EVENING NEWS
 Monday - September 10, 1877.
SHORT AND SHARP.
 A coincidence void of offense is a good thing, but of farm void of a fence is quite another matter.—Cincinnati Saturday Night.
 The Philadelphia Bulletin thinks the reason why the Turks can't get hold of the Balkan Passes is that the passes are not transferable.
 Some men solemnly say, "Give us this day our daily bread," and then loaf all day on the fence, wondering why prayer is not answered.
 The woman who wears a diamond ring over her kid gloves could accomplish the same object by carrying round a sign reading: "I am a nobody!"—Detroit Free Press.
 A new device of the way bank director and a deficit of $10,000, and exclaim: "This comes of supporting men in idleness; ordered that there be a reduction of ten per cent on the salary of the night watchman."
 Two country attorneys overtaking a wagon on the road, thinking to break a joke with him, asked him why his fore horse was so fat, and the rest were so lean. The wagoner, knowing them to be the limbs of the law, replied: "That the fore horse was a lawyer, and the rest were his clients."
 An eminent Scottish divine happened to meet two of his parishioners at the house of a lawyer whom he considered too sharp a practitioner. The lawyer joyfully and ungraciously put the question, "Doctor, these are members of your flock; may I ask, do you look upon them as white or black sheep?" "I don't know," answered the divine, dryly, "whether they are black or white sheep; but I know if they are here long they are pretty sure to be fleeced."
