LOCAL NEWS.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 9

Insure at Home.—We are informed that, within the last month, more than $1,000 has been paid in premiums to the Home Insurance Company of this city. For a commencement, this is good and it shows that an opportunity to insure in a company organized with home capital and by reliable men, as is the one named, is appreciated, and will be widely taken advantage of.

Thieving.—On Sunday night thieves entered the premises of Thomas Johnson, in the First Ward, and took a beehive containing a swarm of bees. They moved it out to the railway track, where they broke it in pieces, removed the honey and destroyed the bees. The loss to Mr. Johnson is about $8. Mr. Woodmansee's hives, in the same neighborhood, were also disturbed, but no damage was done.

Court Notes.—Proceedings in the Third District Court to-day:

United States vs. N. V. Jones and F. M. Treseder; Saturday, November 13, set for hearing motion for new trial and pronouncing sentence.

Frank Wright vs. M. S. Ascheim et al.; trial before jury in progress.

Salt Lake County vs. Dirk Bockholt; defendant allowed until Saturday, Nov. 13, to answer.

A "Header."—At about 11 o'clock this forenoon as Niels Rasmussen, of the General Tithing Office, was riding on his bicycle, he took a header just in front of the Emporium Building, on Main Street. He struck upon his head and was so stunned as to be helpless. Some parties who saw the accident placed him in an express wagon and conveyed him to the Tithing Office, where he was cared for. He seemed to be severely hurt, though it was thought his injuries would not prove serious.

Singular Cause of Death.—On the evening of the 4th inst. a son of Samuel W. and Maria Angell Woolley of Grantsville, Tooele County, named Franklin Edgar, was pushing a pitchfork in front of him, the tines gliding on the ground, when they struck a pole, causing the end of the handle to strike the boy in the abdomen with considerable force. Inflammation of the bowels set in, from which the little fellow died on Sunday last, the 7th inst. He was aged eight years, one month and twenty-seven days and was unusually bright and promising.

Provo Theatricals.—On Friday and Saturday evenings of last week, the Provo theatre was occupied with the "Lucashire Lass," in which Patti Marketta and Miss Nellie Colebrook took the principal parts. The business was very good and the delight of all parties, actors and audience, was pronounced. The principal parts were represented in the way we all understand here, and commendatory mention is made of J. C. Graham as manager, W. C. A. Smoot, A. O. Smoot, Jr., John Peters, W. C. Brown, Miss Fleming and Miss Milner. "Taking it all in all, the performance seems to have been quite successful, the piece, especially on Saturday, going off as smoothly as possible.

A Shocking Case.—Last evening Deputy Marshal Greenman arrested Wm. B. Wright, who resides in the Nineteenth Ward, on a charge of rape alleged to have been committed on two of his grown up daughters. The accused was taken to the penitentiary in default of bail. On the way, doubtless hoping to gain sympathy, he stated to the officers that he had not been a "Mormon" for ten or twelve years.

He was brought before Commissioner McKay this morning, and an examination held. The public and newspaper reporters were excluded, with the exception of the reporter of the Tribune, who acted as stenographer. The result of the examination was that the defendant was discharged, there not being sufficient evidence to hold him.

The eldest of his two daughters named in the complaint, Lillian, denied that anything improper had ever occurred between herself and father. The next daughter, Ida, stated that she did not know whether there had been any criminal act towards her on the part of defendant, as on several occasions when she arose in the morning she felt as though she had been drugged. She also stated that a younger sister, who is now in Montana, had left home on account of treatment from her father, the details of which are too disgusting for rehearsal.

The girl Ida tells a story of her life which is anything but pleasing to contemplate. She says that on her mother's death, about two years ago, she took the latter's infant, then a few days old, and has cared for it ever since. Her father and elder sister paid no attention to it. This sister, it is said, was placed in a delicate situation by a man named Player, whom she married last night. Ida says she became engaged to one E. Graham, of Ogden, a telegraph operator, but who is now working in a wine cellar in that city, and that under promise of marriage she was betrayed. She asked Graham to marry her, but he stated that he had also betrayed a girl in Ogden, whom he preferred to wed. She then came back to this city and went home, but her father drove her out. The Church authorities of the Seventeenth Ward discovered her situation, and supposing she was a stranger, gave her food, as she was on the verge of starvation. When they learned her story they still continued to provide for her until she could find means to procure a livelihood.

