EDITORIAL NOTES.

—The hay crop of California is unusually large this season. The grain crop is large, but does not turn out equal to promise.

—Two women from Philadelphia were recently arrested in Baltimore, for having tried to persuade a number of beautiful young girls to accept situations in the Quaker City, with the purpose finally of bringing them to a life of shame. They were released on condition they should at once leave the city. Unreasonably moderate punishment. There is more of that sort of business going on in many cities than people generally imagine, and the punishment of the guilty ought to be of the heaviest kind.

—It is said that about three per cent. of the Indians in the United States are in arms against the Government.

—The weather in Paris has been as hot as in New York, and M. Oppenheim, the richest of Parisian bankers, after driving to his chateau one hot day, drank a glass of iced beer, was seized with convulsions and died within a few hours.

—Mayor Rhodes of Rockford, Illinois, pushed the ordinance respecting hitching horses in the streets, and had several hackmen fined. Tit for tat, the hackmen found the Mayor's horse in the street unhitched, and they hauled his honor before a magistrate, who reprimanded and fined him.

—Elizabeth K. Churchill, in the Providence Journal, says, "This Exposition would be worth more to the country than all it will cost, if the women who visit it would take bread and tea and coffee at the Vienna bakery, and institute such comparisons between its delicious fare and their own yellow, soggy bread, and tasteless tea and coffee, as should fill them with wholesome disgust at the latter, and ambition to improve; for indeed, my dear countrywomen, especially you of the rural districts, very few of you know how to cook the simple food above named, so indispensable to health and comfort."

—Mrs. Wm. H. Oliver, of New York, feasted on cucumbers, string beans, and iced lemonade, was taken sick soon after and died of cholera the next day.

—Miss Bonnie Meyers tells the public that she is "the supreme favorite and gem of the American stage." Therefore no others need apply.

—A three months old girl at Hampton, Md., had a grain of coffee put into her mouth by a little brother, the grain passed into the girl's windpipe, and she lingered four days and died.

—The Boston Advertiser places the list of mills stopped in New England at over a million spindles, and some additions in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, and Connecticut at 200,000, or one eighth of the usual production, half of them on print cloths, representing 25,000 spindles.

—At Tamworth, N. E., the other Sunday, Mr. Corn shot Mr. Williams because the latter was about to bathe in Corn's pond.

—On a recent Sunday two girls were arrested for swimming in a nude state, in the East River, in front of New York city, a large crowd of spectators being attracted by their performances.

—Mile. Mercus, a young lady of fortune, is the Jean of Arc in Herzegovina.

—The New York fire commissioners have on file over 9,000 applicants for appointments.

—One good turn deserves another. Disraeli made Victoria an Empress, and Victoria made Disraeli a peer.

—Now they are just looking at Tilden's war record.

—Dr. Breganze, a Venetian, who has been making a tour of this country, and was recently in this city, wrote from Montreal to a leading journal in Rome, "After all, the political air one breathes in the United States is so corrupt that the thought of Italy is a comfort."

THE HOODLUMS—A SERIOUS BUSINESS.

SAN FRANCISCO is so troubled with hoodlums, otherwise rowdy youths, that it has long been a serious question how to deal with them. In the southwestern parts of that city the antics of these characters have been developed to such an extent as to cause a kind of reign of terror among the peace and order loving citizens, acts of outrage are of daily occurrence, and the regular police have not been able to suppress them, so that a large number of the citizens have united to ask the municipal authorities for authority to wear stars and act as a special police, and they are willing to serve in that capacity gratuitously, being convinced of their ability to reduce the lawless element to something like a respect for order. In Hayes Valley the hoodlums have become so bold and aggressive as to induce the citizens to think of resorting to the formation of a vigilance committee for their suppression.

