EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, June 3, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

Thermometer 78 degrees F in the shade at 1 p.m. today. Fine, some clouds.

Strawberries.—Strawberries raised in this city are becoming plentiful in the market.

There are messages at the Western Union Telegraph Office for Geo. Strickland and G. A. Cutler.

Health of President Smith.—We are pleased to be able to state that the health of President Geo. A. Smith appears to be improving.

The Messiah.—You won't be likely to forget the performance of the grand oratorio of the Messiah at the Theatre to-night. It will be a great occasion and a crowded and intelligent audience is assured.

That Spider Bite.—Several days since we stated that Mrs. Avery, a young married woman of the 6th Ward, had been bitten in the arm by a spider, and that very serious consequences had resulted. Lately the symptoms assumed a still more dangerous aspect, so much so that it became a question with her attendant physicians whether amputation of the limb would be necessary. The virus of the spider, despite the means employed to prevent it, crept insidiously up the arm and considerably impregnated the body. The physicians, however, performed an operation on the arm and it is very probable that it will not have to be amputated, as the patient now progresses favorably.

Theatre.—The Theatre is open to-night, for the first public performance of Handel's sublime oratorio of the Messiah by the best musical talent of the city and Territory. "Everybody" will be there.

Another Paper at Ogden.—This morning we were called upon by Mrs. A. Freeman, wife of Mr. L. R. Freeman, who, it will be remembered, was editor and proprietor of the Frontier Index, published at the railroad town, moving westward with the progress of the construction of the U. P. R. R. The Index, in its brief but lively career, met with many stirring vicissitudes, owing to the bold, outspoken character of its sentiments. Finally, at Bear River City, when there was a conflict between the roughs and the more respectable class of people, who organized a vigilance committee, the Index, coming out in favor of good order, the rascally element made an attack on the printing office, burned it to the ground and destroyed most of the material. Mr. Freeman himself barely escaped hanging at the hands of the mob, the rope having been placed around his neck, when he was rescued. He subsequently published the Frontier Phenix, which arose out of the ashes of the Index, but it was only short lived. Mrs. Freeman purposes publishing a semi-weekly paper in Ogden, to be known as the Freeman. She will manage and edit it, and as at present residing in Wyoming Territory. She expects to issue the first number about the middle of this month.

The First Emigrant Company.—This morning Presidents Young and Wells, Elders Orson Pratt, Erastus Snow, Geo. C. Cannon, B. Young, Jr. and Albert Carrington, Bishop Edward Hunter, Elders A. M. Musser and George Goddard, and a number of others went up to Kayville for the purpose of meeting with the company of emigrants which reached Ogden last evening. At Kayville the party named passed through the cars and gave kindly greetings to the Saints, after which they returned to the city, reaching the depot about fifteen minutes ahead of the emigrants, who arrived at half past eleven.

The company appeared to be in excellent health and spirits, there being, so far as we could learn, no cases of sickness among them.

For an hour and a half before the train arrived the depot was thronged by a crowd of people, who were in eager anticipation of seeing near and dear friends and relatives from whom many of them had probably been separated for many years, and as the cars reached the platform the scene heightened in interest. There was the anxious father or mother, or the parent the son or daughter, the brother the sister, the sister the brother, etc., and then the affectionate embrace, and the unbidden tears of joy traced down the cheek of youth and age.

Such scenes show up one of the brightest sides of human nature, as indicating the fountain of affection that exists in the hearts of mankind.

Most of the new arrivals found immediate friends and relatives, by whom they were surrounded, and the happy homecoming was a scene of joy and gladness.

Utah Western Railroad.

On and after tomorrow the Utah Western Railway will run two trains each way between this city and the Halfway House, leaving the Salt Lake City depot at 7 a.m. and 2 p.m., and the Halfway House at 10 a.m. and 6 p.m., excepting that on Sundays the afternoon train will leave this city at 12.15, and will also connect with the City of Corinne on the Lake for a three hours' sail thereon.

Rather Mysterious.

This morning a gentleman named Cummings, who was stopping at an East Temple street hotel, was somewhat surprised, when about to put on his shoes, to find a genuine "billy" in it, about seven or eight inches long and loaded heavily with lead at both ends, a most formidable weapon. When Mr. Cummings retired to bed last night, no such skull cracking implement was in the covering of his bed extremity, but there it was this morning, and the question is, "How did it come there?"

The probable solution of the mystery is that somebody entered the room in the night with burglarious intent, and while groping about in the dark for plunder, had dropped the article into the aforesaid shoe and was unable to find it again. A circumstance that adds to this probability is the fact that the window was open during the night, and a shed roof was conveniently near it. No property was taken, however.

The Sunday School Jubilee at American Fork.

Provo City, June 1st, 1875.

Editor Deseret News:

The proposed Sunday School Jubilee of Utah County, held to-day, at American Fork, in honor of President B. Young's birthday, was a complete success. There seemed to be a desperate struggle all morning between wind and rain, but the storm king marshalling several ominous looking black clouds in very threatening array, and they commenced to discharge their flakes of snow, borne on by rather a furious wind, at the northern bound train. But the bright rays of the sun persevered, and the clouds dispersed, giving forth the rainbow, and it fell in the ocean. The contest was kept up with great tenacity until finally the lot of June proved too much for the blasts of winter, and the clouds finally succumbed, leaving King Sol in supreme control of the heavens.

A little before ten o'clock a.m. eighteen cars rolled into American Fork from the northern settlements, and seven from Salt Lake County, which, together with a large number of teams from the surrounding places, brought no less than four to five thousand persons to join with the inhabitants of American Fork.

Among the guests from Salt Lake City were Governor S. B. Axtell, Hon. Geo. C. Cannon, Fernstrom, Little and James E. Wells, Esq., Hon. Geo. Goddard, and Secretaries J. B. Malbon and Wm. McLaughlin, and others.

The stand, beneath a large and commodious bowery, was also occupied by Pres. A. O. Smoot, nearly all the bishops of Utah County, and many of its leading citizens.

After the various choirs were seated as per arrangement, the opening hymn "O, My Father," sung by full chorus, preceded the offering by the chaplain, Elder Wm. Greenwood, the hymn, "All Hail, My Sabbath School Mate," was sung in full chorus, after which the opening address was delivered by Elder David John, Sept. of Sunday Schools of Utah County, who briefly thanked all present for their attendance, including children, parents and visitors, and hoped that while we raised our house in singing anthems and hymns in praise of our Father in heaven, our devotion would be truly drawn out in reverence to Him whose care had been over us so unerringly and brought us together this day to make this city and ourselves happy in our jubilee.

A hymn was sung by the Springfield Sabbath School choir, at the arrival of the train, and the choir of the Utah Western Railway Company will run trains for passengers and freight.
