

HEREROS FOUGHT DESPERATELY.

Attacked by Germans in Front and Rear. Held Their Ground
With Great Tenacity.

FORMER FINALLY VICTORIOUS.

Hated the Black Men Out of Crevices
in Rocks and Showed Them
No Mercy.

Berlin, April 8.—The Southwest Africa correspondent of the Cologne Gazette, Dr. Moellenhof, has sent his paper a letter describing the relief of Omarura Feb. 4, from which it appears that both sides fought with desperate courage. When the garrison of Omarura heard the firing of the artillery of the relief corps 25 of the beleaguered force made a sortie against the enemy, who held a natural fortification consisting of a line of cliff-like projecting rocks.

The Hereros attacked in front and rear, says Dr. Moellenhof, "held their ground with marvelous tenacity. When the German rushed them many of the Hereros crept into the crevices of the rocks, where they were bayoneted. Lieut. von Koellwarth received a mortal wound from a Herero bullet, and a German cavalryman searching the rocks for wounded was killed at a range of a few paces. After being driven from this position the Hereros took up a new one, containing the ground inch by inch, and a number of dead and dying were seen. After the hottest fighting the enemy fired at the Germans wounded from neighboring bushes, and the surgeons dressed the wounds while bullets were whizzing in the air.

"The Hereros lost about 100 killed or wounded of their approximate total of 200. The German loss was eight men killed and 10 wounded."

PORTLAND EXPOSITION.

House Passes Bill Granting It Financial Aid.

Washington, April 8.—The house today passed a large number of bills, including the bill appropriating $47,000 in aid of the Lewis and Clark Centennial exposition to be held in Portland, Ore., in 1905, and the Philippine shipping bill. The only amendment made was one extending until July 19, 1906, the time when the bill shall become operative. The bill provides that no merchandise or passengers except supplies for the army or navy shall be transported by sea under penalty of forfeiture between the ports of the United States and the Philippine archipelago directly or by way of a port or for any part of the voyage in any except vessels of the United States.

It does not prohibit, however, the sailing of any foreign vessel between the United States and the Philippines en route to or from places in the Philippines. The tonnage taxes now in force on foreign vessels coming into the United States are levied on such vessels coming from the Philippines. The Philippine commission is authorized to issue licenses to engage in commerce or other exclusively harbor trade to vessels or craft actually engaged in such business at the date of the bill, and to vessels or other craft built in the Philippines or in the United States and owned by citizens of the United States or inhabitants of the Philippines. The law does not impair or affect any privilege guaranteed to Spanish ships and merchandise by the Paris treaty of peace.

Thorium Not a Primary Element.

New York, April 8.—Dr. Charles Baskerville, professor of chemistry and director of the laboratory in the University of North Carolina, announced that he had discovered that thorium, hitherto known as one of the 70 primary elements, is complex in its nature. Dr. Baskerville has resolved thorium into two elements. He has named one of them carolinium, after the state, the other actinium, in honor of the great Swedish chemist who nearly a hundred years ago discovered thorium.

Voshburg was one of the most notorious criminals in the world.

SPECIMENS OF SEA LIFE.

Prof. Ritter of California University, Collects Many.

University of California, April 8.—William E. Ritter, professor of zoology at the University of California, has just returned from a voyage on the steamer Albatross, having been engaged for the last month in collecting specimens of sea life for scientific research. The entire month was spent in sounding and dredging the ocean off San Diego, although most of the work was carried on about Point Loma, La Jolla and Catalina Island. Some dredging was done about 10 miles off Point Loma, the dredge being the farthest the steamer could haul. Here the abyssal depths began, the soundings ranging from 100 to 14,000 feet. "It was in these great depths that we found the most interesting specimens of sea life," said Prof. Ritter. "There is an abundance of life there and it is surprising the gorgeous colors the inhabitants wear. The range of color is amazing. The predominating life at the great depths is the star fish and the sea urchin. The sea urchin is most abundant in individuals and kinds." Specimens of the bottom were taken by the expedition at all places, and Ritter was interested to know that the same was found in large quantities at the great depths.

