Full Time.

LAWRENCE, Mass., 20.—The Everett mills resume full time on Monday next.

Successor Chosen.

BOSTON, 20.—By the deed of endowment of the school at Pentkess, given by Mr. Anderson, Professor Agassiz had a right to select his successor, and he chose his son Alexander Agassiz.

European Mails.

WASHINGTON, 20.—The postmaster general announces that he will arrange a system by which the European mails shall be dispatched from New York four times a week, on steamers sailing on any given Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, or Saturday, which, according to the postal record, best fulfil their conditions of speed, security and certainty.

"Lord" Massey Arrested—Horses and Wagons Burned.

PHILADELPHIA, 20.—Lord Massey, so-called, who, it is alleged, swindled a number of people at Cape May last summer, was arrested on the steamer Pennsylvania on her arrival here to-day, and taken to West Chester, Pa., on a charge of swindling parties living in Chester Co.

A fire in Forepaugh's menagerie, at Germantown, to-night, burned a stable and five valuable horses, also all the wagons belonging to the show.

NEW YORK, 20.—London papers of the 8th, received to-day, contain the official report of Captain Robertson, of the Loch Earn, which sank the steamer Ville de Havre. It is as follows, so far as relates to the collision: "On November 22nd, at 2 a.m., in lat. 45 E, 54 north, longitude 35 E, 6 west, wind S. S. W., true, the ship braced up on the port tack, heading by the standard compass N. W. by W., or 1½ N true, a steamer's mast head was seen from one to two points on the port bow. Our side lights were out and burning brightly. Shortly after we saw the steamer's three lights, she was coming straight for us. Almost immediately she showed only her port and masthead lights, and was steering apparently to pass under our stern. After a short time we rang our bell, and ported the helm, as we thought she was comming too near. The steamer still showing only her port light, when close to the bow the steamer's helm was starboarded, and she was across our bow. A collision was inevitable, and an order was given to back our after yards, but before the braces could be let go the two vessels came into collision, the Loch Earn striking the steamer amidships, which immediately separated. We threw our afteryards back. Half the crew shortened sail and the remainder cleared away the port lifeboat. The carpenter being at the pumps reported that the ship was making no water, and then went forward and found the bowsprit gone, and the bow smashed in completely in by the collision. The fault head was apparently uninjured. A boat from the Ville de Havre then came alongside, containing an officer and four men. I asked if the steamer was much injured. He said she was injured, but he did not say she wanted assistance, and as no signals of distress were made by the steamer I thought at the time the boat was sent to render us assistance. But while talking to the officer I saw the steamer apparently settling down, and lowered the port life-boat at once, in charge of the second officer and four men, who made towards the sinking ship. Our cutter and starboard lifeboat were then cleared away, and in a few minutes dispatched to the scene of the catastrophe, their only guide being the cries of the drowning people, the steamer's lights having disappeared. We kept our boats out until daylight, until every one floating among the wreck was picked up. We succeeded in saving eighty-four persons out of three hundred and six, a large proportion having gone down with the steamer, which only floated about fifteen minutes, after being struck." Captain Robertson then proceeds to give an account of falling in with the Tri-mountain and transferring the steamer's passengers and crew to her, with the exception of Messrs. Cook and Wess, and one of the steamer's firemen who was injured. He then gives an account of his struggles to save his vessel. The following incident of the disaster is told by the captain of the Loch Earn: "A lady swam alongside with a child in her arms. A rope was thrown to her, which she seized, but in attempting to be pulled up, holding on by one arm with the other round the child, her strength failed her, and the child was lost, but the poor mother was hauled on board."

An imposing requiem mass was solemnized at Havre on the 8th inst., for the repose of the souls of the victims. The cathedral was draped in black from roof to floor, and was thronged by a congregation of five thousand persons. The catafalque was surrounded by sailors of the Republican navy, and all the civil, naval and military dignitaries of the place were present. The Curé's sermon was interrupted by bursts of grief from the worshippers. All the ships in the harbor were dressed, their flags half mast high, and business was at a stand still. The public subscription amounts to forty thousand francs, excluding the contributions of the company. The singers of the Paris opera are to give a performance of "La Favorita Athavele" for the benefit of the families of the victims.

Professor Rufert, of the Geneva Theological Seminary, in which Cesar Proncar, lost by the Ville de Havre disaster, was a professor, writes to this country, asking if American Christians could do something for Proncar's family. He leaves a wife who has been sick for years, and six young children.

Oriental Explorers—Tammany.

The first section of the Oriental Expedition, the topographical corps, sailed to-day for Egypt, with Professor James Strong in charge. He will be joined by Major Powell and assistants at the mouth of the Nile, in Marsh, and will proceed through Sinai, Moab, Bashan, Central and Western Palestine, Asia Minor and Greece.

The Tammany Hall general committee, in session to-night, adopted a resolution congratulating the people on the conviction of the members of the late ring, and saying that the justices, juries and attorneys who have been thus faithful to society are entitled to the gratitude of all good, honest citizens.

Buried.

