BROKE BOTH LEGS.

Serious Accident to O. P. Olsen, a Section Foreman on the Rio Grande.

O. P. Olsen, section foreman on the Rio Grande Western railroad here, met with quite a serious accident Monday afternoon, which will lay him up for some time. He was going over the road with a handcar and three section men, William Kitchen, H. Johnson and Charles Stark. While passing through the cut over at Goshen Gap they were suddenly confronted by a light engine coming down from Eureka. The handcar was stopped as soon as possible and the men jumped and attempted to take the car from the track, but before they could do so the engine struck it and knocked it over against the bank. The car caught Olsen and pinned him up against the bank, breaking both his legs, one above the knee and the other down near the ankle. The handcar was considerably smash up; the other men escaped uninjured. The engine was stopped after going a short distance, and backed up and the wounded man was picked up and taken over to Springville. Whether he was otherwise injured we were unable to learn. Mr. Olsen lived in Salt Lake and had one of his legs broken once before in a railroad accident.—Payson Globe.

Death of Mrs. John Sanders.

Brigham Bugler: Monday at midnight, Mrs. John Sanders of Collinston expired with an eight days' old babe at her side. She was the daughter of John Garner, postmaster of Deweyville. She leaves a husband and six small children to mourn her untimely taking away. Everything possible was done for the sick woman but it proved of no avail. She is said to have been a very lovable woman, kind to children and fond of her husband, with a host of friends besides. The funeral services were held at Collinston school house, Wednesday, and the body interred at the Deweyville cemetery. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Sleighing Accident.

Payson Globe: Frank McBeth, a son of James McBeth, met with quite a serious accident Wednesday night while out sleigh riding. He was driving along at a rapid rate and the horses ran into an electric light pole and threw the young man forward against the pole breaking his collar bone and otherwise injuring him. He was rendered unconscious and was picked up and carried into the residence of Mr. Jasper McClellan. Dr. Henry was called and reduced the fractured bone, but was unable to tell the full extent of the injuries as the boy was in a stupor and did not appear to be conscious enough to realize how bad he was hurt. He remained in this condition all night, but when ready to go to press yesterday evening his father informed us that he was much better.

Henry and William Cook.

Fond du Lac, Jan. 20, 1898.—Benjamin Franklin Cook wishes to find the whereabouts of the children of his two brothers, Henry Cook and William Cook. They left Kalamazoo county, Mich., and went to Nauvoo the same year the Saints were driven from that place, then to Far West, and in course of a few years, went on to Utah. Any information of the above will be thankfully received by B. F. Cook, Oakfield, Wis.

SERVICES AT THE TABERNACLE

Elder B. H. Roberts Speaks Upon the Divinity of the Gospel.

Points Out Scriptural Passages Showing the Necessity of Its Restoration in the Latter Days.

Elder Joseph E. Taylor, of the Stake presidency, presided over the services at the Tabernacle Sunday afternoon, Jan. 23, 1898.

The choir sang the hymn:

Earth with her ten thousand flowers,
Air with all its beams and showers.

Prayer was offered by Elder Abram Hatch.

Hark! ye mortals hist be still,
Voices from Cumorah's hill.

Elder B. H. Roberts was the speaker. He began by reading a portion of the first chapter of Paul's epistle to the Corinthians, taking for a text the words, "Every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ. Is Christ divided?" The plain inference from these words, said the speaker, was in the negative to the question asked, but notwithstanding this the condition in Christendom today was such as to call for the same interrogation.

In this connection the speaker asked whose prerogative it was to say which of the many denominations extant was right, and which was wrong? No man hath that right, said he. It belongs to God, the Ruler of the universe. He alone is in a position to do it, and this He has done, for in a revelation to Joseph Smith, the latter-day Prophet, He said that none of the churches then organized were true. They had all drifted away from the Gospel as it was preached by Christ and His Apostles anciently, and in doing this they forfeited their right to a membership in the Church of Jesus Christ.

