The reformation has touched the hearts of both men and women. The people generally are turning round, and they will serve God more perfectly than hitherto. Many of you have never tried this order until now, and let me tell you brethren, that it is necessary for you to keep the Holy Ghost. If you have not got it, you must get it and never be without it. You must shed forth that influence on your family, as Mrs. Joseph and Heber told you this morning, or they will leave you. They will not stay with a man who is destitute of it, if they are good women, neither should they. This is a word for you, my brethren, who are now starting out on this principle. It is a good, virtuous, and holy principle, and not to be trifled with. The women as a general thing have power and faith in this kingdom, and they come into this order with full purpose of heart, desiring to do right; and in leading them if you will be careful of your own feelings, and have a little magnanimity of mind, it will be better for you and they will stick to you, because it is for their salvation in the kingdom of our God. It is for this they are here, and they will cleave to you for it; and it is your office, right and privilege to extend that blessing to them. I do not make these remarks for wives to run ahead of their husbands, for they seek their salvation through them. Of course there are exceptions to all general rules. I am speaking upon general principles, to Saints of the Most High. This is a good people, generally.

I say to the sisters, seek to have confidence in your husbands and believe that they are capable of leading you; and when you seek instruction, believe them capable of giving it to you; and be faithful, humble and obedient to them. Their feelings should not be concentrated in you, but your feelings should be in them, and their's should be in those who lead them in the Priesthood. Their feelings are concentrated in the Lord their God and what is ahead, and there is where they should be. You should be glad to see them step forward and walk onward in the path of their duty, and not require them to devote themselves to you to the exclusion of things and duties of life which lie before them. As they progress and lead on, you will feel to travel in the same road. This is the order, and if order is maintained in this thing you will see the beauty of it; and it will be a satisfaction to you and them to believe that your husband, he who is at your head, is progressing in the things of God. That should be a satisfaction to you, and it will be, if you are inspired by the right spirit and feeling. In this way you will have happiness and see good times.

I have heard Mr. Brigham remark, many times, that he did not believe that Enoch had a better people than this, a people who progressed half as fast in the things of God as have the Latter Day Saints, notwithstanding they lived in primitive ages when they were comparatively pure, when they were not corrupted as our progenitors have been. They built and perfected a city in 365 years. I believe, and I have often heard Mr. Brigham and Heber so express themselves, that this people have made far more progress towards perfection in the same time than did Enoch's people. I rejoice in this and to see this people obedient to their head, to their Bishops and to their God.

There are great blessings, happiness and salvation for this people, so long as they continue faithful in these things. And the more they identify their interests and become subservient and passive in the hands of this priesthood here, they will be, both men and women, the more satisfied and happy in this life and better prepared to live in the flesh, as well as to enter into the life that is to come.

May the Lord bless us and help us to do right; and may we be worthy to receive his blessings.—The Lord delights to bless his servants and hand-maidens, and he will bless us until we become powerful in this hand, and are made capable of bringing to pass his purposes and designs in the last days.

If we are in the world we are not of it, because they will not let us be. They drive us and scatter us, and try to destroy us, but it matters not. We have been brought to these chambers of the Lord: we have nothing to do but praise his holy name, and we can make the arch of heaven ring with praises to our God and King and no one to make us afraid; though it makes the sinner fear and tremble, while there is none to make the Saints afraid in Zion.

Let us do the things that are for us to do, no matter what they are, whether spiritual or temporal, for they are united together and we do not wish to sever them; it is not necessary we should. We have to do with spiritual and temporal things, they go hand in hand, and the Lord will bless us, if we are faithful, which is what we seek. Do we not feel well, when we do that which meets the approbation of our Father and our God? Then let us be careful how we do anything to displease him, for then we do not feel well. The idea of offending or grieving our Heavenly Father is unpleasant. Let us also be careful how we do anything to displease our Bishops, and let the wives be careful how they do anything to displease their husbands, and let us all be united and dwell in harmony, and see how beautifully we shall move forward as a people—as the Saints of the Most High God—being such in character as well as in name.

Let us cultivate good feelings one towards another, that we may promote our own peace, happiness and final exaltation in the kingdom of God. We can enjoy ourselves in heaven only upon this principle, and if we can bring our minds to enjoy that principle here then we have a heaven here. If we have a heaven at all we have to make it, and for this reason we have the power given us to make it; the devil cannot get into our hearts, unless we give him a welcome there.

May the Lord bless us, and preserve us and help us to do his will on the earth and bring to pass his purposes, which favors I ask in the name of Jesus Christ.—Amen.

WANTED.

In this city, March 6, 1857, by Bishop Abraham Hoagland, Elder HENRY MCBWAN, printer, and Miss AGNES HOGG, all of this city.

Please accept kindest wishes for you, sir,
And for your fond, young wedded bride!
All the joys that the Cupids renew, sir,
When bright Hymen waves them betide.

In this city, March 9, 1857, by Elder T. C. Martell, Mr. GRUFFITH CHARLES and Miss ANN WILLIAMS, both from Llanelli, South Wales.

On Feb. 24, by Elder Thos. S. Smith, Mr. HENRY SMITH of Farmington and Miss HELEN M. FOX of this city.

WANTED.

In this city on the 4th inst., WESLEY JORDAN, son of George G. and Sarah Snyder, aged 4 months and 25 days.

In City Bountiful, Feb. 11, 1857, THOMAS SMITH, aged 38 years.

In Fort Clara, Santa Clara, Sept. 7, 1856, ISAIAH HAMLIN, aged 66 years.

Elder Hamblin was born in Barnstable county, Mass.; fought as a volunteer under Gen. Dearborn in the last war with Great Britain; at the battle of Plattsburgh had his hearing greatly impaired by the roar of the cannon; and at the close of the war was honorably discharged.

Hearing of the latter day work he went to Nauvoo in 1845 and was baptized; shared in the troubles of the Saints in Nauvoo, produced by the sons of those with whom he had fought side by side for his country's liberty—and had the mortification to see the Government he had fought to establish and maintain, avow such acts!

At Council Bluffs, in order to aid the Church to the valley by his means, he tarried; while there he buried his wife, her constitution not being able to endure the troubles caused by lawless mobs.

In 1850 he moved to the valley, where he rejoiced in his religion till the hour of his death. He died in full faith of having part in the first resurrection; was beloved by all who knew him; leaves 7 sons and one daughter in this Territory to imitate his exemplary course.

He desired to be buried by the way side, (no grave yard being there) that all who knew him might say, as they passed that way, "Here lies Father Hamblin, who never injured his fellow man."—[Communicated.]
