

U.S. SOLDIER NEARLY KILLED

J. S. Ramsey, Attached to the Recruiting Station Gets Worst of Fight Over a Woman.

HAS BRAWL WITH MOTORMAN.

Met in a Hallway When Free-for-All Fight Began—Morgan Arrested on Open Charge.

J. S. Ramsey, a soldier attached to the United States army recruiting station, was nearly killed in a fight over a woman last night. The other man in the case is Walter Morgan, a street car motorman, and the woman is known as Esther Peterson. The fight occurred in the hallway of 59 east Second South street. Both men were infuriated with the girl and when Ramsey called last evening and found Morgan with the girl, he went out and returned. Morgan had a friend, Gus Hutchinson, with him and when Ramsey returned, the fight began. Ramsey was beaten over the head with his own gun; the other participants say he fell down during the melee. At any rate he sustained probably fractures of the skull.

MORGAN HELD ON OPEN CHARGE.

Ramsey was sent to the Fort hospital while Morgan was arrested and locked up with the charge against him. Until Ramsey's condition becomes certain.

DEATH OF JAMES G. MAIR.

Well Known Salt Lake Business Man Passes to His Rest.

James Gordon Mair passed away at his mother's home last night at 11:30 o'clock, after three weeks' illness of typhoid fever. Mr. Mair has been prominent in the commercial field of Salt Lake City, having been an employee of Walker Bros. Dry Goods company up to the time he was taken ill. Just before being stricken down with the dread disease he returned home from New York city, where he had been to purchase silks and lace and dress goods for the departments of which he was the head. In these lines of goods he was one of the best experts in this part of the country. He was an exceedingly sympathetic, kind hearted man, and there are many that will mourn his death. He was born July 11, 1863, in Salt Lake City, and is the son of the late James and Mary Mair. The funeral services will be held at the residence, 505 Fourth East street, at 2 o'clock Sunday. Friends are invited.

DIXIE TO THE FRONT.

Some Excellent Samples of Grapes From the Experiment Station.

Judging from samples of grapes that have been received in this city from the southern experiment station at St. George, the vineyards of Dixie under scientific culture are destined in a measure to displace with irrigation. A box of grapes received by the Deseret News through the courtesy of Joseph T. Atkin, foreman of the experiment station, contained samples of seedless and other varieties which despite their long overland journey and subsequent jolting in a baggage car, appealed to the palate. The fruit compared more than favorably with the best imported samples from California. Accompanying the consignment was a letter from Mr. Atkin wherein he states, "we can produce any quantity of such grapes in this Dixie land of Utah."

TRANSYLVANIA STAKES.

They Go to Sonoma Girl in Great Kentucky Meet.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 11.—Sonoma Girl, the favorite, today won the famous Transylvania stake and clinched the championship for aged trotters for 1907. Sonoma Girl had little trouble in defeating her field and at no time was she in doubt. Margaret O. choice in the betting, was distanced in the third heat. Sonoma Girl took the lead in the first heat and led at every quarter, holding Wilkes Heart, the contending horse, safely. In the second and third heats the race was trotted exactly like the first heat, Sonoma Girl always in the lead, coming home in a jog. In the third heat, however, the result might have been different had not Jack Lyburn been caught in a snafu at the head of the home stretch, and it was impossible for Driver Geers to get him through. Sonoma Girl trotted the third heat in 2:03.4, equalling her record made early in the season. The racing division Kentucky Futurity went to Shakespeare, in straight heats.

The question of dollars and cents is very important when buying Shoes—Quality—Style, and comfort, are fully as important, you get all these in "Money Back" Shoes or your "Money Back"

DAVIS SHOE CO.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

Made from GRAPES

Start right! To younger housekeepers, to beginners in the art of bread and cake making, no agency can render so much aid, no assistant will prove so helpful as Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. Do not make the mistake of experimenting with others.

MAUDE FEALY,
Who Appears at the Salt Lake Theater, the Last Half of Next Week in "The Stronger Sex."

AMUSEMENTS.

Lyrics—The new bill which goes on this afternoon will be headed by Mr. and Mrs. John T. Powers, in their playlet entitled, "The Playhouse." Hall and Robinson will render their new European musical act, McLean Brothers triple horizontal bar performers will appear and John Walsh, "The Man With the Knife," will give some funny impersonations. Mable Moser, nimble dancer, sometimes called "The Candy Kid," is bound to make a hit.

Next week the Lyric International Comedy Stock company will open up with a farce entitled, "The Wrong Doctor," which will introduce a number of musical features in addition to portraying the comedy. James Lee, who has produced this line of amusement at the Los Angeles house arrived here yesterday and will begin rehearsals at once.

