

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, May 29, 1908.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Plummer in Ogden.—Professor Plummer, the talented elocutionist and funny character actor, is delighting Ogden friends with his laughable eccentricities.

Delictable.—Strawberries at 40 cents a box, are among the early delicacies that make the mouth water and the pocket to become a hollow mockery.

Closing the Year.—The Deseret University closes its academic year next week. The students are busy now preparing for "examination," which promises to be more than usually interesting.

Special Session.—A special session of the City Council will be held tomorrow (Friday) evening, at 7 o'clock. Important business is to be transacted. A full and prompt attendance is requested.

Back Again.—Bishop John Sharp returned last night from his three days' trip down the Utah Southern. Work on the Extension is still progressing vigorously. It is thought that Frisco will be reached early in June.

A Genuine Puzzle.—Now that the Utah puzzle excitement has abated, our exchanges are discussing what is called the Mule Puzzle. The directions are as follows: Draw a circle 15 feet in diameter, place a mule in the center, and walk around him without getting out of the circle.

The Railroad "Boom."—The Utah Eastern is the grand topic of conversation in all circles of society. The people are fully awake to the new project, and when the people of Salt Lake unite on a scheme which has for its object the good of the community, it is a pretty well settled fact that it will be realized. "On to Clerville" is the slogan of the hour.

Are We to Decorate?—The question now is, are we going to have a decoration day this year? If so, on what day? The 29th coming on the Sabbath, will the Saturday before or the Monday after be chosen and set apart for the purpose? Or, if we are not to decorate, why not? It is whispered that the 29th inst. is the day to be selected. Nothing official, though, has yet been made known.

The Third in Three Weeks.—The function of last evening says:

It is with feelings of the deepest sorrow that we chronicle the death of the little daughter of Henry and Maria Tribe, who died this morning from the fell destroyer, diphtheria. This is the third child that has been taken from the family within the last three weeks, and the sorrow of the parents can be better thought of than described. May He, whose voice once uttered the consoling words, "Suffer little children to come unto me," look down upon the bereaved parents, and heal their broken hearts.

Silk Organization.—We learn from Mrs. Elizabeth Carlisle, of Mill Creek, that during the recent visit of Brother Graves and Sisters Snow, Home and Young to that place, an organization in the interests of sericulture was effected, with the following board of officers: President, Margaret White; Counselors, Elizabeth Hill and Mary Ann Morgan; Secretary, Elizabeth Carlisle; Treasurer, Mary Samuels. Afterwards, Mrs. Hill resigning, Mrs. Carlisle was chosen to fill the vacancy thus created. Most of the officers are experienced hands in silk raising.

Indian Dancers.—A company of the Indians are going through the settlements of Utah County giving entertainments. Their performance consists of a variety of Indian dances, such as the Snake, Arapahoe and Navajo dances. The troupe are from the Utah Reservation, and have been secured, it is said, on account of the failure of last season's crops, to undertake a theatrical tour for the purpose of raising money to buy flour and provisions for their families at home. They talk of visiting Salt Lake and giving an act in the theatre. The price of admittance is but 25 cents. An entertainment of this character would certainly be interesting from its novelty and instructive from the nature of the exhibition.

The "Indignant Doctor's" Victim.—A few evenings ago, we published an article headed "An Indignant Doctor," reproducing from the Enquirer two versions of the strange and reprehensible conduct of a physician of Provo, while in the chamber of a sick man in Springville. From a later issue of the same paper we learn that the sick man died last Sunday morning from the effects, it is supposed, of the late "doctor's" (Dr. D. McLaughlin) brutal conduct in snatching a knife over his couch and threatening and abusing the poor fellow because he remonstrated with the "medical gentleman" on his neglect of his case. The name of the deceased is Henry Wheeler, a resident of Oakdale, California, who had been traveling through the Territory, taking orders for enlarging portraits, when he fell ill at Springville with congestion of the lungs. It is reported that he was improving nicely under the care of Dr. Pike, the second physician spoken of in our former article, when McLaughlin entered the stranger's sick room, and being reproached for leaving his patient and failing to come on appointment to attend him, behaved in the unbecoming manner described. From that time, Mr. Wheeler became worse, and notwithstanding the tender care he received under the skillful treatment of Dr. Pike, he gradually declined until the time of his death. Indignation became very high against McLaughlin, who was arrested, and being unable to give bonds, was imprisoned and now awaits his examination, which takes place to-morrow in Springville.

