Ogden, Utah, Jan. 5 .- Elijah Larkin, former resident of Ogden, where he remembered in very high esteem, and where he has three generations of descendants living; succumbed to a sudden illness yesterday morning at Ophir, in Tooele county. Mr. Larkin resided a few miles from Ophir, and the day before Christmas drove over from his home to that of his daughter, Mrs. Bates, to spend the Christmas holidays. On the way over he was seized with illness, which increased so that he had to be carried from the buggy to the house when he arrived at his destination. When a physician arrived it was found that he was suf-fering from an attack of Bright's disease, and from that malady he never Provo, Utah Co., Jan. 5.-Mayor Roy-lance has returned from a trip to Oma-ha and other eastern cities. He reports having had a very pleasant and profitable visit. The principal object of his trip was to attend the conven-tion of the Western Fruit Jobbers' as-sociation in Omaha. Mayor Roylance reports the meetings, which lasted two days, were well attended by fruit shippers from the western and middle west. Many subjects of interest to shippers and jobbers were considered, the most important being, probably, the private car line question, which is considered detrimental to the interests of the fruit jobbers, for the reason that the owners of the private car companies are en-gaged in dealing in fruit and is there-fore in competition with its patrons in the freight business—the jobbers. in the freight business-the jobbers. Opposition to the private car lines was unanimous, and resolutions were adopt-ed favoring their abolishment, and a large fund subscribed to make the op-position effective.