Chief Ellis of the San Francisco police, on Saturday last (Aug. 19), addressed the police of that city in the following terms, as reported in the San Francisco Chronicle—

"The late murders on our public streets, and the consequent alarm of peaceable citizens, make it imperative for me to address you for the fourth time upon this all important subject. All other classes of criminals sink into insignificance before this gigantic curse. Peaceable citizens live in a complete state of terrorism, and from fear of personal violence are deterred from giving testimony against them. The residents of Hayes valley are speaking of banding together as a vigilance committee for mutual protection. What a commentary on our efficiency as guardians of the public safety! I am ashamed—I hope that you are—that the people should consider such a course often encouraged by parents and hoodlums of larger growth, thence to felonious assaults on citizens, culminating in robbery, and in many recent instances, murder, ay, murder, for the pleasure of killing, as witness the unavenged Page, Taft and Earle. The police are charged by the citizens and press with spathy or something worse. Professional thieves and burglars, as a class, are as well known when compared with these white Sioux that are reared beneath the shadow of churches, outlaws, that like human wolves hunt their prey in packs, equally cruel and more cowardly than the beast they imitate in their bloody instincts; they dare not attack a man single-handed, but in gangs they are devoid of shame and know no mercy."

"Good citizens are amazed and paralyzed at the merciless doings of these devils, and wonder why they are not stamped out. One hoodlum, of pronounced type, disposed of in a more important case, the capture of a half dozen ex-convicts. Many of you have done good work in this direction, and at one time this great evil was nearly suppressed. You have filled the jails to overflowing, but the task is ours to now fill the House of Correction. It is much to be regretted that citizens too often areaverse to giving testimony in these cases. In such exigencies it devolves upon us to swear complaints and subpoenas, the reluctant witnesses to appear and testify in court."

One of the best things to do with this hoodlum class, so far as it can be done, is to send them to school and to work, one or both of them, and all judicious efforts in this direction are worthy of hearty commendation and support.

COMMON SENSE IN WOMAN'S DRESS.

THIS is how Jennie June writes about that bundle of clothing which woman carries around behind her now-a-days—

"It is possible we may return to the simple dress and cloak. It would be a great relief to many minds, now tormented every time the dress question comes up with how to arrange the looping and the drapery—the 'drapery' consisted for the most part of a mass of puffed and wrinkled material, of flapping, useless ends, or of ends arrayed as folded scarfs, or as bows; but of whatever style, to be pulled and sat upon and torn and jerked out of place, and made a constant source of misery and torment. For heaven's sake, whatever we do let us get rid of this mass of useless rubbish at the back of our skirts of the inelegant, inconvenient, untidy, long, narrow shape, and adopt a style which at least does not destroy the fabric before it is worn, and does not depend on a cat's cradle of tapes and ribbons for daily and hourly adjustment. This for a daily prayer for those who are not concerned about their daily bread would be timely and wise. 'Oho, Lord! Those have freed the slave, and given the colored man the right in common with his brethren to vote. No other important question being now before Thee, may it please Thee to pay some attention to women; and first of all try to teach them a little common sense with regard to their dress; and Thine be the praise forever and ever. Amen.'"

Our Country Contemporaries.

Ogden Junction, Aug. 21—Lots of grain in Washatch country was swept by the frost last week. Bad job for the farmers whose previous prospects were bright and pleasant.

Last Wednesday night, up at the foot of Monte Cristo, Mr. Harvey Brown, who with another party had encamped for the night, and was making his bed a short distance from the camp fire, heard a rustling noise in the brush, and looking around he saw a grizzly bear looking at him in his immediate neighborhood, and, not feeling quite sure of the designs of brim, picked up a piece of saw, and standing near and let the bear feel its weight upon his back, which disabled the animal, breaking its back, whereupon Mr. Brown drew his knife and cut its throat, thus providing the party with an unexpected steak; the bear weighed 400 pounds.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

EASTERN.

Cool Weather and Slight Frosts. New York, 22.—The weather is decidedly cooler. From various points come reports of frosts, but nothing serious.

The Molly Maguires at it Again.

A dispatch from Port Richmond, Pa., states that two miners, James Martin and Peter McCaffrey, were attacked by a crowd of Molly Maguires yesterday afternoon, beaten with bludgeons, stabbed with knives, and treated to a shower of bullets. McCaffrey was killed outright, and Martin was so terribly injured that he died in a short time.

Drowned by the Tipping of a Boat.

Henry Rhoades and Wm. Bell, aged 21 and 23, were drowned this morning by the upsetting of a boat in the Harlem River.

Garrotted, Robbed and Thrown Overboard.

The schooner Niagara, last night, picked up a man a mile from shore, who gave his name as Chas. Burke, of Newhaven. He states that he took the steamer at this city last evening for Newhaven, and when passing through Hell Gate was garrotted by two men, robbed and thrown overboard.

