

LETTERS ABOUT FORT DOUGLAS.

Post Not on List and $1,000,000 Appropriation Never Made.

REPRESENTATIVES WRITE.

Communications From Senator Sutherland and Congressman Howell To Real Estate Men.

Judge Colborn, president of the Salt Lake Real Estate association, has received a letter from U. S. Senator Sutherland at Washington relative to affairs at Fort Douglas in which the senator says:

"The regular appropriations heretofore made for the establishment of new posts and the improvement of those now in existence have been distributed in their entirety by the general staff, and Ft. Douglas has not been included for any amount whatsoever. The estimate for a general scheme of improvement at Fort Douglas fixed the amount required at something over $1,000,000, but no appropriation to carry the scheme into execution was ever made. Not a dollar of any general appropriation could be applied to improvements at any post not included in the plans of the general staff, without a special provision in the bill; and there has never been any special provision for Ft. Douglas. The general improvements which have been going on at the fort for the past three or four years have been under the immediate direction of the quartermaster-general and are not included in the plans of the general staff. They have been discontinued for the present for the reason that the appropriation has been exhausted. The removal of Captain Ham should not be construed to mean that the work has been abandoned. Captain Ham's detail of four years' service in the quartermaster-general's department has expired and he has been returned to the line, according to army regulations. When the funds in the appropriation bill now pending are available, another appropriation will be detailed to take his place. I believe I am keeping in touch with the department in connection with this matter and am glad to be able to assure you that a liberal expenditure for improvements at Ft. Douglas for 1916-7 will be made. You may be further assured that the Utah delegation will see to it that the needs of Ft. Douglas are not overlooked, in this connection, a word in regard to the two batteries recently ordered transferred from Ft. Douglas to Ft. Russell. The order was made in accordance with the policy of the department, which is to station batteries in brigades at military posts. Ft. Russell is regarded by the department as a battery post, well adapted for long-range modern guns. At no time has it been the intention of the department to maintain permanently batteries at Ft. Douglas. The department has no objection to the officers who are not enough for practice with guns that have a range of three miles or more. I have been urging the military authorities to take the place of the batteries at Ft. Douglas, and in the course of the consideration, I am confident that arrangements will be made to provide, in exchange, desirable companies of infantry or cavalry."

FROM MR. HOWELL.

Letter Colborn is also in receipt of a letter from Congressman Howell, in which the latter states that the Utah delegation is in possession of a paper some time ago that was securing an appropriation of $1,000,000 for the rebuilding of Fort Douglas was all moonshine. The congressman says:

"I have made two calls at the war department—one in company with Senator Smoot—to urge on the department the necessity and justice of an adequate appropriation of funds for the rebuilding and improvement of the fort. The secretary promised to give the matter early consideration and to advise us just what plans are in contemplation for the season with respect thereto, but for the past week the department has been as you know so occupied with measures of relief for the victims of the terrible catastrophe at San Francisco that other matters have been relegated to after consideration. I can assure you that there is no disposition on the part of the department to discriminate against Fort Douglas, but that it will receive its full share of attention along with the other military posts. Right here, too, I wish to disabuse your mind of the idea that any definite plans for the rebuilding of this beautiful suburb at a cost of over a million dollars were ever adopted; you share what I believe is a generally prevailing opinion in Salt Lake, but from the best information here obtainable, it is not based on facts. In conclusion, let me assure you that we of the Utah delegation here in Congress will do everything possible to secure the improvements so much desired or any other benefits which will be for the advancement of Utah and her people. Approval of this should be glad to have you direct my attention at any time to matters that need attention down here. Very truly yours."

VISITED CANYON CREST.

Members of Association Had Enjoyable Time at Farm.

About 20 members of the Canyon Crest association paid a visit to that farm yesterday and enjoyed a pleasant outing. They went out to beautiful on the train and then by wagon to the farm. A number of pictures were taken of the farm and buildings and an inspection of the place a light luncheon was served. After luncheon Dr. Shaw of Indianapolis, president of the Anti-Cigarette League of America, made a talk on the work of the association. The Canyon Crest farm is maintained for the purpose of providing a home for wards of the juvenile court from all parts of the state. Among those who visited the farm yesterday were juvenile court officials from Provo.

HONEST MEN AND WOMEN ENDORSE PE-RU-NA

The Utmost Confidence in Pe-ru-na.
Hon. C. C. Brooks, Mayor of Sunbury, Ohio, also Attorney for Farmers' Bank and Sunbury Building Loan Co., writes:
"I have the utmost confidence in the virtue of Peruna. It is a great medicine. I have used it and I have known many of my friends who have obtained beneficial results from its use. I cannot praise Peruna too highly."

