Scheme is to Combine Those in the East and to Consolidate Agen. cles in the West.

There has for some months been conor improbable mergers of the meat packing interests in the great packing city claim that it would result disastrously to local dealers, but at the same time there would be a unification of prices which would not be an unmixed evil, as it would stop cutting and fluctuating prices.

In each and every instance, however, that reports suggesting the combination have been started, they have been "vigorously denied," and the packers claimed that any such proposition is 9 preposterous. Inquiry came to the 1 "News" office yesterday afternoon from 1 Washington county asking if there had 1 been any merger movement started in 1 Salt Lake. The local agent of Swift 2 & Co., Mr. Geoghegan, and the western representative of the company, Mr. O'Callahan, emphatically declared later there was no truth in the reports, either

From reports in the press dispatches it is stated that the combine is authorized to purchase the combine is authorized to purchase and deal in cattle and other live stock. This may mean the breaking away from established stock yards and the fact, this will undoubtedly be one result. Now, under such circumstances, independent yards may put up rival packing concerns to handle their product. If this should be done the stock

The purchaser will also get 50 per cent of the stock, so that the bon holders will be the owners of one-half the capital of the railroad company and have the same opportunities for profit in the enterprise as the construction company, which will own the other half of the stock, "Not only are the terms generous, but they have been made as favorable as could be desired in the matter of payments. A subscriber for the bonds may pay the entire amount in cash and receive interest on his bonds from the time his payment is made; or, at his option, he can make the payments in installments as required for the construction work, but not more than 10 per cent of the subscription can be called in any month. These partial payments will also draw interest at the bond rate from the time they are

The $10,000 damage suit of Charles W Johnson vs Salt Lake City is on trial today before a jury in Judge Stewart's The trial was commenced yesterday and will probably be concluded today. The action was brought to recaused by the death of plaintiff's 18months-old child, who was drowned in the city's flume near Seventh and L streets about a year ago, Negligence on the part of the city is charged because the flume was left open and in a dangerous condition. The estimony on the trial was to the effect that the child and its mother were on the front porch of their home and the mother went into the house for a few minutes. Upon her return sne discovered that the child had fallen into the stream in front of the house and was being rapidly carried by the strong current toward the covered portion of the flume. The screams of the mother attracted a number of men who came to the rescue but the child had been swept under the cover of the flume It became necessary to turn the water off so that a man could crawl into the flume and recover the child's body. This took about 25 minutes and when it was recovered the baby had evidently been dead a number of minutes.

GOOD PROGRAM PREPARED.

It Includes Speeches by Senator Clark And Governor Wells and Music By Held's Band.

The Salt Lake theater will ring with Republican oratory tonight. The occasion is the rally of the Young Men's Republican club, arrangements for time. The boys were determined to make it the banner event of the campaign and how well they have succeeded will only be known when the curtain drops on the last act tonight. Whether the success expected or not, the fact remains that a good program has been prepared, the same including speeches by Senator C. D. Clark and Gov. Wells, music by Held's band and the Ashworth giee club, and other features which will tend to enliven the meeting and repay all for their touble in coming out. The theater has been handsomely decorated and the Morris Floral combany has furnished potted plants, palms and other greenhouse products to add to the beauty of what cannot fail to be an attractive scene. Preceding the meeting Held's band will parade the principal streets, this feature of the big rally beginning promptly at 7 oclock. An hour later Hon. E. B. Our laws have been wisely and fearlessly admin-stered. Never did our Republic occupy so high a place among the nations, ready market at home and abroad f all products of both mill and farm nity to those who depend upon their daily toil for their daily support. Rare ndeed are the instances of enforced dleness. Confidence in the statesman ship of the president and those whe are associated with him in the affairs of state is such that capital is ever read for investment, and a recurrence for investment, and a recurrence of the dreaded financial panic of the past seems to be indefinitely postponed. Yet in the very light of these facts, the minority in Congress have stood firm in opposition to nearly every measure advocated or advanced by the presi-dent or by the majority. Men who are sent to the highest law-making body in the world and who lose sight of their he world and who lose sight of their duty to those who sent them and be come blinded by continued opposition until they are unable to see the goo in the poilcy of the party in power, seeing, are not great enough to break away from such continued opposition, are not great enough to retain the con fidence and support of the people.

YERKES DEFEATS MORGAN. Was in Contest Over London Tube

Railway. London, Oct. 21 .- A dramatic development in the fight for the control of London's tube railroads occurred today when it transpired that Speyer Brothers, who are financing Charles T. Yerkes' plan, had bought control of a large company hitherto allied with the Morgan scheme of transportation, thereby not only reducing the scope of the Morgan projected line by many miles, but actually threatening it with legal obliteration.

The latest move in this Morgan-Yerkes rivalry was announced at to-day's session of the house of com-mons "tubes" committee, Sir Edward Clarke as counsel for the London Uni-ted Electric railways, withdrew the bill providing for the construction of that part of the road covering the district westward, between Hammer-smith and Piccadiliy and southward between Clapham and the city. The Morgans had originally intended to cover these points as the London United already had certain powers from the amalgamation effected a year ago, and the Morgan project had passed through parliament under the title of the "London United & Piccadil-