Mr. Lodge denied the charge, saying that the bill was not in it. The postoffice bill was still under consideration when the senate adjourned. The first hours of the session were devoted to a discussion by Mr. Patterson of the Chinese question, in which he maintained that the exclusion law was ineffective after Dec. 7 unless there was additional legislation.

Advertising Swindler Sentenced.

Chicago, April 8.—Pleading guilty to using the mails to further a scheme by which newspapers all over the country were swindled out of a large sum, John Dalton today was fined $1,500 by Judge Humphrey in the United States circuit court. Dalton escaped the penitentiary on the same charge two years ago because the United States circuit of appeals reversed the sentence of the lower court. He was charged with organizing an advertising agency through which he is said to have swindled 7,000 newspapers.

QUEER JUDICIAL PROCEEDING.

Jury Acquits a Man but the Judge Commits Him to Jail.

New York, April 8.—Although a jury in the supreme court has returned a verdict pronouncing James H. Temple, ex-president of the bankrupt William Campbell Wall Paper company, not guilty of converting to his own use some $40,000 of the funds of the company, Justice Rogers set aside the verdict and sent Temple back to jail where he already has been confined since early in January. The justice declared he was not satisfied with Temple's explanation on the witness stand and ordered a new trial, holding the ex-president in $25,000 bail which he was unable to furnish. The ruling of the court is unusual and Temple's attorneys will appeal. The case involved a sale of the company's interests in England, which was negotiated partly by Temple.

A BRIEF VISITOR.

A Tennessee Journalist Spends a Few Hours in the City.

Salt Lake was favored yesterday with a brief visit from Mr. Harry S. Boswell, managing editor of the Memphis Times. Coming from so warm a Tennessee city, he experienced quite a climatic change on his journey and contracted a severe cold which threatened pneumonia, and necessitated a speedy return. Therefore he spent but a few hours here, and started for home on the evening Rio Grande train. He had time, however, to visit the chief points of interest, including the Tabernacle, where Prof. J. J. McClellan was kind enough to give a special organ recital, which was also enjoyed by a number of other visitors. He obtained literature and oral information which will furnish data for such literary work as he may undertake concerning Utah, and had a pleasant interview with President Joseph F. Smith and his counselors. We regret the necessity to his quick departure, as we would have been pleased to make his stay more pleasant and profitable, but we hope to hear of his speedy convalescence.

Ward Entertainments.

The Twentieth Ward Dramatic association will present Robertson's fine old English comedy, "Caste," in the annex hall on Monday and Thursday nights, April 11 and 14, with the following cast: Hon. George D'Alroy..... M. Thomas Maj. Hautree..... Royal W. Daines Eccles..... William Service Sam Gerridge..... George Isom Le Marquis De St. Maur.....

The play is somewhat heavy for an amateur organization but the company selected in a strong one and will doubtless do it full justice.

On Wednesday night next there will be a concert in the Thirtieth ward hall for the benefit of the ward club. An excellent program has been arranged and a good time is assured for all who attend.

The Seventeenth ward will hold Sunday school jubilee exercises at their assembly rooms, April 16, 18 and 17. The school was organized April 16, 1894. William W. Jackson being the first superintendent. A social reunion for the adult portion of the ward will be held Friday evening, Saturday afternoon will be children's day; Sunday at 10 a. m. and 6:30 p. m. special jubilee and conference exercises will be held. All persons who have ever been connected with the school are invited to attend each day.

NEW MANAGEMENT AT CALDER'S TRACK

Resort to be the Scene of Many Race Meets of Interest.

FIRST IS ON DECORATION DAY.

The Course Has Been Leased From Mr. Levy by C. Y. Russell Who Will Have Full Charge.

Calder's Pack race track will vie with the course at Agricultural Park for patronage this summer, and if the new management does all that is promised, the resort should receive its full share, and a little more. There is good reason why the "sport of kings" should not prosper in Salt Lake. There is a big element of race fans here, and if they are convinced that the events are on the square, they will pay liberally for it.