Hopewell Mining & Milling Company.—On the 17th inst., was incorporated the Hopewell Mining and Milling Company, to work the Tulare, Levant, Major, Noon-day, and Lulu Mines, situated in Carr Fork, Bingham Canon, Utah. These five mines adjoin each other and lie in close proximity to a valuable mill site, belonging to the company. Several thousand dollars was spent upon the property last year, developing a large body of high grade, free milling gold and silver ore, and assays were obtained, showing that the ore carried gold and silver, free from lead, from $12 to $240 per ton.

We understand the intention of the company to be, to continue the development of their property, in confident expectation that at an early day they will require a mill for working the products of their mines, and we are informed that no property in Bingham, upon which the same amount of work has been done, gives better prospects for success than that owned by this company. The incorporators are Eber Case, H. B. Clawson, H. P. Kimball, Frank Armstrong, J. M. Benedict, Phillip Pugaley, Bolivar Roberts, S. R. Dickson, of Salt Lake City, and Warren N. Dusenberry of Provo. J. M. Benedict, president; Eber Case Secretary; and B. H. Schettler, treasurer.

The capital stock of the company is $1,500,000, divided into $10 shares, one-third of which has been set aside for working capital. The stock is forever unassessable, and the private property of the shareholders is exempt from liability for the corporate debts of the company. With these provisions embodied in their articles of association, and under the management of the present board of directors, the public will have confidence that the affairs of the company will be economically and honestly managed, and that small stockholders will not be "frozen out."

A Street Gang.—The fearful prevalence of crime in Ogden has at last necessitated action on the part of the city authorities. A chain gang is to be organized there at once for the special accommodation of vagrants, who may henceforth have an opportunity of manifesting their love for Ogden by beautifying her streets instead of burglarizing her houses. A little more of the former and much less of the latter would be highly appreciated by her citizens. The Junction says the probabilities are that hundreds of tramps will be there within a few days, and the action of the City Council is therefore quite opportune. The chances are that Salt Lake will have more of the fellows to deal with, as a consequence. The police at the depot will have to make more arrests of ride-stealers than ever.

Dual Wedding Reception.—This evening a private reception was held at the residence of Mr. W. Hyde, near the City Hall, in honor of the wedding of two of his daughters, which auspicious events occurred yesterday and to-day. The couple married to-day were Mr. Brigham J. Clayton, son of the late William Clayton, Esq., and Miss Adella, daughter of Mr. Hyde and his wife Angeline. Yesterday, Miss Lovira, daughter of same parents, became the happy bride of Mr. Chas. S. Tingey, son of Counselor John Tingey, of the 17th Ward. Both marriages were solemnized at the Endowment House, by Elder Jos. F. Smith. The newly wedded pairs are well mated, and are very estimable young people. We hope and predict for them much joy and prosperity in their married life.

Runaway and Smash-up.—This afternoon, about one o'clock, an alarming scene took place near the Catholic Sisters' School, in the 14th Ward. A horse and buggy was driven near by, and a gentleman, who had come out of the school with a little girl, about eight years of age, lifted her into the vehicle and was in the act of getting in himself, when the horse, a spotted animal, started off and began describing a series of rapid circles across the street and both sidewalks alternately. The little girl fell out and bruised her face badly. The buggy was finally caught by a tree, when the horse broke loose and started away, but was soon stopped. The vehicle was badly damaged, wheels, shafts and top, as well as the harness, being scattered around in every direction.

Steadily Improving.—Last evening, we had the privilege of attending another rehearsal of the comedy of "Ours," which is now under preparation for Decoration Day, by the Home Dramatic Club, of this city. The acting showed great improvement on former rehearsals. As the performers become more familiar with their "lines" and are enabled to recite with ease and pay more attention to the details of stage deportment, the points of the play are brought out more perfectly and its genuine merit fairly exhibited. It is a sprightly, dashing piece, which cannot fail to please, and we are confident the evening performance will secure another success for the Club.

Bad Conduct.—Yesterday afternoon, word was brought to the police station that a man and woman, both drunk, were deporting themselves in a lewd and shameless manner in the vicinity of the Empire Mill, City Creek Canon, and an officer was at once sent to the place to arrest them. They found the woman, who is a common prostitute, first, and about a block beyond, the man, who had fallen into a drunken stupor. Both were brought to the City Hall, and this morning were fined, the man $30 and the woman $50. The former is a miner from Bingham, named Geary.

"Grand Duchess."—Don't forget the children's "Grand Duchess," to-morrow night and Saturday afternoon. Last chance to see this charming opera.

Reported Indian Fight.—A dispatch from Fort Craig, says it is reported that the Indians had a fight with some "Mormons" in Arizona, on the 11th inst.