ST. LOUIS, 20.—The funeral of Colonel Frederick Dent, father-in-law of the President, took place here to-day, from the residence of Hilson; a large number of old friends and acquaintances were present. The body was interred in the Bellfontaine cemetery.

WESTERN.

Rejoicing—Scarlet Fever Epidemic.

SAN FRANCISCO, 20.—There is much rejoicing here and at Sacramento over the election of Booth, and the defeat of the railroad monopoly; the result will give unbounded satisfaction throughout the State.

There were one hundred and one deaths in this city during the week, the greatest mortality for the same time this year. There were twenty deaths from scarlatina, which is epidemic amongst the children of this city.

FOREIGN.

SPAIN.

Will Demand the "Virginius."

MADRID, 20.—It is reported that the cabinet has decided to make a demand upon the United States, for the return of the Virginius and her passengers and crew, recently surrendered; it is also said that, in accordance with this decision, president Castelar has written to minister Sickles.

Advancing.

The troops besieging Carthagena advanced to within eight hundred metres of that city yesterday, and took some prisoners; the Intransigentes made several sorties, but were repulsed. The minister of war has complimented the commander of the government forces.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

Trouble Between Spain and Britain.

KEY WEST, 21.—Information reached here yesterday, from Havana, that serious complications in regard to Cuba have arisen between the Spanish and British governments. The advices did not state the precise nature of the difficulties, but it became known here that the British consul-general at Havana has received dispatches from Lord Granville, to instruct all the naval commanders in the West Indies to immediately rendezvous in Cuban ports. It is stated in official circles that it is certainly known that the British government will assuredly demand the punishment of Burriel. The British Admiral has left for St. Thomas, where he expects to be relieved.

Admiral Scott looks for the arrival of our European squadron in a few days, when Admiral Case, unless relieved, will assume command.

It is now looked upon as certain that the salute to our flag, required by the terms of the protocol, will be made in as formal a manner as possible. The feeling among the officers of the squadron heresis one of much dissatisfaction.

The Virginius passed here yesterday, in a leaky condition.

Labor Meetings.

CINCINNATI, 21.—The workmen's meeting yesterday, protested against the city's only allowing a dollar and a quarter per day, and proposed a demonstration by procession to-morrow afternoon. A meeting of German laborers denounced the press of the country as being in league with capital against labor. The Irish meeting limited proceedings to a denunciation of the city authorities.

Not Guilty.

METAMORA, Ills., 21.—The jury in the Workman case rendered a verdict of not guilty; amidst intense excitement the defendant, wild with joy, thanked God, her counsel, and the jury. She was then led from the room by her counsel. The jury and many of the audience shed tears.

Meeting of Working Men—Killed in a Battle.

CHICAGO, 21.—A very large meeting of laborers was held at the west side Turner Hall this evening, at which speeches were made in English, German and Polish, urging the rights of every man to employment by the city government when other sources failed, or, in the event the city could not furnish work, it should supply the laboring men with food and other necessaries of life. Resolutions embodying these views were adopted, and it was resolved that those present should march in a body to the council chamber to-morrow night, and present the resolutions and their claims personally.

In a battle to-night between two policemen and four thieves, one of the latter was shot and killed; the thieves had fired several shots at the officers who replied with a number of shots, one of which took effect as stated.

FOREIGN.

ITALY.

Dead.

ROME, 21.—The Lieutenant General of the Italian army is dead.

PRUSSIA.

Emperor Apoplectic—Refused.

BERLIN, 21.—The Emperor William has had a slight attack of apoplexy, which causes much anxiety; and efforts are being made to conceal his condition.

Archbishop Ledochowski has declined to stand as a candidate for the Reichstag.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Raised to the Peerage—Dead—Cape Coast Castle.

LONDON, 21.—Monsell, late Postmaster General, has been raised to the peerage.

Sir Joseph Cowan, member of Parliament for Newcastle-upon-Tyne, died to-day, aged 73.

The crew of the Sprite, which was preparing to sail from Woolwich for the gold coast, have deserted in a body, and her departure will be delayed one day.

Dispatches from Cape Coast Castle, as late as the 27th of Nov., report that although there have been a few skirmishes with the Ashantees, they were not of an important character, and the expedition was practically at a standstill, awaiting the arrival of English regiments, now on the way.

Thirteen Persons Drowned.

A ferry boat capsized on the Thames to-day, and thirteen persons were drowned.

DENMARK.

Copenhagen in the Dark.

COPENHAGEN, 21.—The gas men have struck work, and the city, to-night, is in darkness.

CANADA.

"Horrible, most Horrible."

INGERSOLL, Ont., 21.—A man named Timothy Topping, killed his wife and four children this morning, by cutting their throats with a butcher knife; he also tried to murder his two oldest boys, but they succeeded in disarming him, and got the help of the neighbors; on their return they found that he had cut his throat. At the latest advices he was still alive. The cause assigned for the butchery is insanity, caused by financial trouble.

Buried.

ST. LOUIS, 20.—The funeral of Colonel Frederick Dent, father-in-law of the President, took place here to-day, from the residence of Hilson; a large number of old friends and acquaintances were present. The body was interred in the Bellfontaine cemetery.
