

SOCIETY

of the University to the students of the institution last night the affair being held in the museum building. The pleasant event was enjoyed by a large number.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Mary Wood-Swift, president of the National Council of Women, was guest of honor at a reception given at the home of Mrs. P. T. Farnsworth by the members of the National Relief Society and Y. M. L. A. The rooms were decorated with chrysanthemums and refreshments were served. The Misses Farnsworth and a number of the young ladies of the last named society assisting. Mrs. Swift, who is on her way from Europe to her home in California, has been expected for some time, but the date was not known till her arrival, so that the affair given in her honor was performed quite informal. Notwithstanding this a delightful time was passed. Mrs. Swift recounting many items of interest concerning the National and International Councils, and a general social time being spent.

DINNERS AND LUNCHEONS

Mrs. W. H. Cunningham was hostess at a luncheon on Wednesday, given in honor of her sister, Miss Dorn, whose marriage takes place in the near future. In the center of the table was a low bank of white chrysanthemums and maiden hair fern, while lovers knots of white tulip, and crystal candelabra with shades of green and white tulip, with favors of white chrysanthemums aided in the pretty effect. The guests besides Miss Dorn were: Miss June McIntyre, Mrs. Charles Wilkes, Mrs. Robert Glendinning, Miss Mary Louise Anderson, Miss Noble, Miss Grace Jacobs, Mrs. George Dorn, Miss Leta McMillan and Mrs. Samuel Adams.

Mrs. Le Grande Young and the Misses Young will entertain at a luncheon one week from today.

Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Bascom entertained at a delightful dinner on Wednesday, a number of their friends being present to enjoy the pleasant affair.

A pretty luncheon of the week was that given by Mrs. A. H. Boxrud on Tuesday. The decorations were in yellow chrysanthemums and the guests were Mrs. Delano, Mrs. Wightman, Mrs. Dooly, Mrs. Walt and her guest, Mrs. Wolfersberger of Denver.

Mrs. Walter G. Filer will entertain at an elaborate luncheon at the Alta club next Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Newhouse.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller entertained delightfully at dinner in honor of Rev. Elmer I. Goshen, about eight guests being present. The table was decorated with violets and English ivy, the effect being most artistic. Invited with the guest of honor were Dr. and Mrs. Stiehl, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gorham, Miss Esther Allen, Miss Olive Jennings and Prof. Hogan.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keyes entertained informally at dinner this week.

Mrs. Sara E. Brunsford entertained at a family dinner party on Wednesday, covers being laid for eight.

Mrs. John T. Donnellan will entertain at a reception next Tuesday in honor of her guest, Mrs. Wolfersberger.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bridwell entertained a large number of guests at a reception on Monday night in honor of their daughter Miss Bridwell who has gone to make an extended visit in the south. The rooms were effectively decorated with flowers and vines and the affair was a most delightful one.

A reception was given by the faculty

ELEGANT MILITARY COAT.

This very new design is made of champagne-colored boardcloth, heavily studded with black green. The fronts and shoulders are cut in one, forming capes, with a second sleeve cape below. The "leg of mutton" sleeves are set into deep military cuffs, which, like the high round collar, have many rows of stitching. Large gilt buttons fasten the front, smaller ones being used on the cuffs and waist straps. This is an excellent coat for driving.

CARDS AND KENSINGTONS

Mrs. Charles W. Boyd entertained the Third street card club delightfully at her home this week a luncheon preceding the game of euchre.

The decorations were white chrysanthemums and ferns artistically arranged, and the entire affair was delightful.

Mrs. W. H. Jones entertained the members of the Woman's Republican club last night at her home.

Mrs. Robert Glendinning was hostess at an informal but enjoyable Kensington on Thursday afternoon about one of the "THREE GRACES."

The wedding of Margarita Grace, sister of the Countess of Donoughmore, and daughter of Michael P. Grace, the former partner of Andrew Carnegie, took place at Battle Abbey, England, Nov. 4. It was a notable affair. The bridegroom, J. S. Phipps, Jr., is a member of several New York clubs, and an intimate of the Whitneys and Vanderbilts.

20 guests being present. The rooms were prettily decorated, and delicious refreshments served.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Adelle Zane entertained at an informal Kensington in honor of Miss Jacobs.

Among the delightful social events of the week was the card party given by Mrs. Sam Porter at the Kenyon on Tuesday afternoon. The decorations were in yellow chrysanthemums and the guests were Mrs. Delano, Mrs. Wightman, Mrs. Dooly, Mrs. Walt and her guest, Mrs. Wolfersberger of Denver.