Wright himself has borne an unsavory character for years. He was formerly employed in Walker Brothers' store, as bookkeeper, and was later with R. K. Thomas, but was discharged because of intemperance. The charge of gross immorality is freely made against him by some of the officers, as well as a portion of his family and neighbors.

The investigation throughout revealed a most shocking state of affairs.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 10

Continued.—The "Incitement to rebellion" case against John W. Taylor, instituted in Idaho, has been continued till the next term of Court, which will open at Blackfoot next April.

Quarantined.—A case of diphtheria has developed in the city and has been quarantined. It is in the family of Mr. Johnson, who resides near the corner of Third South and Tenth East Streets. The disease is not considered to be of virulent type.

At 118 Centre Street a case of scarlet fever is quarantined.

Court Notes.—Proceeding in the Third District Court to-day:

United States vs. Henry H. Hawthorne; polygamy; demurrer to indictment overruled; defendant to plead to-morrow, Nov. 11th.

Frank Wright vs. M. S. Ascheim; evidence all in; arguments before jury in progress.

Probably a Canard.—The New York Herald of November 4th says that on the 3d inst., near Lambeth Kilns, Pa., two men named Ettig and Basing, claimed by the Herald to be "Mormon" Elders, were cowardly and otherwise maltreated, for the alleged reason that they were endeavoring to induce young women to join a "Mormon" colony. As there are no "Mormon" missionaries of the names given, and none at all in the district referred to, if any persons were treated as is stated—which is doubtful—they were not connected with the Latter-day Saints.

The American Humane Association.—We are just in receipt of a pamphlet containing an account of the proceedings of the above named society at its general convention held in St. Louis, during November of last year, including a number of papers that were read, and that treat upon subjects germane to the purposes of the Association. The alleviation of suffering in the animal kingdom and among the human family, is the commendable object of this organization.

Its next convention will be held in Cincinnati, Ohio, on the 15th, 16th and 17th of the present month.

Painful Accident.—We are in receipt of a communication from Brother Ernest S. Penrose, dated Logan, Nov. 9th, 1884, which says that Mrs. Elizabeth Blair, of Providence, met with quite a sad accident last Sunday, while out driving with some of her grand children. One of the traces came undone, which frightened the horse and he ran away. The children managed to get out; one of the little girls jumped over the wheel and was not hurt; the boy was slightly bruised. There were several ditches to cross, and Mrs. Blair was thrown out on the horse and fell to the ground, and in falling caught in some way, tearing one of her ears and part of the skin back of the ear entirely off, and her head was badly bruised. Dr. O. C. Ormsby was sent for and attended to her injuries, and at the time of writing she was getting along very well, much better than was expected.

From the "Pen."—This morning Brothers Stanley Taylor, of this city, and Andrew Jensen and George B. Bailey, of Mill Creek, were brought in from the penitentiary and taken before Commissioner McKay. They were sentenced, on May 10, 1886, to six months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $300 and the costs of suit in each case, and have served the full imprisonment, less the allowance for good behavior, and 30 days' additional because of their inability to pay the fines assessed against them. They were each subjected to a close examination by the Commissioner as to their property qualifications, and having passed satisfactorily took the required oath and were liberated. They are of course pleased at being free, after suffering the punishment inflicted on them for living with their wives and refusing to renounce their relationship.

The terms of Brothers George C. Lambert and Henry W. Naisbitt expire to-day, and they will probably be released to-morrow.

Weather Report.—The following report of the weather at various points throughout the Territory, was received by Deseret Telegraph to day:

November 10, 12 m.

Provo—Snowing; snow six inches deep.

Nephi—Snowed last night, about one inch; looks like more.

Fillmore—Snowed about five inches last night and looks likely for more.

Beaver—Ground covered with snow last night; this morning clear; sun shining; about one inch of snow.

Parowan—Three inches of snow; clear and pleasant now.

Cedar City—Four inches of snow on the ground.

Toquerville—Clear, with slight north wind; heavy wind last night; no snow.

Silver Reef—Clear and pleasant; no snow; very windy last night.

Hebron—Clear and cold; just enough snow fell last night to cover the ground; it still remains.

Manti—Snowing a little; two inches on the ground.

Gunnison—About half an inch of snow fell last night; cloudy and cold.

Ogden—Cloudy; about four inches of snow; light snow falling; cold.

Brigham City—Snowing and thawing; one inch of snow.

Logan—Snowing; about 5 inches on the ground.

Smithfield—Snowing; calm; about 3 inches of snow.

