FAMILY RECORDS.

WE ARE NOW PREPARED

to receive orders for FAMILY

RECORDS of an approved form.

Each book is divided into four forms.

The first form is that of a "FAM-ILY RECORD," with ruled and printed spaces for births, marriages, and deaths, in each family, also for names, dates, and places, one page accommodating one family.

The second form is a "CHURCH

RECORD," with spaces for baptisms, confirmations, and other church records, and patriarchal blessings and various particulars of the same.

The third form is a "MARRI-AGE RECORD," with spaces for name of person married, birth, death time, place, etc.

The fourth form is a "BAPTISM

FOR THE DEAD RECORD," with spaces for names, dates, birth death, baptism, confirmation, etc.

Each book is furnished with a title page, on which the person owning the record can enter his or her name. An explanation of the forms, or instructions how to keep the record is also printed in each book, and its pages are numbered.

These Records are well printed on good quality paper, substantially bound in half sheep,

English, or of any other. We can furnish them of any size, from five quires, or larger, but probably five quires is as large as will be desired. We can also furnish the various forms in a record, proportional to each other to order.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, 17.—At the conclusion of the morning hour, Bright moved that the House go into committee of the whole on the private calendar, unfinished business being the bill making available for payment of certain southern soldiers all contracts the $275,000 already appropriated, and it moved that all debates be limited to ten minutes.

Republicans objected to the limitation of time, and the yeas and nays were ordered on that motion.

The House decided to limit the debate to ten minutes, and then went into committee on the whole upon the bill.

Waddell hoped it would be recommitted and objections obviated.

He objected to Clegg's request that the committee be kept open until the contractors were paid by the Confederacy. That was a minor matter.

Republicans moved to strike out the limitation of time, and the yeas and nays were ordered on that motion. The previous question was seconded, and the main question was ordered, on the recommendation of the committee, that the bill be reconsidered. The motion was declined, 121 to 78.

Then the committee was reopened, and the enacting clause was struck out.

Conger repeated that he thought it strange that none of the members of the Confederate House, who had known that fourteen of the paid by the Confederacy, were now in the House. He moved that