About 60 ladies were present at the card party given by the Jewish Relief society this week. Mesdames M. B. and S. C. Lichtenstein being the hostesses. Prizes were won by Mrs. Ben Davis, Mrs. Benson and Mrs. Loeffler.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hirth entertained the East Side club at their home on Wednesday night.

Mrs. Canning was hostess at a card party on Thursday evening given in honor of the ladies of the G. A. R.

Mrs. D. R. Gray entertained this week at an informal Kensington given in honor of Mrs. Barclay of Helena.

On Tuesday Mrs. H. J. Burt gave a Kensington at her home, a number of her friends being pleasantly entertained.

The Autumn club met at the residence of Mrs. Edwin S. Smith on Thursday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Those who enjoyed the affair were: Mrs. Charlie Reader, Mrs. A. S. Dorrick, Mrs. Albert Paul, Mrs. John Enns, Mrs. Ernest Smith and Mrs. Moroni Iverson.

Mr. and Mrs. Dinwooley entertained at a card party on Monday evening in honor of Mr. Dinwooley's birthday. The decorations were ferns and chrysanthemums and the prize winners were Mrs. E. C. Taylor and Mr. Ed. Needham. Present were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Price, Mr. and Mrs. George Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. James Hague, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Needham, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Needham and Mrs. Bothwell.

One of the prettiest nuptial events of the season was the wedding of Miss Jane Cyrene Beattie and Rufus K. Cobb, on Thursday night. The event took place at the home of the bride at 7 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Bishop O. F. Whitney in the presence of the families of the bride couple. Afterward a reception was held, a large number of the friends and relatives being present. The rooms were beautifully decorated, each in its distinctive color, the parlor in green and white with roses, carnations, chrysanthemums, palms and vines artistically arranged, the library in red carnations, the living room in yellow chrysanthemums and the dining room in pink chrysanthemums and smilax, with pink candelabra shades making a pretty picture. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white crepe with trimmings of Cluny lace, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Her attendants were her two sisters, Misses Vivian and Lisle Louise Beattie, and the groom was attended by his brothers, Hal and Kent Cobb. Assisting in receiving and entertaining were Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. James Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. G. Whitney and Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher of Logan. Miss Eva Richardson presided at the punch bowl. During the evening a stringed orchestra rendered delightful musical numbers. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Beattie, and the groom a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cobb of this city. Both have many friends whose best wishes will go with them through life. They will be at home early in December at 137 Third street.

An interesting event of the week was the wedding of Miss Eleanor Dooley and Mr. Ernest Bamberger, the ceremony being performed on Wednesday noon at the home of the bride, and the young couple leaving immediately after for a trip to New York. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dooley, and the groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bamberger of this city, both young people being well and popularly known in Salt Lake social circles.

A wedding of the near future in which many are interested is that of Miss Mathilde Dorn and Mr. James C. Dick, which will take place on the 15th of this month. The event will occur at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dorn, with Rev. Elmer Goshen officiating, and the attendants of the bride will be Mrs. W.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Newhouse entertained two distinguished guests this week in the persons of Lady Rodney and Captain Henry Guest, who are son and daughter of Lord Vintura, and first cousins of the Duke of Roxburghe. Their visit was by choice a very quiet one, and no attempt was made at entertaining formally in their honor. They left Thursday for Montreal.

Miss Arvilla Clark will give her first musical recital on the night of Nov. 30. The event will take place in the Tabernacle, and Miss Clark will be assisted by Prof. McClellan and the Tabernacle choir.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lamb entertained at a Welsh rabbit supper on Tuesday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Armstrong of Park City.

The usual enjoyable hop was given at the post this week.

The ball given by the Lady Macabees at Russell hall on Thursday night was among the successes of the week.

A dancing party will be given by the young ladies of the Unitarian church at the new hall on Second East street next week.

Mrs. Windsor V. Rice will hereafter be at home to her friends on Mondays at her new home, 163 east Brigham street.

Mrs. Margaret Park is spending a fortnight in Ogden as the guest of Miss Minnie Kiesel.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Hoffman have moved to 234 east Brigham street, where they will receive their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Henderson, of West Liberty, Ia., are visiting relatives in the city, on their way to the coast.

Mrs. Charles Albert Walker will receive her friends on Fridays during this month.

