THERE is a letter at, this, office for Mrs. Edna Nicholsor.

F. J. CANNON, editor of the Ogden Herald, paid us a brief visit today.

PETER HANSEN was admitted to citizenship is the Third District Court today.

THERE was another good house at the Theatre Saturday evening, and the play ("Nordeck") passed off in excel- lars among the soldiers of Fort Douglent style. The applause and other las, several of whom had handled the tokens of approval were numerous.

Six "Mormons" were brought down from Ogden on Saturday night and placed in the penitentiary under six months' sentence for declining to make the promise exacted by the court in regard to their marital relations.

THE concert to be given this evensiderably ing in the Presbyterian church, corner of Second East and Second South streets, by the celebrated Heine famlly, should not be forgotten by our music loving citizens. The programme to be rendered is greatly varied, and embraces some humorous features, as well as those of a lofty glassical type.

In the contested will case of Marte Hayhoe vsy Hiram Yeager, today, Judge Zane rendered a decision establishing the validity of the will. The evidence, while indicating that at times Mr. Hayhoe was not of sound mind, showed that at the time he made his will be had a full compreit; he showed me some of the counhession of the business he was transterfeit dollars; he had quite a quantity acting.