ATTENTION!

Beware of rank imitation. Butter-Nut Bread. Look for our blue label on every loaf. It is NOT genuine without it.

SUPERIOR BAKING C.

WALL PAPER SALE at Ebert's all week 57 Main St.

CAMBRIANS MEET.

Sons of Wales Hold Enthusiastic Gathering in Seventeenth Ward Hall.

The Sons of Wales and friends met last evening in the seventeenth ward amusement hall, and the gathering was a very enthusiastic one. As President W. H. Pollard could not be present during the evening, Vice President D. B. Roberts presided over the meeting. An entertaining program was carried out, as follows:

Song, "Hail Wales" by Rhys Dafydd
Opening address, President William H. Pollard
Welsh recital, "Oh, My Father," by Rhys Dafydd
Welsh dialect song, "Cwm Llyw," by Rhys Dafydd
Mrs. Lizzie Thomas Edward
Bartons solo, "John James" by Rhys Dafydd
Photo solo, "Sammy Williams" by Rhys Dafydd
Welsh folk song, "Cwm Llyw," by Rhys Dafydd
Solo, "The Welshman," by Rhys Dafydd
Address, "Story of the Welshman," by Rhys Dafydd
Bass solo, "Benedictus Asaph," by Rhys Dafydd
Trio, "Hells of Aberdare," by Rhys Dafydd
A Trip Through Wales, by Rhys Dafydd
The entertainment was brought to a close by the rendition of "Aurora" by the audience.

AT THE ORPHEUM.
One of the Missetts Who Appear Next Week.

STRANGE DISAPPEARANCE.

Ernest Williams, Commercial Man, Has Not Been Seen for a Month.

Friends of Ernest Williams, a drummer for the Battell-Whitfield shoe company, are much concerned over his disappearance from his usual haunts for a month past. He left the city, presumably on a business trip to Idaho, and since that time not even his wife has heard a word from him.

Williams occupied rooms 23-25 Commercial club building, and when he went away, left his affairs in the hands of H. C. Edmunds, who has been in his employ four years. Mr. Edmunds does not know the cause of his employer's strange actions, and states that everything, so far as he is aware, is straight in Williams' business affairs.

The missing man is about 45 years of age, and has a wife and family living at 10 Q street, this city. As stated, Mrs. Williams has heard nothing from her husband since he went away, Sept. 6, and is very much concerned over the fact that he has not communicated with her.

If you wish to be comfortable and successful use common sense about food. $1,000,000 can't buy good health, but the proper kind and quantity of food insures a good stomach—clear brain and steady, dependable nerves.

Grape-Nuts helps successful people "get there." "There's a Reason." "The Road to Wellville." In pkg. is worth reading.

BRIDAL COUPLE LANDS IN JAIL

Charles E. Showers Married His Niece and Arrest Soon Follows.

GIRL'S PARENTS COMPLAIN.

Appear Before County Attorney and Charge Man With Misleading Their Daughter—Requisition Issued.

Ending their honeymoon in the custody of an officer of the law, Charles E. Showers and his wife, who was Minnie A. Cornell of Battle Creek, Michigan, until Sept. 23, the date of their marriage, will be returned to this city from Idaho Falls tonight, or probably Sunday night. They will then be taken to the county jail in this city, and Showers will no doubt be lodged behind the bars. This particularly unfortunate termination of a happy love match comes because it is charged by the girl's parents that Showers is her uncle as well as her husband.

The story begins with the coming of the girl to this city. With her parents she came here from Battle Creek, Mich., in August. She was suffering severely with hay fever and the trip west was made for her relief. After a week's stay with their daughter, who is 21 years of age, Mr. and Mrs. Cornell left the city. Now they are back again as the complaining witnesses for the state in the case against Showers.

SHOWERS USED PERSUASION.

During the absence of the girl's parents, Showers and the girl were married. It is said he convinced her that there was nothing wrong in the marriage. Showers came from San Francisco. He is 47 years of age, or twice the age of the girl and carry wife. After their marriage the girl wrote to her parents about it. When the bride learned that Mr. and Mrs. Cornell were coming west again, they departed to the northward. Ogden, other cities in the northern part of the state and finally Idaho Falls were searched for them and they were finally located in the last named place.

Upon a complaint sworn to by the girl's parents, Deputy Sheriff Ike Emery, armed with a warrant, has gone to Idaho to bring the couple of multiplied relationships back to this city to face trial.

Acting Governor C. S. Tingey issued requisition papers yesterday.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Young announce the engagement of their daughter Claire to Joseph M. Howell, the marriage to take place on the 23rd of the present month.