Among the Salt Lakeers who went to Provo on Friday to attend the concert given by Miss Ramsey were Miss Rose Toronto, Miss Agnes Dahlquist and Mr. George Q. Morris.

The Misses Elodie and May Loftus gave a box-party at the theater on Wednesday afternoon.

The 65th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Rebecca H. Doolan was the occasion of a delightful gathering at her home on Tuesday night, a number of her friends being present to celebrate the event, and spending a most enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Edwin Morris entertained the members of the missionary society of the Congregational church at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

Among the pleasant events of the week was the dance given at the post by the Twelfth infantry band.

Mrs. Justus Jungk entertained the members of the German club at her home this week.

The Hesperian club will give a dancing party at New Unitarian hall on Nov. 25.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Downing left this week for a month's visit in Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Mary M. F. Allen of Park City is a guest of her sister, Mrs. George R. Hancock of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Airlis are in from their country home and will shortly receive their friends at their new home, 1047 Third street.

Mrs. Robert H. Barclay of Helena, who has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Keyes for the past month, left Thursday for her home.

Judge and Mrs. J. C. Royle have gone to New York to spend the winter with their sons.

Mrs. De Wolfe of Beaver is visiting Mrs. Catherine Culmer.

Mrs. Stingley is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Newhouse.

Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick and Miss Jasmine Young left this week for San Francisco, where Miss Young will be Miss Kirkpatrick's guest for a time.

Miss Mary Kirkpatrick of San Francisco is a guest of her sister, Mrs. John Marshall.

Mrs. William M. Perry of Park City is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George R. Hancock.

F. B. Cook is home from California, where she has been visiting for a month past.

Raysh N. Herriman of Cleveland, O., who has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. A. D. Melvin, for the past two weeks, left Wednesday for his home.

J. W. Bubb, son of Col. Bubb of Fort Douglas, left Sunday evening for Seattle, where he will make his home.

Mrs. Geo. Roberts, Jr., of Henefer is the guest of Mrs. Blatzacker at Ford's hotel.

Miss Josie Trolson, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. T. Vollmar for several weeks, left this week for her home in Anna Corbett, Wash.

Miss Igleheart, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Igleheart for the past two months, left yesterday for her home in Evansville, Ind.

Mrs. Gould B. Blakely has returned from Lincoln, Neb., where she went to attend the national convention of the P. E. O., and where she has been visiting since the adjournment of the convention.

Mrs. Stowe has returned to Park City after a visit of a week with her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Stowe.

Lieutenant Jackson has been transferred to Fort Bliss and instead of returning to Fort Douglas after his visit to Sacramento he will go directly to his new post.

Mrs. Thos. Marioneaux leaves very shortly for Denver, where she goes to visit her mother, Mrs. Oatman. Later Mrs. Marioneaux expects to go to California, to spend the winter.

Miss Belle Bridwell left this week for a visit to the south. She will go direct

SOCIAL CHAT

The Christensen soiree of last Wednesday was a feature in dancing events of the past week. The attendance was the largest of any yet, and the merry crowd of dancers entered into the evening's enjoyment with enthusiasm. The members of the Billie club were there in a body.

The concert on Tuesday night by Miss Agatha Berkhold, assisted by Profs. McClellan and Skelton, was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. Stiehl entertained at a delightful musicale at their home on Monday evening in honor of Mr. Herriman of Cleveland.

A dancing party will be given at the Ladies' Literary clubhouse next Monday night by the I. O. O. B.

Mrs. J. S. Richards gave a pretty children's party today for her little daughter Ruth.

A future event which promises to be unique and amusing will be the entertainment to be given by the members of Mrs. Igleheart's Sunday school class next Friday night at the Presbyterian church, the affair to be in the nature of a district school.

At the home of Mrs. F. S. Richards on Thursday the members of the state council of women celebrated the birthday anniversary of Elizabeth Cady Stanton in an enjoyable gathering, and many tributes were paid to the memory of the noted woman so honored. Mrs. Cohen read the address given by Mrs. Stanton in 1888 and resolutions were passed by the council to continue the work of advancing the suffrage cause. Later the council went in a body to pay their respects to the president of the National Council, Mrs. Swift, at the reception given in her honor at Mrs. Farnsworth's.

Miss Howat will entertain at a card party next Thursday in honor of Miss Dorn.

Miss June McIntyre will give a dance-ing party next week in honor of Miss Dorn.