The announcement was made last night that Mr. C. Y. Russell had secured a lease on the track from Mr. Levy, and that he will have full charge of the course. Mr. Russell states that it is his purpose to give meets all summer and will pay particular attention to the events for holidays. The first meet at Calder's will occur on Decoration Day, and the management declares that the most liberal purses ever hung up in Utah for horse races, will be offered as a tempting bait for owners of fast animals to enter them in the various running and harness events.

It is assured that practically all of the fast local horses will compete for the big purses offered. In addition to the entry of Utah animals, some of the best racers in the east may come here for that day and the season's racing scheduled to follow. Negotiations are now on between the new management and several eastern owners of fast horses, and the prospects are that they will be down on the entry lists.

In order to assure those interested in the sport that it will be on the square, he will join the American Trotting association, and each and every meet will be given a special organ recital, which will be enjoyed by a number of other visitors. He obtained literature and oral information which will furnish data for such literary work as he may undertake concerning Utah, and had a pleasant interview with President Joseph F. Smith and his counselors. We regret the necessity to his quick departure, as we would have been pleased to make his stay more pleasant and profitable, but we hope to hear of his speedy convalescence.

FAIR TRACK MANAGEMENT.

Directors Decide to Give the Course to Mr. Hal Brown.

Last evening there was a meeting of the directors of the D. A. M. society, which it was decided to give Mr. Hal Brown a lease on the race track, a public park for the coming season. While no contracts were signed between the society and Mr. Brown, it is understood that he will have full charge of the course, and it means that the track will be the scene of many interesting harness and running events this summer. Horsemen say that the outlook for a prosperous season is extremely flattering and that conditions will improve in a few weeks.

MARK SHAUGHNESSY HERE.

Manager of Jim Scanlan, Heavyweight Champion of Australia.

Mark Shaughnessy, one of the best known fight handlers in the country, arrived in Salt Lake yesterday and left for Denver and St. Louis. He came here from Los Angeles and had a conference with Manager Kelley of the Shamrock club, in the hope of securing a match between Jim Scanlan and Mike Schrock in this city. The latter is the tough fellow who fought a 25 round draw with Billy Woods on Tuesday last. Scanlan is the middle and heavyweight champion of Australia. Mr. Shaughnessy is the man who put Jack Johnson in the business, and he was handled only first rate fighters.

Los Angeles, April 8.—It took the champions four innings to solve Schrock's delivery, and the bombardment that followed was pleasing to the fans. Seattle could not hit Baum consecutively and their eight scattered singles did not net a single run. Their only tally was made by Baum's spell of wildness in the sixth, when he forced in Delehanty with two men out, and then struck out the next batter. Score:

AN EXCITING SIGHT.

Contests Between Automobile Boats on Monaca Bay Cause Sensation.

New York, April 9.—Contests between automobile boats on Monaca Bay have developed an exciting sight, cables the Herald's correspondent at Monte Carlo. Six of the racers were participating in a 20 kilometre contest when Parisienne V, steered by Lin Currie, a well known English yachtsman and nephew of Sir

Donald Currie, took fire. The racer carried a large tank of petroleum and for a time it was feared that the crew of four would be roasted alive. They were finally rescued, having jumped overboard after two machinists had been seriously burned. In telling of his adventure Mr. Currie said:

"When we started for the line we were making no speed whatever. One of our screws had snapped off, and with the two we had steering was by no means easy. "We were just reaching the first buoy when, without the slightest warning, a huge sheet of flame shot up from the forward tank and swept our craft from end to end. I saw at once our huge petrol tank was ablaze and that our chances of getting out of such a situation were exceedingly small."

"Jump overboard, I shouted to the men, and one of them was in the water like a shot. I pitched him a life belt. The other two were trying to control the flames with two extinguishers, although they were burned in a horrible manner. It was like spitting into a furnace."

"Calling to them to follow, I jumped overboard. We had no life belts but a punt soon picked us up and we procured oil to pass the suffering of the injured men. No doubt motor launch racing is exciting but I prefer sailing boats and have had enough for the present."

