

REPORT OF THE IMMIGRATION.

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 16th, 1862.

EDITOR DESERET NEWS:

DEAR SIR:—Presuming your readers may be desirous of hearing from their friends on the plains, I take the liberty of sending you this brief report:

I left Florence on the 11th of August, in company with Elders Lyman and Richd. Hon. W. H. Hooper, H. S. Eldredge, and several other brethren. At Wood river (two hundred miles out) we left Capt. Dame's freight train, in which there are about one hundred and twenty-five passengers. Sixty-five miles this side we passed Capt. Haight's church train.

At Pawnee Swamps we passed Capt. Miller's train, two hundred and eighty miles out.

Ten miles east of North Bluff Fork, we passed Mr. D. Kimball with about twenty-five wagons, and near him was a camp of seven wagons, which we advised to fall in with him for safety.

Near Ash Hollow we passed Mr. Godbe's freight train. The same day passed Capt. Canfield's company. At Scott's Bluffs we passed Capt. Harman's train.

Capt. James S. Brown, with a train of from forty to fifty wagons, had gone the north side of the Platte, through the Black Hills, in consequence of which we did not see them.

We passed Capt. Hoen's company at Platte Bridge, and Capt. Murdock's train at Rocky Ridge, on Smoky's Cut-off.

We passed Capt. Duncan's train at Little Sandy; Kimball & Lawrence's freight train at Green river, and the two Danish independent companies on Ham's Fork. These trains had traveled together to that place, under the direction of Elder John Van Cott, but were separated, and will arrive in two divisions under Captains Madsen and Liljquist, Elder Van Cott coming in with us.

These companies were all making remarkably good time, and their teams looked well. The people were generally in excellent health and spirits. In fact, I can say I never saw an emigration in such good traveling condition. The feed is the best on the plains that has ever been since we came to these mountains.

The Danes will arrive about the 22d inst., and from that day there will be but very few intervals between trains until all reach this valley.

I herewith furnish you lists of all our organized companies except Capt. J. S. Brown's, which I failed to get, but hope to have it for your next issue. There are a great number of persons of whom we have no report; they having fallen in with the trains after they left Florence, without being organized with any particular company.

With good wishes to yourself, the boys in the office, and all Saints, I remain your brother in the gospel,

Jos. W. YOUNG.
