PRICE OF GOLD. Corrected daily by Devereux National Bank. SALT LAKE CITY, June 24, 1876. Buying at 61.10; selling at 61.12.

Local and Other Matters.

THERMOMETER 81 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p. m. to-day. Fine.

Tabernacle Meeting.—Elders Thomas Taylor and John Taylor preached yesterday afternoon.

Not So.—The report that James Cain had been captured on Saturday was incorrect.

An Involuntary Bath.—On Saturday evening a little girl, about three or four years old, while attempting to get a drink of water from the spout in front of the Eagle Emporium building, fell into the stream and was carried down about a couple of rods. She was rescued by some person passing by at the time, unhurt.

Accident.—Henry Walker, of Moroni, met with a severe accident at that place a few days since, through falling into a cellar, after dark. He had two ribs broken and received other injuries. Dr. H. C. Longmore was in attendance and rendered the necessary assistance.

Runaway Accident.—Yesterday a lady was driving along South Temple Street, with her little daughter, when the horse suddenly became unmanageable, running westward, and the buggy striking against the street railroad curve, in front of this office, was tipped over, throwing the occupants out. The lady was badly stunned, and was carried into President Wells' house, but the little girl escaped unhurt.

The Centennial Spirit of the Times, San Francisco, is the largest and finest issue of this year, and contains a magnificent forty large newspaper pages of salmon-tinted paper, and is filled with local and centennial illustrations and descriptive matter. The illustrations, nearly 150, include city and country views, noted buildings, and prominent public men. This issue is a remarkable instance of California newspaper enterprise.

Lowering.—The most of the streams in this valley, including City Creek, are gradually lowering, so that there is no more danger apprehended from flooding.

The supervisor, who has had men and teams at work at the mouth of City Creek, night and day, for several weeks, keeping the channel clear, has withdrawn his force from there, the stream having ceased to wash the gravel down.

The amount of rock and gravel that has accumulated in that locality is positively surprising.

Some Shooting.—Yesterday evening, Frank Morris, being intoxicated, was spelling for a fight, and instigated in some talk about using his pistol. In front of the Salt Lake House he told James Fitzgerald that he would just as soon fight him as not. Morris falling to obey that gentleman's injunction to retire and leave him alone, he planted a shoulder blow between his eyes, which knocked him over. While half prostrate, Morris drew and cocked his pistol. Fitzgerald seized the weapon, to disarm him, when it was discharged, slightly wounding his hand.

Morris was arrested and Justice Poyer fined him $100 this morning.

A Useful Machine.—Mr. A. M. Mortimer, of this City, has invented, and recently obtained a United States patent for, a sun fruit-drying machine. It consists of a frame upon which is erected an upright house, and the shelves, being hung on joints, are always level, and can be drawn out to a sufficient angle to expose the fruit to the rays of the sun, and, in case of storm, be pushed in and closed up, being thus thoroughly protected. The whole machine has a centre, upon which it can be turned at will, as the direction of the sun's rays may require. One of those contrivances, twelve feet long, with shelves sixteen inches wide, gives 240 feet of drying surface, and can be made for $25, which, as would, by such means, be readily saved by orchardists each year, by prevention of the spoiling of fruit by storms and other contingencies.

The Convicts.—On Saturday afternoon intelligence reached Marshal Nelson that a couple of young men named Beckstead and another, while riding south of West Jordan, were accosted by five men, who presented guns at them and took their horses, telling them they were escaped convicts, would not steal the animals, but would ride them to the foothills and then leave them, and they rode off in a southerly direction. The Marshal and several deputies started in pursuit, although we are of opinion that those men who stopped the Becksteads are not the genuine runaways, as fugitives from justice who have escaped from jail, are not the persons to tell people that they are "escaped convicts." Not much. It is well known, however, that some of the desperadoes who escaped have plenty of friends who have in league with them in the cattle stealing business, who would be likely to say they were "escaped convicts," in order to throw the officers off the track.

Intelligence from another quarter more than confirms this view, news having been received that three men supposed to be of the escaped party were seen recently near Forterville, which suspicion is confirmed by the fact that they had with them a couple of horses, exactly corresponding with the description of the two horses of the convicts from the penitentiary. The three are supposed to be WILLIAMSON, PATTERSON and WILLIAMS.
