JOHN SMITH Patriarch.

N.B. Office near north west corner of the Temple Block. no 12

S. HOTCHKISS, M. D. DENTAL SURGEON,

Would respectfully announce to the inhabitants of the G. S. L. Valley, and City, that he has permanently located himself in the City to practice his profession.

Dr. H. has had the advantage of eleven years experience in the practice of Dental Surgery, and has been extensively engaged in every department of the business, and will be a permanent resident, and responsible for all operations, and all persons who confide in his abilities may depend upon having their work done equally as well as they could have it done in the Eastern Cities.

Parts or whole sets of teeth inserted; with or without gums, as the case may require, by the use of Gilbert's central cavity or atmospheric pressure plates.

Advice pertaining to dental surgery will at all times be cheerfully and gratuitously given.

For the satisfaction of the people he would add the following letter from Elder O. Hyde.

G. S. L. City, Sept. 16, 1850.

This is to certify that Dr. Sterne Hotchkiss the bearer of this letter has proven himself in Pottawatomie County to be a worthy and good citizen—a moral and upright man. He is a professional gentleman, and is about to locate in this city, and to establish himself as Surgeon Dentist, and probably as a physician. He is a member of our church, and it is believed that he will be of much service in this community, and it is hoped that he may share a generous support while engaged in the duties of his profession.

Respectfully,

ORSON HYDE.

Office and residence at the dwelling of Mr. Burr Frost.

WILD BLOOMING FLOWERS.

WRITTEN ON VIEWING A BEAUTIFUL GLEN OF WILD FLOWERS WHILE CROSSING THE PLAINS.

Ye blooming flowers so bright and wild,
Ye mind me of my childhood hours,
Where oft I've rambled when a child,
And plucked from glen and wood the flowers

Fair lovely flowers, ye bloom unseen,
Far o'er the broad and pathless plain;
Thy tints would well compare I ween,
With flowers on princely wide domain.

Bloom on wild flower, in thy fairy dell,
The butterfly thy sweets do sip;
The gossamer weaves round thee his cell;
And sucks the honey from thy lip.

Smile on bright flower nor cease to bloom;
Till wintry blasts have laid thee low,
Nor cease to shed thy sweet perfume,
On the wild zephyr as they blow.

Bloom smiling Goddess of the plain,
And glad the wanderers eye;
The warbler sings to thee his strain,
The stars gaze on thee from the sky.

Fair flower still show thy heavenly light,
Thou type of blissful joys above;
Thou makest the desert fair and bright,
Emblem of heavens unceasing love.

Upon my grave let wild flowers bloom,
And smiling burst their budding flowers;
T'will light with cheerfulness the tomb,
And cheer our latest earthly hours.
