Mr. Spencer, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney, will return tomorrow.

Mr. George F. Felt leaves this evening for Sleepy Hollow in Parley's canyon.

Mrs. H. B. Brown was the hostess at

NOTABLE UTAH WOMEN.

July's closing week showed an appreciable diminution in the list of social events, only one elaborate affair in the way of the banquet given at the Altair on Monday in honor of Archbishop Riordan showing conspicuously in the record. Several quiet weddings and home parties have occurred, all of them being of a delightful nature.

A notable event of Monday was the marriage of Miss Jessie Forbes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Forbes, M. Forbes and Leont. Charles McCullough, company C, Ninth Infantry, U. S. A. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents on Twelfth East street, Dean Middle of St. Mark's Episcopal church officiating, and was witnessed by the relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom, among whom were the officers and ladies of Fort Douglas.

The house was beautifully decorated, palms, flowers and ferns being used in profusion. In the parlor, pink and green predominated, La France roses and ferns being arranged on mantles and stands, and smiles and palms forming an alcove in which the bride party stood. In the hall, yellow was used, nasturtians, marigolds and golden red producing a brilliant effect. The dining room was prettily decorated in pink and green, roses, sweet peas and feathery asparagus plumosa being used.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white oramide with lace and ribbon trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of roses and maidenhair fern. She was attended by Eleanor Park and Kendall Markland.

The little maid of honor was gowned in dainty white Swiss with pink ribbons and carried pink roses. Mr. John Forbes, the uncle of the bride, acted as best man. Lieutenant and Mrs. McCullough left on the same evening for San Francisco, and it is probable that Mrs. McCullough will accompany her husband to Nagasaki.

Another of Monday's weddings, in which one of the chief personages was another of Uncle Sam's gallant army officers, was that of Lieutenant E. G. Davis, who graduated from West Point last June and belongs at present to the Fifth Infantry, and Miss Elsie Poll, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Poll, of this city. The marriage took place at 4 p. m. at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. W. F. Fisher performing the ceremony in the presence of the near relatives of the bride. Lieutenant Davis is from Samaria, Idaho, and was appointed cadet from Idaho four years ago. He expects to be called with the rest of the Fifth to China in the near future and the wedding was hastened upon that account. Mrs. Davis will reside with her parents during her husband's absence. The bride is well and popularly known in Salt Lake and has been connected with the public schools for some time past. Both have hosts of friends who will extend good wishes. Lieutenant Davis left on the 28th for Chicago.

Miss Louise Ellington and Miss Ethel Irwin were hostesses at a pleasant party on Tuesday evening the entertainment consisting of a visit to the Salt Palace theater, a dance in the ball room of the Palace and refreshments at Franklyn's. MRS. PHILO T. FARNSWORTH.

Julia P. Murdoch Farnsworth comes of the old Revolutionary ancestry. On the four lines her lineal progenitors were staunch patriots. Her great-grand father Murdoch fought in the famous battle of Bennington under Stark and Warren; her great-grand father Clapp was a lieutenant in Massachusetts, and afterward went to New York and was for gallant conduct made captain; her great-grand father Lott, was chief of police in New York City during the Revolutionary struggle, and her great-grand father Darrow was an officer over Pennsylvania troops during the memorable winter at Valley Forge. Mrs. Farnsworth's father, John R. Murdoch, came to Utah with the "Mormon" Battalion in October, 1847, her mother, Almira H. Lott, driving an ox team from Winter Quarters to Salt Lake in 1848, traveling with her family in H. C. Kimball's company.

The subject of this sketch was born in Lehi, Utah Co., on the 23rd of December 1859. When she was twelve years old her father was called to go to Beaver as presiding bishop. She attended the district schools until eighteen years of age, then she, in company with other young ladies, taught a free school for two years.

In 1874 she married Philo T. Farnsworth. Soon after her marriage she was chosen president of the Retrenchment Association holding this position for six years, long after it was called Mutual Improvement. She organized and was president of the second-suffrage society in our then Territory. In 1889, she moved to Frisco, Beaver county, and remained there three years. For the past eight years she has been a resident of Salt Lake City. She is the mother of ten children, eight daughters and two sons. She is a charter member of the Daughters of the Revolution, and one of the State Council, also a director of the National Woman's Relief Society.

Miss H. Jennings, Mr. Will McKellar, Mr. Ed. Hille, Mr. Conrad, Mr. W. Smith, Dr. Rothwell, N. Y. Prof. Lund, Mr. Rieker, Mr. Eugene Lewis, Mr. Carl Scheidt, Mr. A. Sheppard.

