove and greetings and the students showed their appreciation by hearty applause. Remarks were made by President Anthon H. Lund and Apostle Rudger Clawson. Many glowing tribut-were paid to the memory of the "grand old man," Dr. Karl G. Maeser, the min who grave the neademy to hedrogrand gave the academy its pedagogical faundation. President Cluff reported the condition of the school, showing the need of an-other building to accommodate the 1.175 students now under the tuition of the academy. The students hope that next year will see another building erected for more efficient work. In the afternoon a lively athletic con test was held on the academy campus, between the college and high school. It resulted in victory for the high schoo by a score of 63 to 45. The victors in this contest will represent the academy in any intercollegiate contests which hay occur this year. The day closed with a farewell testi given in honor of Miss Emma Lucy Gates, who will shortly leave fo Europe to continue her studies. Mis Gates was as charming as ever. He sweet voice filled the building with mei ody, and stirred the hearts of her hearers, with deep and pure emotions. Miss Gates appeared four times, sing-ing 12 songs in all. Among them were the great favorites "You and I." "Spring," "Villanelli," "Coming Through the Rye," and "Sing, Sweet Bird." Miss Gates was accompanied by Prof. J. J. McClellan. The academy orchestra appeared in two excellent selections. Prof. Albert Miller also gave two violin solos.

Miss Lillie Degenkolbe, Treasurer South End Society of Christian Endeavor, 3141 Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill., Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM : --- When life looked brightest to me I sustained a hard fall and internal complications were the result. I was considerably inflamed, did not feel that I could walk, and lost my good spirits. I spent money doctoring without any help, when a relative visited our home. She was so enthusiastic over Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, having used it herself, that nothing would satisfy her until I sent for a bottle. I have thanked her a hundred times for it since, for it brought blessed health to me and cured me within seven weeks.

I now wish to thank you, your medicine is a friend to suffering women."---LILLIE DEGENKOLBE,