Colds in Head, Throat and Chest.
Mrs. Lucy Hoey, 574 6th Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:
"I am thoroughly convinced that Peruna is everything that it is said to be. It cured me of a cold which hung on for over two months and which had me greatly worried. Peruna, though, acted like magic and I earnestly recommend it to all sufferers."

Health Restored By Pe-ru-na.
Miss Della Stroebel, 710 Richmond street, Appleton, Wis., writes:
"For several years I was in a run-down condition, and I could find no relief from doctors and medicines. I could not enjoy my meals and could not sleep at night. I had heavy dark circles about the eyes. My friends were much alarmed. I was advised to give Peruna a trial and to my joy I began to improve with the first bottle. After taking six bottles I felt completely cured. I can not say too much for Peruna as a medicine for women in a run-down condition."

Pe-ru-na For General Debility.
Mrs. M. W. Seffel, 212 Matagorda St., San Antonio, Tex., writes:
"I have used Peruna for general debility and have found it very beneficial."
Mr. William H. Switzer, 325 E. 33rd street, New York City, writes:
"I was troubled with catarrh of the throat particularly and suffered considerably as a result thereof for a period of about five years, and my general health was affected. Three years ago I was forced to give up business and took up my residence in the western country, looking for relief in a change of climate as well as a change in the method of treatment for my ailment. I had known of Peruna before, but my belief seemed to lie in private treatment. After much expense, both here and in the West, I was induced by a friend in Chicago to try Peruna. I began the use of same whilst there and continued it for about five weeks, at the end of which time I returned to New York, both well and happy."

Pe-ru-na Recommended For Coughs and Colds.
Prince Jonah Kalaniana'ole, 1522 K street, N. W., Washington, D. C., Delegate in Congress from Hawaii, writes:
"I can cheerfully recommend your Peruna as a very effective remedy for coughs, colds and catarrhal trouble."
Miss Theresa A. Lund, Seely Alpha Lodge, No. 1102, M. B. A., Marinette, Wis., writes:
"I had to come here on account of lung trouble and found that my recovery was very slow. A friend suggested that I try Peruna and I did so. I began to improve very rapidly and I kept right on using it. In four months my lungs were all healed and my cough all gone. I feel that much of the credit is due to Peruna and I am pleased to endorse it."
Mr. James D. King, Alamo Hotel, Colorado Springs, Col., member Youngmen of America, writes:
"I had to come here on account of lung trouble and found that my recovery was very slow. A friend suggested that I try Peruna and I did so. I began to improve very rapidly and I kept right on using it. In four months my lungs were all healed and my cough all gone. I feel that much of the credit is due to Peruna and I am pleased to endorse it."

AMUSEMENTS.
Theatre—The first suggestion of summer was seen in last night's brilliant and fashionable turnout at the Theatre, when white dresses and gay colors formed the greater part of the effect in the audience. The crush in all parts of the theatre testified to the popularity of the esteem with which Miss Walsh is regarded. While it was somewhat strange to see her lifted out of the heroines of the heroic mold, and the morbid type, the charm of Clyde, Fitch's play, and the admirable manner in which it was presented soon made everything else forgotten. "The Woman in the Case," Mr. Fitch has made something of a deviation from his beaten paths. It is more melodramatic than anything seen of late from his pen, but the story is unfolded with an intensity at times worthy of Sardou. The ultra refined may object to the episode where the heroine is forced to struggle the female adventurer, and by Mr. Sheridan as the lawyer, that she was crowded close throughout the evening for the ownership of her laurels. Miss Ware is an undoubted artist. Dorothy Dorr, whose name appeared on the program, was called east from Ogden yesterday, and Miss Ware took the part at a moment's notice. Last night was only the third time she had played the part of Claire Foster, and her rendition of the woman of the street in the third act, was so artistic that the audience would not be satisfied until Miss Walsh had appeared holding Miss Ware by the hand.

