The three members of the State board of equalization, who met with the Cache county officials yesterday, returned south last evening. During their ses-sion here these officials recommended that assessments upon agricultural machinery and general merchandise be increased; that sheep be valued at $2.50 per head instead of $2 as heretofore;

that range cattle be assessed 'at $15 per head and dairy cows at $20. The visitors were entertained at dinner by the county commissioners.

MILL CREEK.

Funeral Services Over the Remains of Little Albert E. Miller.

Special Correspondence. Mill Creek, Salt Lake Co., Jan. 15 .-

The funeral over the remains of Albert E. Miller, son of James and Mary Miller, was held at their home in Mill Creek,

Sunday, Jan. 14. The services were con-ducted by Bishop James C. Hamilton, After singing, O My Father, the prayer was offered by Elder George Taylor. Elder John Cook was the first speaker, ARRIVES and offered words of sympathy to the bereaved. Apostle John Henry Smith then occupied some time in a very interesting discourse upon the vicarious work that may be done for the dead. There was a large attendance of sym-pathizing friends, and the floral tributes were elaborate and beautiful.

RICHFIELD.

Sixth District Court - Irrigation Suit Decided-Gambling and Other Cares.

Special Correspondence. Richfield, Sevier Co., Jan. 15.-The regular January term of the Sixth dis-trict court for Sevier county, opened here today with Hon. W. M. McCarty as judge upon the bench. Owing to the smallpox scare that was on here a month ago, the venire for petit jurymen was not made returnable until the 22nd inst. so the heavy court work will not begin until that date.

The following matters were disposed of today: Christian Madsen, of Salina, and Christian M. Petersen, of Richfield. were arraigned, the former on the charge of assault with intent to comture. The costs were divided equally between the parties. In City Justice Christensen's court today, things were lively. Joseph E. Charles, of Logan, who was arrested at Monroe last Saturday for practicing dentistry without a license or certificate of registration from the State dental board, entered a plea of not guilty and deposited $100 to insure his appearance for trial on the 29th inst. GAMBLING CASES. Dr. C. R. Snowden, who was placed under arrest today on a charge of gambling on the 3rd inst. appeared before his honor, and the complaint being read him he took until Wednesday to plead. His bond was placed at $100 H. E. Taylor, a saloon man of this place, was brought before his honor on the charge of permitting gambling in his house. He took the statutory time in which to plead. His bond was fixed

Old People Made Young.

J. C. Sherman, the veteran editor of the Vermontville (Mich.) Echo, has dis. covered the remarkable secret of keeping old people young. For years he has avoided Nervousness, Sleeplessness, In-digestion, Heart Trouble, Constipation and Rheumatism, by using Electric Bitters, and he writes: "It can't be praised too highly. It gently stimulates the kidneys, tones the stomach, aids di-gestion, and gives a splendid appetite. It has worked wonders for my wife and me. It's a marvellous remedy for old people's complaints." Only 50c at Z. C. M. I. Drug Department. ELSINORE.

Elsinore Farmers Will Grow 150 Acres of Sugar Beets.

Special Correspondence: Elsinore, Sevier Co., Jan. 14.-We are pleased to note that Mrs. Ann Herman-

HYRUM.

Installing Electric Light and Power - Coop Store Elects Directors.

Special Correspondence. Hyrum, Cache Co., Jan. 16.-The Electric Light and Power company have moved their plant into their new building in Blacksmith Fork canyon. The power house, flume, penstock, and head gate are built of immense timbers, fifty thousand feet of lumber have been used in their construction. A new can-al has also been constructed into the river so that a dam is unnecessary, as the dam is lower than the stream. A new and larger turbine wheel has been put in so that any amount of power can be obtained. The new line of mas-sive poies on which the wire is being stretched to the town are being put in place, so that in a few days our beautiful little city will have light which will be permanent. The old mill in Paradise Hollow has been very unsatisfactory, owing to the small stream being frozen in hard winter weather. During the coming summer a new dyn-During the coming summer a new dyn-amo of increased power will be put in so that our neighbors in Wellsville, Millville and Paradise can have all the permanent light and power they may need. DISTRICT COURT.

Court is in session. The following business was transacted yesterday: the case of Niels Christensen vs Ruby Christensen, and Furgus Christensen et al, M. F. Murray, Rasmus Hansen, and Peter Thompson were appointed referees. The referees were authorized to sell the premises described in plaintiff's complaint.

