J. O. T. LYNCH,

POSTMASTER.

MARRIED.

In this City, February 6, 1879, by President D. H. Wells, EDWIN A. STRATFORD and MAUD BERGSTROM, both of Ogden City.

DIED.

In this City, February 2, 1879, of diphtheria, JOSEPH M., son of William and Elizabeth Cooper, aged 6 years, 6 months and 23 days.

On the morning of the 1st inst., GEORGE W., son of George W. and Mary L. Young, of Wash. ship, Summit County, aged 2 years and 3 months.

Deceased was grandson of Ebenezer P. Young, Sen., of Wanship, who was immediately summoned, and came to the city accompanied by his sons, Ebenezer, Jun., and Robert W. He was also grandson of Jacob Gibson, Esq., of Sugar House Ward. His parents brought him to the city on a visit to his grandfather Gibson, where he was taken sick with diphtheria, and died after a short but severe illness.

The funeral services were performed on the 3rd inst., in Sugar House Ward, and were conducted by Bishop Hardy, Bishop E. D. Woolley and Bishop J. C. Roundy, of Wanship.

The following hymn, on page 50 of Eliza R. Snow's poems, was selected by Mary Y. Appleby, and sung upon opening the services:

Your sweet little rose-bud has left you,
To bloom in a holier sphere;
He that gave it in wisdom bereft you,
Then why should you cherish a tear?

Your babe in the grave is not sleeping,
He has joined his dear brothers above;
Bright beams now have them in keeping,
In a mansion of beauty and love.

They're treasures you've laid up in heaven,
For a season removed from your sight;
To your bosom again they'll be given,
With fullness of joy and delight.

They've gone where life's ills cannot find them—

They're secure from each danger and snare;

O, how cruel the love that would bind them
To years of affliction and care.

Look up, and you'll find consolation,
Which God by his spirit will give;
And through faith, the rich manifestation
That these gems, your sweet children, yet live.

THEOLOGICAL students reason that if there be counterfeit money, there must be genuine; so, if there be infidels, there must also be Christians. If this be true of money and religion, will not the same rule apply to "put up" medicines? Do not the cheap and worthless nostrums prove that there are genuine and meritorious "put up" medicines? The great popularity of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has resulted in the manufacture of many shoddy alternative and tonic remedies, but one after another of these have disappeared, the proprietors have found that, no matter how loud they advertise, success depends upon merit. In South America, as well as in this country, the Discovery is the standard remedy for all scrofulous and eruptive diseases. It acts promptly on the stomach, liver, and blood, toning up, regulating, and purifying the system. It speedily allays all bronchial irritation, and cures the most stubborn cough or cold in half the time required by any other remedy. dswl