CREDIT MEN'S MEETING.
Association Holding Its Annual Session at Commercial Club.
The annual meeting of the Credit Men's association will be held this afternoon, in the parlors of the Commercial club, the meeting ending tonight, with a banquet in the large cafe. Over 150 business men will be present at the meeting, and at the afternoon session, the principal speakers will be C. N. Strevel on "Insurance," J. W. Delano on "Improvements in Trade Reports," Willard Sewcroft on "The Advantages of Joining the National Association," and Edward Rosenbaum on "Boosting for Home Industries." A neat folder souvenir has been printed for the banquet with a cartoon of "The Credit Man's Dream" as the frontispiece. The committee of arrangements consists of Messrs. Henry Q. Critchlow, Leon Sweet and Edward Rosenbaum. The reception committee includes P. L. Doran, George G. Ames, J. Willard Sewcroft and Charles L. Crockett. Music will be furnished by Lamour's orchestra and the Amphion quartet. C. N. Strevel will act as toastmaster, and responses will be given to toasts as follows: "Assets and Liabilities," Thomas "Overdrafts," H. P. Clerk; "Our Bankrupt Laws," Charles Baldwin; "Future Business," George T. Odell; "Salesmanship," John Q. Critchlow; "The Merchants and the Banker—Their Relationship," Arthur Parsons; "The Press," Judge C. C. Goodwin. This meeting will prove of much interest to the merchants in Utah and in all of the surrounding states. In the past year the business transacted by the members of this association has approximated $6,000,000, while adjustments of claims have been made by the management in $250,000, with the percentage of losses being held down to the minimum.

ENJOYED FINE RECITAL.
Attended By a Large and Appreciative Audience Yesterday.
Yesterday afternoon's organ recital in the Tabernacle was attended by an audience that more than half filled the galleries. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey, son and daughter-in-law of President Jeffrey of the Rio Grande river party, who were on a wedding trip from Chicago. The bride is a very talented girl in music. She was a pupil of De Costa and besides being a good pianist is also an organist. She was delighted with the great instrument and told a "News" reporter she thought the organist had a remarkably fine legato touch. Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey will spend a musical day in Salt Lake, when the bride will be given an opportunity to play the great organ herself. The program was carried out as advertised except that the Overture to Lohengrin was substituted for the Beethoven Fantasy, as by some accident a leaf had been torn out and lost from the latter score. The old melody was "My Old Kentucky Home," which proved acceptable to the audience. The Faulkes Concert overture was brilliantly given.

TALK TO BOYS.
Rev. Dr. Shaw Delivered Address to Betterment League.
Rev. Dr. Shaw of Indianapolis addressed the Boys' Betterment league at the Y. M. C. A. last evening, on "Your Boy and My Girl." In the course of his remarks, the doctor said: "The churches of the country are falling far short of doing enough for the boys. We expect the boys to have enough good influences spread around them in one-half hour a week in Sunday school to last for the whole seven days, while the older ones have two services a day on Sunday and a prayer meeting or two for good measure during the week. Why is it that the churches are filled with women to such a proportion that men are noticeable by their absence? It is simply because the men of today were neglected yesterday. We go to church, look over each other's clothes; the organ plays two hours, there's the sermon that is incidental and the shorter the better, and we shake hands and go home. Where is the boy all this time?" "I remember when the boys used to taunt me by saying I was 'fied to my mother's apron strings,' but those are strings of love that should be thrown about every boy in the land. I firmly believe that on the heavenly harp, some of the sweetest music to be heard will come from strings made of some of those mothers' apron strings."

AGED MAN INJURED.
Stranger Fell From Street Car—Taken To the Hospital.
While riding on a Second South street car last evening, an aged man named J. P. K. McCallum, a stranger and the bartender are certain of, and the discharge of the weapon and a bullet wound in the officer's shoulder. Officers say that yesterday morning's order from Chief Sheets was the outgrowth of the foolish actions of the officer and the bartender. It is believed that officers will be more careful in the future about entering saloons while on duty, and will be content to take what saloon men offer them and not try to "hog" it.

REASON FOR THE ORDER.
Saloon men, that is some of them, imagine they "stand in" with the "bulls" by giving them the best in the cigar case. Perhaps they do, and it may be nobody's business if a cigar man or a saloon man wants to give an officer a good smoke, but it is when the thing is overdone, by the officer, that trouble ensues, and it is for just such an occurrence that one officer is now nursing a bullet wound and the order referred to was issued.

WOUNDING OF MIDDLETON.
The case referred to is that of Officer Middleton. He may not have intended any harm, and the bartender who shot him may not have intended to shoot. It may have been an accident. But accident or no accident, Middleton was shot in the shoulder and the wonder is that he was not instantly killed. The fact that he declined to prosecute the bartender who handled the gun, is regarded as sufficient evidence that the officer was to blame.

GUN WENT OFF.
It is alleged that Middleton entered the saloon and intimated that he would like a good cigar. The bartender handed out the box, and, it is said, Middleton proceeded to take a handful. The bartender pulled a gun, it is claimed, told Middleton not to take so many cigars. What happened next, that Middleton
