UP THE DISPLAY OF ORATORY.

Professing of Opinion Among the Members of the Committee on Resolutions.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 2.—It was the first of the important chairman, Mr. Jones, appeared on the platform to the afternoon session of the convention.

There were no demonstrations as the session was crowded. The galleries were crowded and the proportion of ladies was large.

At 10 o'clock, Mr. Jones stepped for the first time of the committee on resolutions on the platform.

When Mr. Jones stepped to the platform, he was greeted by a chorus of "Huzzahs" and "Hurrahs" from the galleries.

There were loud calls for Mr. Jones, and he stepped to the platform.