Following this revelation came a number of others by which the true Gospel was set up upon the earth, and the Holy Priesthood conferred upon those who were the instruments in the hands of the Lord in bringing its restoration about. It had been organized according to the pattern laid down by God Himself, and thus was established the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, the only divinely recognized religious body upon the earth.

Elder Roberts referred to the gathering together of the Latter-day Saints in general conferences, and pointed out the presence of the living oracles—the Prophets and Apostles, whose prerogative it was to preach the word of God to His people, and to pronounce blessings upon them through the authority which they held. This Church was one of unity; this Church possessed the powers possessed by the Church of Christ anciently. The power of turning the hearts of the fathers to the children and the children to the fathers had also been given unto the Church in this our day, by which all mankind, whether they lived in the dark ages or not, would be given the privilege and the opportunity of embracing the Gospel in the spirit world, if they had not come so on this earth.

The Church was here, said the speaker, and its destiny was a glorious one. It had been given all the powers necessary to fortify it against all opposition, and its strength would triumph and God would bring about His purposes victoriously. He had called upon the weak things of the earth to confound the great and the wise; and this they did, not in their own strength, however, but in the strength which accompanied the power and Spirit of the Lord. In this case Christ was not divided. His Church is a oneness characteristic of the unity which existed between Him and His Apostles.

Referring to the remarks of Dr. Reiner recently, the speaker acknowledged his pleasure at the observations of the gentleman to the effect that our Church was stronger, more beautiful and more complete, than it was within the power of its Elders to depict. Yes, it was infinitely greater than it seemed, declared Elder Roberts, and he was thankful to the Father that it was, and that learned men from the East could see it and so proclaim to the people. The reason for this superiority of the Church was its divinity.

Elder Roberts referred to the falling away which was to take place in the earth, and the revelation to John while on the isle of Patmos. John saw an angel flying through the midst of heaven having the everlasting Gospel. This Gospel was to be preached unto every nation, kindred, tongue, and people, and in this the evidence of the apostasy was complete and emphatic, in that its being preached to all people upon the earth proved conclusively, that those people were without the Gospel, and that there was a necessity for its restoration in the hour of God's judgment.

Elder Roberts took up the ordinance of baptism and showed the necessity of its being applied by one having authority. Without its being so administered, it was void and of no effect. Yet, said he, one of the greatest religious bodies upon the earth, with headquarters at Rome, permitted this ordinance to be applied in different forms, and by those who held no authority whatever. This Church made no allowance for the vicarious work necessary for the redemption of the dead, despite the scriptural evidence showing that it belonged to the primitive Church and was a vital part of the true plan of salvation. Infant baptism was also a part of the church referred to, but such a procedure was in no wise authorized by the word of God.

The Church of Christ was to be one of unity, and without the same organization that existed anciently such a condition was impossible. The word of God indicated that there should be Apostles, Prophets, Pastors, Teachers, Evangelists, etc., and still without these authorities, said the speaker, numerous denominations in the earth had laid claim to being the true Church of Christ.

In conclusion Elder Roberts pointed out the prosperity attending the Church of Christ in its work in the earth. It had withstood the persecutions of the wicked and ungodly at all times and would continue to do so, however crude its presentation unto the people. The truth was here. It was God's controversy with the nations, and He would vindicate it among the people of the earth. Those yielding obedience thereto would gain a testimony of its divinity, and would be blessed in their desires to follow in the footsteps of the Father.

The choir sang the anthem:

Song of the Redeemed.

Benediction was pronounced by Elder Joseph E. Taylor.

The steamer Saltram, British, Captain Cowen, from Galveston, via Norfolk, for Copenhagen, which was sighted off the Lizard yesterday, disrupted, has arrived at Plymouth, England, with her machinery deranged.

IN OLDEN TIMES

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently overcome habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.