Mysterious Murder.—The following coroner's verdict has been forwarded and to some extent explains itself. There is a transaction discovered that needs thorough investigation:

TERRITORY OF UTAH, ss.
County of Kane.

An inquest holden in Kanab Precinct, Kane County, on the 21st day of October, A. D., 1886, before Zadek K. Judd, coroner of said county, upon the bodies of two persons unknown, there lying dead (one male and one female) by the jurors whose names are hereto subscribed. The jurors upon their oaths do say that the deceased came to their death by the blows of an axe in the hands of some person or persons unknown, and with felonious intent, as from the nature and locality of the wounds, they were attacked while lying asleep, camping out upon the Buckskin Mountains, their bodies being thrown together in one grave, covered lightly with earth and a large fire built over them, charring the clothing and flesh of the man. The bodies were discovered by passers-by through the coyotes digging into the grave.

In testimony whereof the said jurors have hereunto set their hands, the day and year aforesaid.

A. E. RIGGS,
B. F. STEWART,
JOHN B. ELSKA,
Jurors.

Attest: Z. K. Judd, Coroner.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY NOV. 11,

To Pupils.—Persons intending to send pupils to the Salt Lake Stake Academy are requested to call on either W. B. Dougall, Alonzo E. Hyde or Francis Cope, and obtain permits before Monday next, as each student will require a permit before being admitted to the school.

At Liberty.—To-day Brothers Geo. C. Lambert and Henry W. Naisbitt were brought from the penitentiary and taken before Commissioner Critchlow. In addition to the term of six months' imprisonment, to which they were sentenced on May 11th, 1886, they served 30 days for the fine imposed. They were set at liberty.

Draper Y. M. M. I. A.—The following have been sustained as the officers of the Y. M. M. I. A. at Draper: D. O. Rideout, Jr., President; David Brown and Charles Sadler, Counselors; J. H. Smith, Secretary; James Jensen, Jr., Treasurer; Charles Stewart, Librarian. The time of meeting is 7 o'clock on Wednesday evening.

Arrest at Morgan.—On Tuesday last Brother Richard Fry, first counselor to President Wm. G. Smith, of Morgan Stake, was arrested on a charge of living with more than one wife. He was taken to Ogden and when arraigned before the Commissioner pleaded guilty. He was placed under $1,500 bonds to appear for trial in the First District Court.

Seconds in the Prize Fight Arrested.—Last night Charles Lange, Charles Hicks and Harry Kendall were arrested on the charge of aiding in the recent prize fight by acting as seconds. They were placed under $500 bonds each, to appear to-day for examination. The case was further postponed until to-morrow morning. The full penalty for the offense is two years in the penitentiary.

George Crismon Arrested.—Last evening George Crismon, of the Sugar House Ward, was arrested on a charge of unlawful cohabitation, and was taken before Commissioner McKay. The complaint, signed D. W. Reuch, alleges that he has lived with Mrs. Mary Crismon and Mary Ann Foster as his wives, from Dec. 1, 1883, to Nov. 1, 1886. The defendant pleaded guilty, and was placed under $1,000 bonds to appear for trial, John C. Young and W. S. Burton being sureties.

Court Notes.—In the Third District Court to-day the defendant Hawthorne, indicted for polygamy, was arraigned. He pleaded not guilty, and his trial was set for next Thursday, the 18th inst.

P. L. Williams vs. Wm. M. Stewart, case set for trial on the 13th inst.

The jury in the case of Wright vs. Ascheim disagreed, and were discharged.

This afternoon the case of Henry Newell vs. W. H. Hoy was in progress before a jury.

Fatal Accident.—Our correspondent "Almeus," writing from Rock Springs, Wyoming, under date of the 10th, gives the particulars of a shocking accident there as follows:

Yesterday at half-past one a Finland named Mike Vuonen was killed in No. 5 mine and another named Matt Sorri was injured by a fall of slate from the roof. It seems they had fired a shot and went in to see the effects of the same; the force of the explosion had knocked down some of the props which supported the roof, which they failed to notice, and they got under where the props had been, when the roof fell, with the results above stated.

Executed Again.—Yesterday afternoon Andrew W. Cooley, of Brigham, was arrested again on a warrant of unlawful cohabitation, which was served by Deputies Smith and . The defendant was taken before Commissioner McKay and released on a $500 bond to appear for trial to-day. He was on hand at 1 o'clock, waived examination and a bond of $1,000 to await the action of the grand jury. The complaint charges him with living with Rachael Cooley and Mrs. Hazel from May 1, 1885, to November 1, 1886. Rachael Annie, Clara M. and Marcus R. Cooley, gave bonds as witnesses in the sum of $200.