Mrs. Davidson pleasantly entertained the ladies of St. Paul's Guild at her home on Thursday afternoon.

A delightful affair of last night was the harvest social given at the First Congregational church by the young members of the Christian Endeavor society.

Mrs. Coulam delightfully entertained the members of the Bonanza Sewing club Thursday afternoon. The time was passed in sewing and music. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Newhouse entertained two distinguished guests this week in the persons of Lady Rodney and Captain Henry Guest, who are son and daughter of Lord Vintura, and first cousins of the Duke of Roxburghe. Their visit was by choice a very quiet one, and no attempt was made at entertaining formally in their honor. They left Thursday for Montreal.

Miss Arvilla Clark will give her first musical recital on the night of Nov. 30. The event will take place in the Tabernacle, and Miss Clark will be assisted by Prof. McClellan and the Tabernacle choir.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lamb entertained at a Welsh rabbit supper on Tuesday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Armstrong of Park City.

The usual enjoyable hop was given at the post this week.

The ball given by the Lady Macabees at Russell hall on Thursday night was among the successes of the week.

A dancing party will be given by the young ladies of the Unitarian church at the new hall on Second East street next week.

Mrs. Windsor V. Rice will hereafter be at home to her friends on Mondays at her new home, 163 east Brigham street.

Mrs. Margaret Park is spending a fortnight in Ogden as the guest of Miss Minnie Kiesel.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Hoffman have moved to 234 east Brigham street, where they will receive their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Henderson, of West Liberty, Ia., are visiting relatives in the city, on their way to the coast.

Mrs. Charles Albert Walker will receive her friends on Fridays during this month.

Among the Salt Lakeers who went to Provo on Friday to attend the concert given by Miss Ramsey were Miss Rose Toronto, Miss Agnes Dahlquist and Mr. George Q. Morris.

The Misses Elodie and May Loftus gave a box-party at the theater on Wednesday afternoon.

The 65th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Rebecca H. Doolan was the occasion of a delightful gathering at her home on Tuesday night, a number of her friends being present to celebrate the event, and spending a most enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Edwin Morris entertained the members of the missionary society of the Congregational church at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

Among the pleasant events of the week was the dance given at the post by the Twelfth infantry band.

Mrs. Justus Jungk entertained the members of the German club at her home this week.

The Hesperian club will give a dancing party at New Unitarian hall on Nov. 25.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Downing left this week for a month's visit in Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Mary M. F. Allen of Park City is a guest of her sister, Mrs. George R. Hancock of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Airlis are in from their country home and will shortly receive their friends at their new home, 1047 Third street.

Mrs. Robert H. Barclay of Helena, who has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Keyes for the past month, left Thursday for her home.

Judge and Mrs. J. C. Royle have gone to New York to spend the winter with their sons.

Mrs. De Wolfe of Beaver is visiting Mrs. Catherine Culmer.

Mrs. Stingley is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Newhouse.

Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick and Miss Jasmine Young left this week for San Francisco, where Miss Young will be Miss Kirkpatrick's guest for a time.

Miss Mary Kirkpatrick of San Francisco is a guest of her sister, Mrs. John Marshall.

Mrs. William M. Perry of Park City is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George R. Hancock.

F. B. Cook is home from California, where she has been visiting for a month past.

Raysh N. Herriman of Cleveland, O., who has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. A. D. Melvin, for the past two weeks, left Wednesday for his home.

J. W. Bubb, son of Col. Bubb of Fort Douglas, left Sunday evening for Seattle, where he will make his home.

Mrs. Geo. Roberts, Jr., of Henefer is the guest of Mrs. Blatzacker at Ford's hotel.

Miss Josie Trolson, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. T. Vollmar for several weeks, left this week for her home in Anna Corbett, Wash.

Miss Igleheart, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Igleheart for the past two months, left yesterday for her home in Evansville, Ind.

Mrs. Gould B. Blakely has returned from Lincoln, Neb., where she went to attend the national convention of the P. E. O., and where she has been visiting since the adjournment of the convention.

Mrs. Stowe has returned to Park City after a visit of a week with her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Stowe.

Lieutenant Jackson has been transferred to Fort Bliss and instead of returning to Fort Douglas after his visit to Sacramento he will go directly to his new post.

Mrs. Thos. Marioneaux leaves very shortly for Denver, where she goes to visit her mother, Mrs. Oatman. Later Mrs. Marioneaux expects to go to California, to spend the winter.