There have been a number of parties seen at the Salt Palace races during the week. The cool air of the locality makes the spot a popular one on these warm summer evenings outside of the entertainment afforded on the grounds.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Zina D. H. Young was the recipient of a delightful surprise party, about twenty-seven of her relatives and intimate friends gathering at her home to show their love and esteem for the honored hostess. The afternoon was spent in enjoyable social converse and a number of addresses were made of a testimonial character. A generous store of refreshments had been provided by the guests and a delicious dinner was enjoyed during the afternoon. Mrs. E. J. Stevenson was the promoter of the affair which was thoroughly enjoyable in all details. The guests were: Mrs. D. W. Smith, Mrs. Julia C. Howe, Mrs. Sarah P. Snow, Mrs. E. B. Wells, Mrs. S. J. Cannon, Mrs. M. A. Lambert, Elizabeth Webb, Mrs. Maria W. Wilcox, Mrs. Lydia Ann Webb, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Wilcox, Mrs. Phoebe Y. Beattie, Mrs. Elizabeth Langston, Mrs. Camilla Cobb, Mrs. Hannah A. Wells, Mrs. N. T. Young, Mrs. Emma Woodruff, Mrs. Minnie J. Snow, Mrs. L. L. G. Richards, Mrs. Margaret P. Young, Mrs. Margaret Y. Taylor, Mrs. Julia Bixen, Mrs. Amelia Messer, Mrs. Mary McCarthy, Mrs. Maria Y. Douglass.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Uhl entertained at dinner on Wednesday, the affair being the first of a series of informal functions which it is their purpose to give. The color scheme was white and red, the table harmonizing with the dining room, which is furnished in red. The table was prettily decorated with carnations, anilox and plumosa, white satin streamers being brought from the chandelier to each plate. The lamps were shaded with red, and the entire effect was most artistic. An elaborate menu of eight courses was served. The guests were: Miss Annie Smith, Miss Ella Rich, Mr. Arthur Bishop, Mr. F. E. Rich, Mr. Fred Knawton, Mr. Hemmingsen, Mrs. Laxton.

Among the pleasant events of the week was the informal musical given by Mr. Walter Meekie on Tuesday night. The first part of the evening was devoted to an interesting musical game, and a delightful program followed.

among those who took part being Miss Clark, Miss Arvilla Clark, Miss Sallie Fisher, Mr. Hugh Douglass, Mr. Winslow Smith, Mr. Meeks, Mr. Carl Scheidt.

The lawn was lit with Japanese lanterns, and the evening, with the exception of the time during the musical program, was spent outside. Refreshments were served and the event in every way was a most delightful one.

Misses Ethel and Winnie Saville entertained, informally, a few friends Tuesday evening at their home. Those present were Misses Mabel Snow, May Young, Grace Cannon, Margaret Glade, Tilly Burton, Mabel Martin, Messrs. Bruce Brown, Preston Cannon, Tyler Young, Sidney Saville, Will Shepherd and Clarence Neslen.

A delightful tuly-la party was given on Wednesday evening by St. Paul's choir in honor of the choir leader, Mr. Karl Scheidt, who leaves next Monday for Europe. A banquet followed at the rectory which was enjoyed by about thirty people. The evening was a most delightful one.

A delightful time is anticipated at the tuly day excursion of the Federation of Women's clubs, which takes place next Tuesday. The proceeds are to be used for the benefit of the Free Traveling Library.

AT WASATCH

Wasatch, July 27.—Three or four copious showers this week have made the canyon a most delightful abiding place. To those who dwell in city heat a trip here, no matter how brief, is as welcome as the flowers of spring. There was no formal observance of Pioneer Day, and cottagers and hotel guests simply whiled away the hours as on other days. There was a dance in the evening though it was not a signal success, for various reasons which have no interest to the ordinary reader. The arrivals at the hotel this week have been more numerous than during any previous week of the season. The cottagers, too, are all filled. Mrs. Starley, who conducts the hotel, reports business as being much improved over that of last year. It is confidently anticipated that the next month will be a record breaker in the history of the resort.

Among the autographs placed on the hotel register this week are the following: Mr. C. F. Fisher, Mrs. C. F. Fisher, Misses Sallie K. Fisher, Mrs. E. H. Morris, Mrs. R. J. Newman, Hannabell Newman, James C. McDonald, W. G. Hemphill, Mr. and Mrs. H. Windsor, D. Y. Wheeler, Mrs. Emma Hanson and family, Richard McKenzie, Major Gordon, Miss Katherine E. Snyder, Ann Mousley Cannon, all of Salt Lake; Mrs. Edward Oulahan and daughter, Stockton, California; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Shonning and daughter, Omaha.