Mrs. Fannie M. Taylor announces the engagement of her daughter Anna L. to Fred Matthews, Jr., the wedding to take place early in November.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Spencer will give a musicale tonight at their home for the principals of the "Rialto" company in honor of Miss Hazel Taylor, who leaves shortly for New York to study music.

Miss Clara Colbourne entertains at a dinner tonight at Rowland hall for the four graduates of 1907.

Mrs. T. B. Beatty has returned from her eastern trip.

Mrs. H. V. Pease entertained at a luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. Lee Jones and a card contest followed, the prizes being won by Mrs. Hazel Hines, Mrs. Smeltzer and Miss Jenkins.

Tonight the university students give a large dancing party in the gymnasium in honor of the Denver visitors and the affair promises to be a delightful one.

The prizes at the card party given by Mrs. W. W. Rivers yesterday were won by Mrs. Ernest Drake, Mrs. W. R. Wallace and Mrs. T. B. Black, and a special prize was given to the guest of honor, Mrs. Robert Murray.

The Ladies' Literary club has chosen Mrs. Florence Woodruff delegate and Mrs. George Moser alternate to the state federation meeting to be held in Ogden, Oct. 30 and 31.

Mrs. H. J. Woolcott and Mrs. Hooper are here from Los Angeles visiting friends.

Mrs. R. R. Bittler was hostess at a luncheon at the Alt club today in honor of Miss L. Compton of Park City.

Miss Irma Elberhardt entertained today at a Reunion in honor of her cousin who is her guest.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Snyder entertained at dinner last night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Rutan of Chicago.

Mr. Louis Seckles returned on Thursday from Peru where he has spent the past two years.

Mrs. N. J. Shockley gave a dinner last night for her daughter Nora, the decorations being in autumn leaves and about a half dozen present.

GASOLINE FAMINE SERIOUS.

An Hour's Scouring Secures Fluid to Convey Money to Garfield.

The gasoline famine in this city has reached a serious stage. Naturally the chief sufferers from the dearth of the naphtha fluid are the owners and users of automobiles, but there are others who depend largely upon the product for both light and fuel, and every consumer is equally discommoded by the present short supply.

The extent which the gasoline famine reached in town was well illustrated Thursday, when urgent need arose for transportation of a large sum of money to McCormick & Co's bank at Garfield. It was a day among the hundreds of employees of the smelting company there and it happened that the money sent out to the bank missed the noon train. It became necessary to send it out by an automobile and it took an hour's scouring to find an auto supplied with gasoline. Every garage in town was out of the precious fluid, and private machines that happened to be supplied had to be pressed into service. With this the run was made and the money arrived on time.

WALL PAPER SALE

at Ebert's all week 57 Main St.

A delicious luncheon with prompt service at all hours at the Royal Cafe. A good place to eat.

For bargains in real estate see Haber J. Grant & Company's list in tonight's "News."

LONE MAN HOLDS UP WILSON BAR

Road Agent Boldly Enters Saloon and Robs Cash Register in Front of Eight Men.

ALL HELD UP THEIR HANDS.

In His Haste to Get Out Bandit Stumbles Over Two Scrub-Women—Disappears Through Plum Alley.

Probably one of the boldest robberies in the long list of the past two weeks was perpetrated at 3:10 o'clock this morning. A lone bandit walked into the Wilson bar, a portion of one of Salt Lake's biggest hotels located in the heart of the city and shouting the usual, "Hold up your hands!" took the contents of the cash register in eight of eight or ten men. He then slipped out and in sight of a score of people ran across Second South street and disappeared in Plum alley.

The fellow had a handkerchief on the lower portion of his face, and as he entered the room suddenly, he pointed two revolvers at the bartender and the men standing in front of the bar. Everybody obeyed the command. The man then stepped behind the bar and with one gun on the crowd opened the register and scraped the money inside—$8 up with one hand. Upon getting from behind the bar the robber made a dash through the door leading into the hotel office and in running for the hotel's Second South entrance, stumbled over a couple of scrub-women at work upon the lobby floors.

ROBBER GETS AWAY.

A gentleman saw him and started in pursuit, joined by those who had been in the bar. The robber shot a couple of times at his pursuers and before the chase could be reorganized, he had dashed into Plum alley and climbing over a high board fence dropped out of sight. The man would be recognized if arrested, as the bar patron had plenty of time to study him despite the mask he wore.

RETURNS TO MEXICO.