This defendant has served one term in the penitentiary for the offense for which he is again being prosecuted.

Edward Schoenfeld Arrested.—At about half-past nine o'clock this morning deputy Pratt entered the shoe department of Z. C. M. I., in which Brother Edward Schoenfeld is employed, and served upon him a warrant of arrest on a charge of unlawful cohabitation. The officer named was accompanied by deputy Smith, and they conducted their prisoner at once to the office of Commissioner McKay. The complaint charges the defendant with cohabiting with Alida Schoenfeld and Mary Springall from Dec. 1, 1883, to Nov. 1, 1886.

The defendant waived examination and was bound over in the sum of $1,500 to await the action of the grand jury. Mary Springall and her daughter were bound over as witnesses in the sum of $200 each. A number of the employees of Z. C. M. I. were present and offered themselves as bondsmen.

This afternoon Henrietta Schoenfeld, a lady past middle age, the wife of Frederick Schoenfeld, her son Joseph F. and her daughter Hulda appeared before Commissioner McKay, in obedience to a subpoena that had been served upon them. It seemed that a mistake had been made, and members of the wrong family subpoenaed, but they were bound over to testify on the 24th before the grand jury.

A Frightful Death.—The Laramie Boomerang of November 9th gives the following account of the awful fate which befel a young man in one of the burning coal pits of the Powder River country, in Wyoming:

"About two weeks ago, a party of cowboys from some distance north of the burning coal fields of the Powder River country started out on a trip through the cattle district to the southward, to bring back any animals that might have strayed from their proper feeding grounds. A couple of days' ride brought them to the region of the burning coal pits, and on the third day they passed quite close to a small creek from whose banks huge columns of dense and black smoke were being vomited forth.

"One of the range riders, Hugh Connelly by name, proposed that the party ride over and inspect the burning pits. This was agreed to, and the cowboys were soon speeding on an errand from which Connelly himself was never to return.

"Arriving on the creek bank they found that the heaviest smoke proceeded from the summit of a long, high ridge, which ran parallel with the stream, and only a short distance from it. Riding to the foot of this ridge, over ground calcined and broken with heat, the boys dismounted, and leaving their horses, began the ascent on foot. Arriving at the top of the ridge, they found themselves face to face with the fires of the bowels of the earth. The ridge offered to their gaze one succession of pits, from which issued black smoke shot with lurid streaks of flame. The hot air of the pits almost parched the flesh, and took the breath as it came steadily towards them. The party had turned to leave, unable to stand the close heat, when Connelly exclaimed, 'Boys, yonder is the biggest hole of them all; I am going to look down, and see how far it is to hell,' at the same time pointing to a huge opening a short distance away, from which poured a perfect column of smoke and flame.

"His companions in vain tried to dissuade him from his foolhardy purpose. He sprang away from them, and in a moment was standing on the brink of the frightful crater. He turned and waved his hat to his companions, shouting something which they failed to hear, and the next instant the earth on which he stood gave way, and Connelly disappeared forever in the abyss of flame and smoke. His horrified companions beat a precipitate retreat, and gaining their horses, never broke the swift prairie lope until many miles lay between them and the scene of their fellow cowboy's frightful death. He was a Texan, and between 21 and 22 years of age."

The family of Hon. W. B. Hoke, Judge of the Jefferson County, Ky., Court, used St. Jacobs Oil with signal success.

Erysipelas and Obsolete Ulcers.

Boils, Carbuncles and Running Sores of every kind are cleared, the poison germs destroyed and a speedy cure effected by using Darby's Prophylactic Fluid.

"I have been afflicted with the Erysipelas. Nothing would heal the sore or stop the running. I used Darby's Prophylactic Fluid and found a speedy cure. Have also tried it in several other cases and it proved effectual."—S. P. GREER.

THE BONE COAL COMPANY.

Fred. A. Mitchell, manager, finding that the demand was constantly increasing for their coal, which is mined at Coalville, Utah, found it necessary to procure several new coal wagons. These specially fine wagons were furnished by the Studebaker Brothers. They are built for this particular work—they have hard wood boxes and wing boards—they are handsomely painted, lettered, and are exceedingly attractive. Strong in build and light in draught.