The Wrestling Match.

The Baltimore wrestling match last night, between Miller, the champion, and Johnny Dwyer, was won by Dwyer, after a severe contest.

$40,000 Fire.

BOSTON, 22.—The tannery of Blake and Higbee, at Woburn, was burned to-day; loss estimated at $40,000, insurance $20,000.

A Case of Yellow Fever.

The schooner G. K. Hatch arrived here to-day with a case of yellow fever on board.

President Grant on the Death of Speaker Kerr.

LONG BRANCH, 22.—The following has just been received from the President—

"It is with intense pain that the President announces to the people of the United States the death of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, Mr. C. K. Kerr, of Indiana, a man of great intellectual endowments, large culture, great probity, and earnestness in his devotion to the public interest, has passed from the position of power and usefulness to which he had been recently called. The body which he had been selected to preside not being in session to render his tribute of affection and respect to the memory of the deceased, the President invites the people of the United States to solemn recognition of the public and private work, and the services of this pure and eminent man."

(Signed) U. S. GRANT, "By the President."

"J. L. CADWALLADER, Acting Secretary of State." August 21, 1876.

Suit Against the Mortgage Trustees of the Missouri and Pacific R. R.

ST. LOUIS, 22.—United States Attorney Bliss filed a suit in the United States Circuit Court yesterday against the trustees of the Missouri and Pacific Railroad mortgage trustees and receivers for taxes from 1864 to 1872, under the old income law. The taxes with interest and penalties, amount to $200,000. The United States claims a lien upon this road for this amount, and especially the mortgage under which the road is to be sold on the 6th of September. Judge Dillon has granted an order at the instance of Attorney Bliss to retain enough of the proceeds of the sale of the road to meet the claim of the United States, should it be established.

Regatta of the National Amateur Oarsmen.

PHILADELPHIA, 22.—The fourth annual regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen will be inaugurated on the Schuylkill River this afternoon, and continued for three days, as a prelude to the international regatta, which begins next week. The start to-day will be at three o'clock sharp. The course is one mile and a half long and very fine, there being but one curve in the river. The races this afternoon will be four-oared boats and sculls.

Instructions to the Sioux Commission Nearly Completed.

WASHINGTON, 22.—Instructions to the Sioux commission, appointed under the recent act of Congress, are nearly completed. One of the most important subjects of the negotiation is that presented by the fifth clause of the instructions. The President is strongly impressed with the belief that the agreement which shall be best calculated to enable the Indians to become self-supporting, is one which shall provide for their removal as early as possible to the Indian Territory. They must depend for their support mainly upon the cultivation of the soil, and their present country is quite unfit for that purpose. The superior climate and soil of the Indian Territory, and the fact that the Territory for ever secured to the Indian people, should afford strong inducements for the Indians to enter into such an agreement. The Indians cannot now live upon their reservation without the aid of Government, and it is under no obligation to continue its supply of food. While no money considerations should be offered them as an inducement for any undertaking on their part, it is believed the Government will willingly furnish them subsistence, medical assistance and schools until they can care for themselves, and in case of their removal to the Indian Territory, if, however, they decline to agree to such removal, they should be informed that they will be obliged to go to the Missouri River to receive such supplies as shall be provided under any future act of Congress and treaties with them now in force.

The New Loan.

Secretary Morrill was in his office to-day in consultation with the representatives of prominent banking firms regarding the new loan.

Speaker Kerr's Remains.

WASHINGTON, 22.—The remains of the late Speaker Kerr arrived here this morning from Rockbridge, Va., escorted by 615, accompanied by Mrs. Kerr and her son, Representatives Sawyer, Cox and H. Casey, Young and Adams, clerk of the House. The body is encased in a casket covered with heavy cloth; the mouldings are of heavy cloth, and there are six heavy-plated massive handles on the sides, the cover is of plate-glass and extends the whole length of the casket. An extra cover of black cloth and silver plated mouldings fits over the glass interior and is lined with white silk and satin. Upon the arrival of the party in Washington, the Sergeant-at-Arms, Thompson, took charge of the remains, had them removed to a special car, and a detail of six men of the capital police were placed on guard. The outer cover of the casket was removed, and the body laid in state at 10:30 a.m. During the morning a number of Mr. Kerr's friends and others visited the depot to view his remains. At 11:30 the casket was closed, and at 11:30 the funeral party, with the remains, left for New Albany, via Harrisburg and Indianapolis. Sawyer and Cox did not accompany the party.