Joseph H. Parry, Jr., who came up from Mexico the first of the week for a short business visit, will leave this evening over the San Pedro route on his way to Tampico, Mexico, where, on Oct. 1, he will take charge as superintendent of the Montezuma Banana and Fruit company. At El Paso, Tex., he will be joined by his wife and they will sojourn together in the land of Mayanans for some time. The company has an extensive plantation of over 1,400 acres on the Tampico river, and much of the land is ready for planting, which will be done under Mr. Parry's direction.

FILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.

PERMANENT CURE is guaranteed to cure any case of itching, blind, bleeding or protruding files in 6 to 14 days or money refunded, 30c.

WALL PAPER SALE

at Ebert's all week 57 Main St.

BIG FIRE IN SAN JOSE.

San Jose, Cal., Oct. 12.—The Arcade store, in South First street, was burned last night and the entire stock, valued at $135,000, was destroyed, as also was the building, valued at $35,000 and other losses brought the grand total up to $200,000. The fire started in a small shop at the rear of the building at 10 o'clock. For a time, the Grand City bank and the entire central business portion of the city were threatened. Two firemen were seriously injured.

SALT LAKE THEATRE.

GEORGE D. PYPER, Manager.

TONIGHT!

Last Chance To See

The Alaskan!

LYRIC THEATRE

Direction: Sullivan & Considine

Hert C. Bonnell, Mgr. and Treas.

"INTERNATIONAL VAUDEVILLE" ALL WEEK.

Harland & Robinson.

Mr. & Mrs. John T. Powers.

John Walsh, Mabel Meeker.

McLean Bros., Homer Long.

Moving Pictures.

Evenings, two shows, 7:30 and 9:15; matinees except Sunday.

AUDITORIUM

RICHARDS ST. ROLLER RINK.

Now open, new floor, new skates.

wooden floor, new skates, presenting the appearance of a brand new building.

OPEN MORNING, 10 to 12, for business.

EVENINGS, 7:30 to 9:30, ladies admitted free.

General admission 15 cents.

We reserve the right to refuse admission to any whomsoever.

STOP KOFFING

We carry everything known that will stop a cough, medicated candy lozenges, tablets, syrups, etc. Our Blue Ribbon remedy has no equal. The old idea that mustard foot bath with Rock Rye in liberal doses sounds good to many. A chest protector will assist by keeping the keen winds off the lungs. Our remedies cure both the old and young. Both phones 457. Remember the number, 44 Main St.

ANSTEE-PRICE DRUG CO

CATARRHAL ASTHMA

Very Common in October. A Case in Which Per-na was Used With Gratifying Success.

Mrs. Samuel Shipman, East Delaware, O.

"We Have Used Per-na in Our Home for Years. My Aged Father Used it for Asthma and I Took it for Catarrh. I Can Recommend it Highly to all for These Diseases."

—Mrs. Samuel Shipman.

Asthma in Worst Form.

Mrs. W. M. Harp, Ridge Ave., Tro, Ohio, writes:

"I am going to write to let you know what Per-na has done for me and ah to let others know."

"I was subject to asthma in its worst form some four years ago. The least cold I took would make me sick and would cough and almost smother."

"My mother insisted that I should take Per-na, so I took it with me candy added."

"When I began taking Per-na I was so run down I only weighed 128 pounds but in one year's time I gained five until I weighed 153 pounds."

"Now, when I or any of my little ones need a tonic, we always take Per-na and it never fails to do all I wish it to."

"I have often wanted to write you word of praise for Per-na, but have never taken the time before. I hope I Hartman may prosper and live long."

Per-na in Tablet Form.

For two years Dr. Hartman and his assistants have incessantly labored to create Per-na in tablet form, and the strenuous labors have just been crowned with success. People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Per-na tablets, which represent the solid medicinal ingredients of Per-na. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Per-na.

There is a form of asthma very prevalent during the autumn months. It sometimes comes on much like hay fever, but lasts until the first frost. This form of asthma is likely not to trouble the patient except in the autumn months.

It seems to be dependent upon a catarrhal condition of the bronchial tubes and lungs.

This catarrhal condition renders the bronchial tubes very susceptible to irritations. Inhalations of pollen, or dust of any sort, are almost sure to produce a spasmodic condition of the smaller bronchial tubes, which causes difficult breathing exactly like asthma.

A person with perfectly sound, healthy mucous membranes of the respiratory organs is not liable to such an attack. Only those people who have catarrhal irritation of the mucous membranes have any reason to fear this form of asthma.

People subject to asthma in the fall should recognize the cause of their difficulty to be catarrh.

Any remedy that will relieve the catarrhal condition will often avert the paroxysm of asthma.

Quite a number of individuals have taken Per-na for this condition, and have found by experience that Per-na does prevent the recurrence of asthma.