Anna M. J. Alder was granted a divorce from John Alder on the grounds of desertion. The plaintiff was awarded the custody of the minor children, and the court ordered that the family's property be divided as per agreement of the parties interested.

BLUFF.

Old Folks Banqueted - Co-op Store Declares a Dividend of 15 Per Cent,

Special Correspondence. Bluff, San Juan Co., Jan. 8.-The clti-zens of Bluff have had a very pleasant and enjoyable time through the holi-days, quite a number of our sheep and cattle owners came in from the to spend their Christmas with their families and five missionaries from Colorado were with us enjoying them-selves in the festivities and visiting with the Saints.

OLD FOLKS BANQUETED.

On the 30th of December the old folks were given a grand banquet and social. At 4 o'clock they sat down to a well prepared feast at the house of Kuman Jones where forty people partook of a sumptuous dinner. At 6 o'clock all repaired to the large hall in the Co-op building where the old and the young enjoyed themselves in dancing, singing and speechmaking till midnight. Four of the oldest who live at Bluff are Bishop Jens Nielsen, age 79, born in Denmark, came to Utah in 1856; Wm. Adams, age 78, born in Ireland, came to Nauvoo in the spring of 1844, and Utah in 1849; Aunty Allan, age 78, and husband John Allan, age 77, came to Utah in the fiftles, born in Scotland. ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The San Juan Co-operative Company held their annual meeting on the 27th of December when a dividend of 15 per cent was declared, and a board of di-rectors was voted in for the present year, viz, Jens Nielsen, president: Wm. Adams, vice president: Peter Allan, secretary and treasurer; L. H. Redd, James B. Decker, Kuman Jones, Hyrum Perkins and Hanson Bayles, directors. HUNTINGTON.

A Prosperous Year - Local Enterprises Flourishing and Pay Big Dividends.

Special Correspondence, Huntington, Emery Co., Jan. 15 .- The farmers of this valley had a fairly pros-perous year in 1899. All the crops vere of a good average, except hay; and as a consequence the price of that arti-cle is higher than it has been for some years. This winter so far has been very mild with very little snow in the valley. We sometimes think that Emery county is not in the State, as we very often see it recorded in the newspapers that a certain rain or snow storm was general all over the State, but as a rule, they fall to reach Castle valley

The health of the people here in Huntington never was better, and although we have had smallbox on the south of us, and scarlet fever, and reported diphtheria on the north, through the blessings of the Lord we have escaped

FILLMORE.

Mrs. G. R. Huntsman Seriously Ill-Streets Almost Impassable.

Special Correspondence.

Fillmore, Millard Co., Jan. 16 .- Mrs. G. R. Huntsman has contracted a case of pneumonia, due, no doubt, to the damp, rainy weather that has prevailed here during the last week. many friends are keeping anxious watch by her bedside and rendering all assistance possible to alleviate her suffering.

The speakers at the Sunday service were Orange Warner, John Peterson, James A. Kelly and Harvey Melville. Elder Warner is a resident of Benjamin, Utah county, and is spending a few weeks here visiting his relatives and many friends.

The mud on our streets and side-walks makes traveling very laborious, both for pedestrians and teams; it is expected that our new city council will adopt some vigorous and aggressive measure to improve the same. PAROWAN.

Pioneer Banquet and Ball - A Memorable Event-Enterprise of City Fathers.

Special Correspondence.

Parowan, Iron Co., Jan. 15 .- We are pleased to record the celebration of the anniversary of the arrival of the first settlers of Parowan, which occurred Jan. 13, 1851. Saturday, Jan. 13, the committee for the occasion showed themselves guite capable to make the day one of memorable enjoyment. At 2 p. m. the program commenced, the most notable numbers were speeches by the pioneers present, and a paper written and read by E. Crane Watson which is indeed very valuable for the incidents and dates it contains of the first movements of that band of pil-grims under the leadership of Apostle George A. Smith. This was followed by dancing which opened with a pioneer march, which was very pleasing and enjoyable. An excellent supper was also given the veterans. During the excellent bull in the evening Sister Mary A. Wimmer was introduced as a daughter of the great leader, George A. Smith, she responded with a very ap propriate address,