$30,000 Fire.

CUMBERLAND, Md., 22.—The lumber yard, saw factory and saw mill of Piper, Helm & Co., were burned yesterday; loss $30,000.

WESTERN.

Much Excitement in British Columbia over the Railroad Question.

SAN FRANCISCO, 22.—A Victoria dispatch says there is much excitement in this city on the railroad question. Lord Dufferin, marked to the popular deputation to-day, that the Island railway was about to be abandoned, and the only point to be considered was the question of compensation. The people here are much dissatisfied and disappointed at the result of the interview. It is feared unpleasant consequences will ensue if our citizens alleging that they were inveigled into the confederation with promises that Canada did not mean to fulfill. A grand popular demonstration is threatened.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Disraeli to His Constituents.

LONDON, 22.—Disraeli has issued a farewell address to his constituents, the electors of Buckinghamshire, by which he has been returned to the House of Commons continuously since 1847. He says—"Throughout my public life I have endeavored to be chief results not insensible to the principle of progress. I have endeavored to reconcile the change with that respect for tradition, which is one of the main elements of our social strength, and in internal affairs I have endeavored to develop and strengthen the empire, believing that combinations of achievements and responsibility elevates the character and condition of the people."

War News.

A telegram from Semlin says that 40,000 Turks, Keron Pasha commanding, met the Servians between Szeged and Alexinatz on Sunday. They made several attacks, but were severely repulsed, one wing of the Servian army even assuming the offensive. The battle was renewed on Monday, and it is considered probable the Servians fell back to Alexinatz, and that the decisive battle will be fought there. If the Servians win that fight the war will be continued; if the Turks are victorious the Servians will be willing to accept peace.

A Turkish official dispatch from Missa reports that the Ottoman forces occupied their positions, adding that the Servian losses were considerable.

The Times' Belgrade special confirms the reported repulse of the Turks on Sunday, but says, in spite of that check, the Turks renewed the attack, and the result of the second day's fight is not known. If the Servians react, the Belgrade, Keron Pasha has the high way to Belgrade. Gen. Tchernayeff has 4,000 men, but Keron Pasha's already large army has been reinforced by 4,000 men.

A Vienna special to the Daily Telegraph says that Prince Milan, in spite of the exertions of the war party to the contrary, has received the communications of England with considerable favor, and is personally inclined to apply to the powers for mediation.

Russians to Aid the Servians in the War.

A dispatch from Semlin says it is stated that the Servian prime minister interviewed Russian representatives at Belgrade and appealed to the generosity of the Russian government to permit Russian officers and soldiers to enter the Servian army; also asked for pecuniary assistance, as Servia had determined to continue the war. The Russian government replied, granting the request, under certain conditions. In consequence of this arrangement the Servian committee in Russia have been sending funds in large amounts, Russian officers and sub-officers in part of the Russian army, and almost daily, passing through Roumania unhindered. The officers are giving their services gratuitously. A number of other officers are expected shortly.

Bullion in Bank—Stocks.

Amount of bullion gone into the Bank of England on balance to-day is £57,000. Consols 93 1/2; 5 20's bonds 97 1/2; Erie 13.

BELGIUM.

Mediation will probably be accepted.

BRUSSELS, 22.—A dispatch from Vienna to Le Nord says, whatever may be the issue of the fighting now going on, there is every reason to expect that the mediation offered at Belgrade will be accepted.

TURKEY.

The Turks Repulsed Again.

BEGRAD, 22.—An official dispatch received here claims that the Turks were repulsed twice during Monday, despite their numbers, and that the Servian army will approach the fortifications of Alexinatz, and may succeed in burning some Christian villages.

FRANCE.

Paris International Exhibition in 1878.

PARIS, 22.—Preliminary works of international exhibition to be held in 1878 have begun. Spanish gunboats for Chinese waters.

Advices from Madrid state three Spanish gunboats are being sent to Chinese waters at the request of the Spanish representative at Peking. This step is either taken to support the Spanish demand for restitution for a vessel stranded at Formosa, or amid the complications arising from the recent attack on the French missionary chapel at Ning Kou Foo.