A torpedo boat finally got a line on the burning racer and it was towed in shore, but all efforts to subdue the fire failed, and not much of the valuable machine was left when the petrol burned out. A leak in one of the feed pipes is supposed to have been the origin of the fire.

RACES AT OAKLAND.

Large Field and the Players Had a Good Line on Horses.

San Francisco, April 8.—Large fields were the rule at Oakland today, but the players had a good line on the horses and four favorites won. The weather was very warm and the track in fast shape. Atwood made a clever showing in the seven-furlong handicap, leading a good field in 1:28. The event was the feature of the card and Ocean Dream was favorite at 3 to 1. She received owing to a play on Yellow Fault and Atwood. Atwood started Atwood went to the front at once, and leading all the way, won easily from Yellow Fault and Celebrant. Ocean Dream stopped badly.

Southsayer, favorite for the first, got away badly and finished outside the money. Clonus won the stake. Atwood, a 3 to 1 chance, in a drive. P. Wilkerson claimed Southsayer for $25,000. A. Smith won races with Peggy O'Neill and Silent Water. Results:

Intercollegiate Meet.

There will be an intercollegiate track and field meet in Salt Lake on April 21. If all goes well, the teams to compete in the events will represent the A. C. B. Y. C. L. D. S. U. and the state university. The management of the meet will be divided equally among the boys.

A Few Sporting Notes.

For additional sporting news, see page twenty.

With horse races at Calder's and Agricultural Park turf devotees should get plenty of amusement this summer.

If the new mile track proposed materializes there should be some great events in Salt Lake before long, and some of the best horses in the country will likely come here.

The bike riders who took part in the six-day race are to get their money from the Salt Lake managers. As soon as a settlement is effected, Representative Sharp of the N. C. A. board of control, will cause the booklist on the matter to be filed.

Clifford and Queenan are working hard these days on the road and in the gymnasium, preparing for the six-round bout scheduled for the 18th of this month at the Salt Lake Theatre. Both are in good shape now and say they will make the weight in two days' notice if necessary.

Jerry McCarthy is working with Queenan, and the pair go at each other as if they really meant it.

Dave Sullivan, the little featherweight fighter, who was recently beaten by "Young Corbett" and "Young Henry" Milwaukee, in limited-round bouts, is thinking serious of quitting the ring forever.

Sullivan says there is not the money in the game these days there was when he was a champion. He is not sure, and on that account he has practically made up his mind to stop boxing.

Milwaukee, April 8.—Charles Nearly of Milwaukee was given the decision over Jimmy Briggs of Chelsea, Mass., after six rounds before the Badger Athletic club tonight. Nearly carried his opponent in the third round and had him nearly out. Nearly inflicted severe punishment in the fourth round and nearly knocked him out. He was in a tight and left to the jaw, having his man groggy, but did not succeed in landing a knock-out.

When Dan Patch, 1904, the world's champion pacer, starts out on his campaign for record breaking this summer, he will have every luxury and attention money can procure him. W. M. Savage, the champion's owner, is having a gorgeous special car made for the transportation of Dan Patch from place to place.

It is said that the car will be much more elaborate and ornate in design and equipment than any other ever built for the comfort of a horse in this country.

According to Mr. Savage, Dan Patch is a very intelligent animal and he likes pleasant and comfortable surroundings. Whether he is traveling by rail or by motor, he is quartered in the private rooms at Minneapolis. It is necessary that great care be taken of the champion when shipped abroad, the country in which Dan Patch cost Mr. Savage more than $50,000.

Chicago, April 8.—Jimmy Gardner of Lowell, Mass., Buddy Ryan of Chicago fought six rounds to a draw tonight. During the first four rounds Gardner gained a decided advantage by jabbing Ryan incessantly without a return. Toward the end of the fourth round Gardner swung heavily on Ryan's jaw and the latter fell to the floor. Ryan forced matters in the fifth round, working Gardner with a right to the stomach. Gardner was compelled to slow up and this enabled Ryan to even up the advantage Gardner had gained in the other rounds. Near the end of the sixth Gardner revived and was taking the lead when the fight ended.
