

GOTCH DEFEATS HACKENSCHMIDT

Russian Lion Quits in Wrestling Match With American Farmer.

NOW THE WORLD'S CHAMPION

Uncle Sam's Representative Slams the Big Foreigner to the Mat Several Times and Punishes Him.

Dexter Pavilion, Chicago, April 3.—George Hackenschmidt, in his match with Frank Gotch for the catch-as-catch-can wrestling championship of the world tonight, gave the title to the Iowa man by default. After more than two hours of unavailing tugging and desperate scrambling, the Russian said to Gotch:

"I give you the match."

Referee Ed Smith at once declared Gotch the winner.

The end came so unexpectedly that the great crowd of 8,000 which witnessed the contest could scarcely comprehend what had happened. Not until the referee had announced that Hackenschmidt had surrendered the championship of the world to Frank Gotch did the full significance of the event strike home. Then the excited men swarmed into the ring, surging about Gotch until the police came to his rescue and drove the crowd back through the ropes. The match was in some respects sensational, but it served mainly to show that Gotch has a defensive system which no one can break down.

GOTCH PUNISHES HACK.

For an hour and 45 minutes he eluded every attempt of the "Russian Lion" to fasten a grip on him. Gotch side-stepped, roused his man's features with knuckles, lifted him and generally worried Hackenschmidt, until the foreigner was totally at a loss how to proceed.

But when in the clinch that finally came Gotch slammed his opponent to the mat and came within an ace of securing a firm toe hold, following this up by lifting Hackenschmidt clear of the mat and slamming him on his shoulders with terrific force, the European exponent was heartbroken. The lines slowly deepened on his face, the hoars and gibes of the crowd hurt his feelings and after considering the matter for a few seconds he decided it was time to quit.

Few of the spectators but were willing to give Gotch the palm. The Iowa farmer was in the better condition, was quicker and trickier and showed a far better knowledge of the game.

Hackenschmidt refused to explain his action to W. W. Wittig, promoter of the bout, simply shaking his head and refusing to reply when asked why he had not surrendered merely the first fall and taken another chance with

RUN-DOWN CONDITION DUE TO OVERWORK

A Battle Creek Woman Describes Her Symptoms and Tells How Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured Her.

The symptoms described in the following case are so common today wherever overwork and worry have resulted in a decline in health that the means by which a cure was effected deserve the careful attention of every thoughtful man and woman. It is such conditions as are here described that are commonly neglected until the injury to the health is past repair. It is therefore the part of wisdom to take the remedy that cured Mrs. James Struvin, of 488 West Main street, Battle Creek, Mich., as soon as the first warning symptoms are noted. She says:

"For several months I was sick with anaemia and part of the time had to remain in bed. It was brought on by overwork which produced a run-down condition. My kidneys were weak and the secretions contained a sediment. My cheeks and lips were white, I had bad headaches, dizzy and fainting spells and would see black specks floating before my eyes. I would often have palpitation of the heart, could get no rest from sleep, was nervous, low-spirited and weak. My blood was watery and I didn't have strength enough to work."

"We employed a doctor for six months but without avail. Then I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in a paper and soon after began to take them. A few weeks later I had gained strength and plenty of blood and I have been well and strong ever since."

So general is the success of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in curing anaemia that it may be safely stated that they are the most certain remedy for all conditions of thin, weak and watery blood. They are also a tonic for the nerves and have cured indigestion and general debility, where the stomach and other organs of the body are weakened and disordered simply through lack of proper nourishment. They have also been especially successful in curing rheumatism and after-effects of the grip and of fevers.

A pamphlet on "Diseases of the Blood" and a copy of our diet book will be sent free on request. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

PRELIMINARY CONTESTS.

Gotch. His handlers were at a loss to account for Hackenschmidt's action.

Dexter pavilion was admirably adapted for the event. Seats had been provided for 10,000 spectators, and in addition there was general admission room for 2,000 more. The structure is 200 feet wide and 310 feet long, the arena in the center of which the ring was pitched being 240 feet long and 100 feet wide. Back of this and running around the building were seats which extended back in the big building. A battery of 12 arc lights and 50 vapor lamps illuminated the stage.

A band of 50 pieces played popular songs and marches and kept the waiting thousands in good humor. The first preliminary was scheduled for 8:20 o'clock, but it was 15 minutes late in starting. Tommy Rooney and Young Jenkins were the contestants, the weight being 118 pounds. Rooney won, Time, 3:45.

In the second preliminary Young Hillier downed Ernest Lindberg in 14:32. The men were 133 pounds.

Ted Tommenan and Dick Tomenson came together in the third at 145 pounds. Tomenson won with a toe hold, Time, 12:41.

"Americus," a Baltimore wrestler, made short work of Harry Laundensack of Chicago, winning in 1:59 with a bar-lock and croch hold.

William Demeterel won the fifth bout, defeating Mort Henderson in 8:10.

In the semi-windup Emil Stegemueller, Hackenschmidt's wrestling partner, attempted to throw Henry Ortman of Minneapolis in 19 minutes. To the delight of the crowd, Ortman took the offensive. He slammed the burly German to the mat and for seven minutes gave Stegemueller no chance to get a hold. The last three minutes Ortman was on the defensive, but managed to wriggle out of all holds and easily stopped the limit. He was roundly cheered.

TAFT TALKS ON RELIGIOUS QUESTION IN PHILIPPINES

Chicago, April 3.—Secy. Taft addressed members of the Interdenominational Social union, whose guest he was at a banquet and reception tonight, on the religious question in its application to affairs in the Philippines. An hour later he was whisked away to speak to members of the Hamilton club, who were engaged in their annual celebration of "Appomattox day."

His talk to the clubmen was of an informal character and was, for the most part, reminiscent of his administration in the island possessions. The two occasions were but the forerunners of a formidable series of luncheons, receptions and banquets which will occupy most of the waking hours of the city's guest until his departure for the west tomorrow night.

Mr. Taft was met by a committee representing the Chicago Commercial club as he approached Chicago this afternoon, at Washington Heights, a suburb 16 miles out on the Pennsylvania railroad. There he left the regular train upon which he had been travelling and finished the trip on a special train.

The railroad over which he was to arrive was kept secret by advice of the police, who wished to avoid any possibility of trouble with irresponsible. The arrival of Mr. Taft attracted but little attention.

The really strenuous portion of the program mapped out for Mr. Taft's entertainment will begin tomorrow morning with a conference between him and several prominent Republicans at the Annex. This will be followed with a luncheon at the Press Club, a second at the Irish Fellowship club, and a third at the Hamilton club. Thereafter will come a public reception at the rooms of the latter club and a banquet to be given by the Commercial club in the evening.

Mr. Taft in his address before the Interdenominational union, speaking of the political capacity of the Filipino, said:

"In my judgment, it will take two generations to make the Filipino so fitted and experienced as to enable them to carry on a government for their own benefit."