R. G. Tatum arrived at the camp this week, for a brief rest.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Pearsall come out from Salt Lake on Wednesday.

Miss Ida Savage, Miss Jennie Smith, Mr. Nephi Morris, Mr. Victor Wells and Mr. Kester were guests of Miss Donnetta Smith for a few days.

Mrs. Will McGowan was the hostess at a very delightful Pioneer day dinner party.

Kimono enques and gowns are the Summer Girl's delight. This one of red and white striped dimity has a border of white lawn.

Mr. Hugh Cannon spent the twenty-fourth here.

Mr. Charles Rasband and family returned to Salt Lake on Thursday after two weeks of camp life.

Mr. Frank Greenides spent several days this week visiting his friend, Mr. Ernest Hawkins.

Mrs. Louis Seckels expects to move into the Riverside cottage on the 1st prox.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Coates were guests of Mrs. Seckels this week.

Miss Gene Kimball has been visiting relatives and friends for the past two or three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Tibbals have been enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. William Needham.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crismon and Mrs. Beatrice Crismon of Salt Lake, and Mrs. Prim and daughter of Idaho, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Putnam ended their ten days' vacation on Tuesday and went back to the city.

Miss Mary Pratt joined her folks here on Wednesday.

Hyrum Silver and family moved into George Savage's cottage for the season.

Mr. Papworth and family have taken a cottage and will spend the rest of the summer at Wasatch.

Mrs. T. H. Cartwright has joined the big colony of cottagers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey and children are located in the camp for a couple of weeks.

A large accession of hotel guests is expected tomorrow and Sunday.

CLUB CHAT.

The Round Table club will meet on Monday at the residence of Mrs. Sanford. Mrs. Ferdinand Dickert will be chairman of the day and the chosen poet is Coleridge. Mrs. Byron Groo will read the biography.

In 1854 Florence Nightingale revolutionized the English hospital service by the Crimea. A merchant of Saco, Me., employed a young woman as a clerk in his store. The store was boycotted.

In 1855 Lucy Stone and Henry Blackwell, on the occasion of their marriage, were obliged to send thirty miles for a clergyman who would perform the marriage ceremony with the word "obey" omitted. Finding that no law compelled the change of name at marriage, she kept her own and was known as Mrs. Lucy Stone until her death.

In 1857 the first woman's hospital in the world was opened in New York in 1860 Iowa State University admitted women.

In 1861 school suffrage was granted in Kansas. The plan of the Tennessee campaign, formed by Anna Ella Carroll, was adopted by President Lincoln, with the understanding that the author should remain unknown, as the military officers would certainly refuse to respect a plan made by a civilian and a woman at that.

In 1861 seven women clerks were introduced into the national treasury. Shortly after women were introduced into postal service, two women at 1860 being appointed to take the place of one $1,200 man. They were assigned to the Dead Letter Office, where they opened and returned letters. It was considered a good day's work for a man to attend to 125 letters, but the women raised the number to 225 each. Thus, instead of two women doing one man's work, one woman did two men's work.

In 1868 two women's clubs were formed. They were bitterly criticized. In 1869 Wyoming granted full suffrage to women. The same year women were admitted to Ann Arbor. In 1869 Mrs. Belle Mansfield was admitted to the bar in Iowa—the first woman lawyer of modern times.

In 1872 women were granted control of their own property in California and were given power to make wills in that State. Swedish women, 25 years of age, were given the right to dispose of themselves in marriage without the consent of parents.

In 1873 Saxony granted suffrage to women on the same terms as men, married women voting by proxy.

In 1873, full suffrage was granted to the women of Colorado. In 1874 to the women of South Australia, and in 1891 to the women of Utah. In 1896 full suffrage was granted to the women of Idaho.

In 1875 thousands of women were employed in the various federal departments. Newham College (auxiliary to Cambridge) opened to women in England. A woman delegate was admitted this year as a delegate to the American edical association. In 1870 Belva A. Lockwood was admitted to practice before the Superior Court of the United States—San Francisco Chronicle.

It is a great pity that the clever things said in the Biennial Convention of Women's clubs at Milwaukee should not have been kept in permanent form. Most of the aphorisms, the wit, the have perished, except in the minds of the hearers. Those delicate plays of humor are, perhaps, necessary, left out of the press dispatches, perhaps because the reporters are mostly men. The day devoted to the press was as prolific of clever sayings as any other day of the Biennial. A number of brilliant and brainy women
