PROTECT PROPRIETARY MEDICINES.

Did ever occur to you that proprietary medicines are a blessing to mankind generally? The good ones have long continued to do so, the poor ones have short life and soon leave the market.

If we had to depend entirely upon physicians and druggists it would be expensive and very inconvenient at times, especially in the country and at night when neither could be conveniently reached. For nearly forty years Boschee's German Syrup has been used in many families and thousands of lives of adults and children have been saved by its use, when it was impossible to reach a physician. German Syrup is the best household remedy for cough, colds, throat and lung trouble. It quickly relieves the hacking cough, loosens the phlegm, and brings sound and refreshing sleep. Twenty-five and seventy-five cents. Get a copy of Green's Prize Almanac. At all druggists.

SUNSHINE AND CANCER.

Dr. Hirschberg, one of the most prominent surgeons of Frankfurt, Germany, in the "Clinical Weekly," of Berlin, reports a very interesting case of the curative powers of the sun-rays in cancer of the skin, which is all the more interesting as the patient was Dr. Hirschberg himself. Last winter this physician suffered from skin cancer of the exterior part of the ear, for which he was going to submit to an operation. Before doing so he made a short trip to Caux les Territet, on Lake Geneva. The weather being so fine, he took walks in the sun for several hours each day. After eight days the doctor noticed to his surprise that the margin of the cancer had scaled off slowly and left a smooth surface. He at once attributed it to the effects of the sun-rays, and used them systematically. For several hours daily he exposed his ear to the rays of the sun, and after a few weeks the whole swelling had disappeared and left a healthy skin.

In explaining the effects of the treatment, Dr. Hirschberg says that the normal skin is browned by the sun, as the epithelial cells under its influence absorb coloring matter from the blood. This brownening serves as a protection against the burning effects of the sun. The cancer cells, which do not possess the quality of absorbing hard blood substance, die off as the sun destroys them. The winter in the uplands is, in his opinion, a very important curative factor. The intensity of the sun-rays increases with the altitude, the percentage of vapor decreases, and the air in such altitudes (Caux lies about 3,600 feet above the sea level) is free from germs, and exposure to the sun may

A FACTORY RUN BY A LOCOMOTIVE.

The factory run by means of power supplied by a railroad locomotive, as illustrated herewith, is at Baldwinville, Mass. It was necessary to install a new battery of boilers, and, being the busy season for boxmaking, it became a problem how the factory should be kept running while the change was taking place. Finally an engine was hired from a railroad company and sidetracked close to the box factory. The boiler of the locomotive was connected with the engine in the factory by means of a pipe and the work went on as usual until the new boilers were ready for business.

SCROFULA AN AWFUL INHERITANCE

While it is true that Scrofula may be acquired under certain conditions, it is usually inherited. Parents who are related by the ties of blood, or who have a consumptive tendency, or family blood taint of any character, are sure to transmit it to their children in the form of Scrofula. Swollen glands, brittle bones, poor digestion, weak eyes, Catarrh, emaciated bodies and general weak constitutions are the principal ways in which the disease is manifested. The blood has been diseased from birth, and being in this condition cannot properly nourish the body and Scrofula is the result. A hereditary disease like this can only be reached by a constitutional remedy and nothing equals S. S. S. as a cure for it. It cleanses and strengthens the deteriorated blood, drives out all scrofulous and tubercular deposits, and there is a gradual but sure return to health. S. S. S. supplies to the anemic, lifeless blood the properties necessary to build back to strong, robust health, and does this gently and so thoroughly that no signs of the disease are ever seen in after life. Being purely vegetable S. S. S. is the best remedy for Scrofula; its harmless but healing ingredients enter into the circulation and replace wax-like, bloodless faces with vigorous strength glowing with health. Book with information about Scrofula and medical advice free.

be made for many hours in the winter. Such exposure could not be permitted in summer on account of sunburns. Sunbaths in the high mountains are, therefore, of great curative power, and he hopes that in the future more attention will be paid to them. That the rays of the sun can be of direct curative benefit has been shown through experiments at Allana, where in some cases it was possible to gain relief in tuberculosis of the larynx, and even to cure it by direct application of the sun-rays.

AN EIGHTEENTH CENTURY AUTOMOBILE.

The curious automobile shown in the cut is in the Museum of Arts and Industries in Paris. It was invented in 1770 by Cugnot, an eminent French military engineer. It was in actual use for some time on the French highways and was a great success in its way. This relic may be regarded as the ancestor of the present day motor car, which has also reached its highest development in France.
