sentative Fated in San Francisco.

Mr. Darwin McMillan was in Salt Lake a few weeks ago, with his wife, as their son was born. Mr. Mc-Millan is a representative of the Chinese Olympian, and his wife is also engaged in literary work. Both are a part of the world, or circles, and attracted considerable attention at Pine, Salt Lake and Ogden. Mc-Millan has also attracted considerable attention in San Francisco, as stated by the San Francisco Chronicle, who says that he walked into the Oriental Hotel at an early hour Friday morning with his splendid silver whiskers draped in gauze and a neatly arranged new gaslighter buttoned to his vest. He was a picture of splendor.

Mr. McMillan's appearance in the Orient was "startlingly" as follows:

"Every man is called to the protection of the law, like a China man or any other nationally." And thus the case ended.

Funeral Services.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Louise Thompson, who was born September 16, 1876, and died August 23, 1895, were held in the Chinese church meeting house yesterday at 11:30 a.m. over a very large congregation. The said church rendered a sweet and elegant service, and the organist, Mr. H. A. Allen, F. Y. Taylor, R. H. Young, John M. Whittier and A. C. Cleaves, sang with great effect.

The deceased was interred in the Chinese cemetery, and the services were conducted by Elder George Atchison.

Elder George Atchison pronounced the benediction. At the close of the services the remains were viewed by the friends, and the services were dedicated by Elder Robert A.
Ute.

Rooms and Board.

Students of the city who desire to take C. L. Evans' students as boarders, or who have furnished or un furnished rooms or real, will do well to address the undersigned, stating number and sex of boarders desired, number of beds required, &c.

Missionary Party.

A formal reception was given in honor of Elder Alfred C. Meyer, prior to his departure for Germany, in the Twenty-first Ward meeting house, on Thursday evening, August 25, at which the party with much interest, and when it was over the Olympic was summing up. Mr. McMillan was not present, and he said that he had nothing to say.

Mr. McMillan arrived from China with his wife a few weeks ago, and they had been in the Orient since the time of the Chinese revolution. They had been in China about a month, and he said that he had been in the Orient about a month, and he said that he had been in the Orient about a month,

At noon in the washings of the Chinese laundry, he said, he had a spirit of discontent, and he said that he had been in the Orient about a month, and he said that he had been in the Orient about a month,
