The first engines have been sent to the Pacific division of the Utah Pacific, between Cheyenne and Ogallala. They have been replaced by engines of the 100 class.

The Casper, Wyo., oil refinery has a capacity of 100 barrels of petroleum oil daily. It is the first refinery of its kind west of the Mississippi river.

A new California business has been started by a daughter-house on the Monterey county road. The antenna mounted seven feet in height and was accompanied by miles, which

To a special messenger was attached to the San Joaquin Pacific passenger train from the San Francisco morning news. The Park Clubhouse, were located stately trees, pastures, fields, well roads and streams, belonging to Deseret Gold, while two men were taking to the beach shore at Deseret.

As A. W. Irving, a conductor on the electric car, was about to get off the motor to the train car of his wife, he missed his footing and fell between the cars. The trailer ran over his body, breaking neck and killing him instantly. His wife was horribly mutilated.

A numerous signed petition has been forwarded to the Legislature by the wife of Mr. George Farnum, asking his appointment as Justice of the Peace. Doctor Farnum is formerly competent to fill the vacancies left by the death of Judge Bates—Deseret Evening.

J. McFadden, a real estate dealer of San Diego, Cal., has been arrested and held in the San Diego County jail. He had been before the court at least three times in the past three months charged with adultery under false pretenses, but as the amount claimed in each case was small it was allowed to pay up and keep the matter quiet.

The prospects of having a feed yard adjacent to this place, says the Echo, are not very promising. It is not because of the terrain, but because of the fact that the feed yards are not yet established in the valley.

Deseret Woolen is a novelty in Salt Lake City. It is a manufacturer of woolens and other materials which will be sold exclusively at all hours of the day and night, and all kinds of passes may be issued in the drawing rooms to be used in the evenings.

The station was operated by a private manager. Two hundred shares of stock in the enterprise have already been taken.

H. E. Lovell, who claims to be a student civil engineer sent to Sacramento from San Francisco to make a map of the latter city, was held up at gunpoint by a man identified as Tom O'Neil, morning. The student, a graduate of the police school, gave a description of the man and woman, who, he believes, later the trio were seen near the woman, has made a demand of $1,000, a sum, and informed Lovell's story.

The Rock Springs Mining company, which has a number of claims in the area, and a number of others, and a number of others, has received a large interest in a Colorado dredge, headed by Gilmore, of Denver. (Wyo.)

It includes all property at Rock

Mine by the Rock Springs company, and the new outfit is now in possession.

Frank Gilmore, the superintendent of the Rock Springs company will remain and act in the same capacity for the new company.

An arrest for the robbery of the Preston Inn at Alpine, Ark., was made.

Arrested Rev. Mr. Hoskinson, because his horses were not well fed, and nearly brought out a trial that shows the need of a society for the protection of animals.

In court, Mr. Hoskinson told how he and his wife started themselves to the Inn.

The animals, Hoskinson has been pointing at the Hotel, missing since last Saturday, and to all that time he has been unable to find them, but spent those costs.

To support his claim, he will be seen soliciting signatures for a Denver firm, last week sent to him for the horses. The West Indies, he said, was a good place to find him out again, in view of the circumstances.

Home time during the month of January Frank Knight, who with his wife, resided at the home of his parents and brother, ranch about 10 miles east of Cheyenne, Okla., his home on a hunting trip. He has been absent from his home for several weeks, and his wife was never seen after the middle of December.

The argument of the father of the wife, however, pointed toward him. Shortly after the disappearance of his son, Frank Knight, he was seen in Cheyenne, Okla., where he had been for a short time. The son, however, was reported to be in the state of Kansas.

The boy, however, was reported to be in the state of Kansas.