Miss Belle Bridwell left this week for a visit to the south. She will go direct to Atlanta and from there will visit her old home in Augusta. Miss Bridwell will remain in the south several months visiting her many relatives and friends.

Mrs. Field and Miss Field are here from Owensboro, Ky., and will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton B. Leigh and Mrs. Miss Pointer.

Judge and Mrs. William C. Hall have returned from California, where they have spent the past two months.

Mrs. Arthur W. Copp is home from a three months' visit with eastern friends.

Mrs. Edwin S. Perry has returned from her visit in Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. James K. Heslet of Butte are spending a few days in the city and are at the Knutsford.

Col. Perry is down from Park City and is a guest of his daughter, Mrs. George R. Hancock.

William R. Reinhardt has gone to San Francisco, where he expects to make his home. Mrs. Reinhardt will join him later.

Mrs. Jennie Crismon has returned from a visit of several weeks on Puget sound and in San Francisco. Miss Besse Crismon will remain in San Francisco indefinitely, pursuing her musical studies.

Dr. and Mrs. D. Moore Lindsay arrived in New York on Wednesday on the steamer Oceanic and are expected to return to Salt Lake in a few days.

Mrs. W. H. Alexander and the Misses Alexander of Chicago, wife and daughters of Mr. Alexander of the Majestic Mining company, are expected in Salt Lake shortly to make their home.

Mrs. S. H. Babcock has returned from Nashville, where she has spent the past two months.

Mr. A. F. Holden leaves tomorrow for a visit of some time in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Nye and little son leave one week from today for De Witt, Ia., to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Nye's parents.

William L. Frasier of Boston left yesterday for the east, after a pleasant visit with Salt Lake friends.

Mrs. John B. King and son left Wednesday afternoon to join Mr. King in Texas.

Mrs. George Alexander, who has been visiting her sister at 52 south Eighth East street, will leave shortly for her home in Pleasanton, Iowa.

Lieutenant Green has returned from his old home in Albany where he spent his leave of absence.

Mrs. James A. Miner returned during the week from the coast, where she has been visiting Mrs. McClure.

CAPITAL'S QUEEN.

Mrs. Field and Miss Field are here from Owensboro, Ky., and will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton B. Leigh and Mrs. Miss Pointer.

Judge and Mrs. William C. Hall have returned from California, where they have spent the past two months.

Mrs. Arthur W. Copp is home from a three months' visit with eastern friends.

Mrs. Edwin S. Perry has returned from her visit in Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. James K. Heslet of Butte are spending a few days in the city and are at the Knutsford.

Col. Perry is down from Park City and is a guest of his daughter, Mrs. George R. Hancock.

William R. Reinhardt has gone to San Francisco, where he expects to make his home. Mrs. Reinhardt will join him later.

Mrs. Jennie Crismon has returned from a visit of several weeks on Puget sound and in San Francisco. Miss Besse Crismon will remain in San Francisco indefinitely, pursuing her musical studies.

Dr. and Mrs. D. Moore Lindsay arrived in New York on Wednesday on the steamer Oceanic and are expected to return to Salt Lake in a few days.

Mrs. W. H. Alexander and the Misses Alexander of Chicago, wife and daughters of Mr. Alexander of the Majestic Mining company, are expected in Salt Lake shortly to make their home.

Mrs. S. H. Babcock has returned from Nashville, where she has spent the past two months.

Mr. A. F. Holden leaves tomorrow for a visit of some time in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Nye and little son leave one week from today for De Witt, Ia., to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Nye's parents.

William L. Frasier of Boston left yesterday for the east, after a pleasant visit with Salt Lake friends.

Mrs. John B. King and son left Wednesday afternoon to join Mr. King in Texas.

Mrs. George Alexander, who has been visiting her sister at 52 south Eighth East street, will leave shortly for her home in Pleasanton, Iowa.

Lieutenant Green has returned from his old home in Albany where he spent his leave of absence.

Mrs. James A. Miner returned during the week from the coast, where she has been visiting Mrs. McClure.

The Modern Woodmen of America will celebrate next Tuesday in this city. The members of the organization from all parts of the state will be in attendance. The local lodge is making extensive preparation for the entertainment of the visiting members and their ladies. Some important work pertaining to the order will be transacted. In the evening a reception will be given at the K. of P. hall.

Henry Denkens of the Fifth ward departed Wednesday for Holland, where he will do missionary work.