

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—Last night there was an excellent performance, to a very slim attendance, of the play of "Love's Sacrifice."

To-night is Mr. Warner's benefit, and a magnificent bill will be presented. The performance will commence with Shakespeare's tragedy of "Hamlet," and will conclude with the comedietta "The Morning Call." In the latter Mr. Warner will appear as "Sir Edward Arden," and Miss Lockhart as "Mrs. Chillingworth."

"Hamlet" will be personated by Mr. Warner; "Polonius" by Mr. David McKenzie; Miss Lockhart will personate "Gertrude," and on this occasion, Madame Scheller, the well known and very popular actress, has volunteered to appear in her very beautiful rendition of "Ophelia." This is a great bill, and such a combination of talent as rarely to be met with.

Both the pieces have been played here repeatedly, before, and by parties standing high in the profession. But as a Shakespearean actor Mr. Warner's equal has not made his appearance at the Salt Lake Theatre, and to-night, in "Hamlet,"—considered the masterpiece of the public will not doubt be gratified in witnessing a faithful embodiment of the strange of all of Shakespeare's creations.

We hope to see a crowded house, that the benefit may be in some degree commensurate with the artist's abilities.

TWO MORE COMPANIES.—Elder W. C. Staines, Emigration Agent, now in the East, sends word that, from advices which he has received from President Carrington at Liverpool, there will be two more companies of emigrating Saints leave England this season.

A DISHONEST SUBSCRIBER.—If the very worthy and conscientious individual who, this morning delivered, on his subscription account, to one of the hands employed at this office, a load of hay, most of which, except just the outside, was well soaked with water, he can have the latter at half the price he delivered it at, and we shall think, even then, that we have much the best of the bargain. We like to see an individual's conscientiousness, but such an over-allowing desire to pay debts is uncalled for, and we suggest to this contemptible specimen of human nature the propriety of delivering hay and water separately in future, according to contract.

We ought in justice, to give the name of this shaver, and the settlement he hails from, but charity and mercy intervene. The pecuniary loss sustained by the purchaser of the hay is not serious, but the loss of honor and self respect sustained by the paltry-souled author of this petty, contemptible, nefarious transaction is irreparable. For his comfort and consolation we will add, that his name and residence are known, and his dishonest tendencies, if not checked, may yet get him into the felon's dock.

DISTRICT COURT.—The U. S. District Court met this morning at 10 a.m. Edward Snelgrove appeared in answer to an indictment found against him for a violation of the Internal Revenue law, and was held on his own recognizance of $500 to appear from day to day till discharged by the Court.

The Grand Jury for the Territory presented a true bill of indictment against James Kilfoyle for murder in the first degree.

Adjourned till three p.m.

GOING EAST.—We understand that Bishop John Sharp and His Honor Elias Smith take their departure for Omaha today on business connected with President B. Young's arbitration case with the U. P. R. R. Company.

RETURNED MISSIONARIES.—Elders Marins Ensign and Ulrich Loosley, returned missionaries, the former from England, the latter from Switzerland, called this morning. Elder Ensign has had charge of the company that crossed in the steamship Minnesota, numbering about 400. They left Liverpool on the 25th of August and arrived at Ogden last Friday morning, having been on the way about twenty traveling days. The health of the company has been excellent; they lost only one, a child about two years old, which was taken sick at Queenstown, and died just before they reached Ogden. The company, originally, was composed of British, Swiss, Hollanders and Scandinavians, but when they reached Omaha, they were joined by a company of American Saints, under David M. Stuart. From ten to fifteen wagon loads of these immigrants left Ogden for the settlements north during Friday and Saturday last; others stayed in Ogden; the remainder will take up their abode in this city and the settlements south.

Elder Ensign left here April 30th, 1898; he has labored in England and Ireland. Elder Loosley left last December; he went more on a business than a preaching mission, but has done some of the latter, and took charge of a company from Switzerland to Liverpool. They both express their pleasure at reaching home again.

NEWS OF THE LOST CHILD.—We have received a letter signed "Pat Doren," dated "Blow Creek, Sept. 20, '99," in which the writer says he has just returned from Salmon City, where he gained information of A. W. Thurston's child, in the possession of the Indians. She said her name was Rosa, and that she had come from the Valley. She was offered for sale by the Indians for $500. Mr. Doren concludes his letter as follows:

"By placing the reward in the bank, and paying my expenses, I will get the child. If I do not succeed, nothing will I ask but expenses. Those concerned wishing information can address me at Corinne, care John Davis, Box 58, P. O."

THROWING STONES.—Is a very pleasant amusement, one would think, judging by the earnestness of the youngsters while indulging in it; but it is, nevertheless, very reprehensible, and should be discontinued. It is not near as dangerous as shooting, but a chance blow with a heavy rock might inflict serious and even fatal injury. One of the hands in this office says that while walking this morning, a stone thrown by some person, no doubt a boy concealed in an orchard, struck him on the right temple, causing anything but a pleasant sensation. It is a wonder such occurrences are not more frequent from the number of boys who practice this mischievous pastime. Boys ought to, and must have, play and fun, but while engaged in it, they should refrain from any practice that, like this, is calculated to do any harm whatever to any person or thing.

TAXES.—Those who have not settled their Territorial, county and city taxes will do well to read the notice of Collector Burton in another column.

LOST.—Between Farmington and this city, a carpet bag, containing clothing, books, etc. It is the property of Bro. H. Morrison, an emigrant, who will be glad to receive information from the finder, concerning it. Address S. A. Jonasson, Sharp & Young's office, Salt Lake City.

SMALL-POX IN NEVADA.—It has been said that the State of Nevada was clear of this dreaded disease; but unfortunately it proves otherwise. The Territorial Enterprise, of the 16th inst., says:

"We had supposed that we were free from this disease; but it seems that it still lingers with us. Officer Carter yesterday discovered a case, and hung out a yellow flag, on South D street, in front of the Savage works. Possibly the disease may hang on till cold weather sets in, and then break out as bad or worse than last winter."