We do not recommend Per-na as a remedy for true asthma. Per-na creates only those cases dependent upon catarrh, as above described.

Per-na is a remedy for one disease only, and that disease is catarrh. But, as is well known to the up-to-date physician, catarrh is capable of producing a variety of derangements, and this explains why it is Per-na has come to be used for so many seemingly different ills.

Any remedy that relieves catarrh will necessarily relieve all of the bodily derangements set up by catarrh.

For two years Dr. Hartman and his assistants have incessantly labored to create Per-na in tablet form, and the strenuous labors have just been crowned with success. People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Per-na tablets, which represent the solid medicinal ingredients of Per-na. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Per-na.

There is a form of asthma very prevalent during the autumn months. It sometimes comes on much like hay fever, but lasts until the first frost. This form of asthma is likely not to trouble the patient except in the autumn months.

It seems to be dependent upon a catarrhal condition of the bronchial tubes and lungs.

This catarrhal condition renders the bronchial tubes very susceptible to irritations. Inhalations of pollen, or dust of any sort, are almost sure to produce a spasmodic condition of the smaller bronchial tubes, which causes difficult breathing exactly like asthma.

A person with perfectly sound, healthy mucous membranes of the respiratory organs is not liable to such an attack. Only those people who have catarrhal irritation of the mucous membranes have any reason to fear this form of asthma.

People subject to asthma in the fall should recognize the cause of their difficulty to be catarrh.

Any remedy that will relieve the catarrhal condition will often avert the paroxysm of asthma.

Quite a number of individuals have taken Per-na for this condition, and have found by experience that Per-na does prevent the recurrence of asthma.

We do not recommend Per-na as a remedy for true asthma. Per-na creates only those cases dependent upon catarrh, as above described.

Per-na is a remedy for one disease only, and that disease is catarrh. But, as is well known to the up-to-date physician, catarrh is capable of producing a variety of derangements, and this explains why it is Per-na has come to be used for so many seemingly different ills.

Any remedy that relieves catarrh will necessarily relieve all of the bodily derangements set up by catarrh.

For two years Dr. Hartman and his assistants have incessantly labored to create Per-na in tablet form, and the strenuous labors have just been crowned with success. People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Per-na tablets, which represent the solid medicinal ingredients of Per-na. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Per-na.

There is a form of asthma very prevalent during the autumn months. It sometimes comes on much like hay fever, but lasts until the first frost. This form of asthma is likely not to trouble the patient except in the autumn months.

It seems to be dependent upon a catarrhal condition of the bronchial tubes and lungs.

This catarrhal condition renders the bronchial tubes very susceptible to irritations. Inhalations of pollen, or dust of any sort, are almost sure to produce a spasmodic condition of the smaller bronchial tubes, which causes difficult breathing exactly like asthma.

A person with perfectly sound, healthy mucous membranes of the respiratory organs is not liable to such an attack. Only those people who have catarrhal irritation of the mucous membranes have any reason to fear this form of asthma.

People subject to asthma in the fall should recognize the cause of their difficulty to be catarrh.

Any remedy that will relieve the catarrhal condition will often avert the paroxysm of asthma.

Quite a number of individuals have taken Per-na for this condition, and have found by experience that Per-na does prevent the recurrence of asthma.

We do not recommend Per-na as a remedy for true asthma. Per-na creates only those cases dependent upon catarrh, as above described.

Per-na is a remedy for one disease only, and that disease is catarrh. But, as is well known to the up-to-date physician, catarrh is capable of producing a variety of derangements, and this explains why it is Per-na has come to be used for so many seemingly different ills.

Any remedy that relieves catarrh will necessarily relieve all of the bodily derangements set up by catarrh.

For two years Dr. Hartman and his assistants have incessantly labored to create Per-na in tablet form, and the strenuous labors have just been crowned with success. People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Per-na tablets, which represent the solid medicinal ingredients of Per-na. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Per-na.

There is a form of asthma very prevalent during the autumn months. It sometimes comes on much like hay fever, but lasts until the first frost. This form of asthma is likely not to trouble the patient except in the autumn months.

It seems to be dependent upon a catarrhal condition of the bronchial tubes and lungs.

This catarrhal condition renders the bronchial tubes very susceptible to irritations. Inhalations of pollen, or dust of any sort, are almost sure to produce a spasmodic condition of the smaller bronchial tubes, which causes difficult breathing exactly like asthma.

A person with perfectly sound, healthy mucous membranes of the respiratory organs is not liable to such an attack. Only those people who have catarrhal irritation of the mucous membranes have any reason to fear this form of asthma.