

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, FEB. 26.

Fined.—This morning Chris. Sands was before Justice. Spies for being delirious with drink and creating a disturbance. One of his antics was to break in a door. He was fined fifteen dollars.

An Old Friend Returned.—With the noon train to-day, Mr. Phil. Robinson, well known in this city as former correspondent here of the New York World, whose able letters on Utah affairs are familiar to the citizens here, arrived to-day. We bid him welcome.

An Eminent Jurist.—At noon to-day Sergeant Ballantine, one of the most eminent among English jurists, arrived in our city. The name of the gentleman is familiarly known in every part of the civilized world. We wish him a pleasant sojourn in Utah.

Frozen Hands.—Last night Chas. Ross, stage driver between Kelton and Marsh Basin, came down on the train from the north. During the late cold spell he had his hands badly frozen, while engaged in his vocation, necessitating the amputation of five fingers, three from the left and two from the right hand.

Large Payment.—To the vendors of the Mammoth Mine, payment was made to-day at the London bank of Utah, of $35,000, sent from London by the Syndicate who have taken over this property. Thirty-five thousand dollars more were paid last week at the mine and smelting works, for the January payroll.

Home Again.—F. S. Richards, Esq., of the Utah Delegation to Washington, returned last evening accompanied by his wife, and were heartily welcomed at Ogden. Although returning a little sooner than expected, the news of their arrival was soon circulated, and they were serenaded at their home in the evening. Mr. Richards has done splendid service for the people of Utah at the seat of Government.

Vehicles and Machinery.—Mr. L. B. Mattison, agent for Mitchell Wagons, etc., calls the attention of the public generally, and intending visitors to the April Conference specially, to his fine and extensive stock of wagons, buggies, harness, agricultural machinery, etc., which he is prepared to sell on satisfactory terms.

Hard Times.—According to the Iuano Democrat times are pretty hard just now at Boise. It says:

There are many hungry men in Boise to-day, worthy laboring men, craving work for food, with nothing for them to do. They should be furnished with a little something to eat until the ground softens so they can go to work grading. Two or three citizens have suggested the opening of a soup house for their relief.

Not He.—A day or two since the city papers made a note of the fact that a party named Robert Brown had been arrested for drunkenness, disorderly conduct, etc. Some person placed a marked copy of a paper containing the item, at the door of Brother Robert Brown, the book-binder employed at the Juvenile Instructor office, as if to intimate that he was the person. We need scarcely state that he was not the party, and that he is a sober and respectable man.

A Cosy Car.—To No. 3 yesterday was attached a special car built at Omaha for Supt. Doddridge, of the Oregon Short Line. It is a little "daisy" and would fill even the hearts of newspaper men, who are used to comfort and elegance, with a large wad of admiration. A complete kitchen occupied one end of the car; in the center are four elegantly arranged berths, two on each side, and a small but finely appointed drawing-room occupies the remainder of the interior.—Boomerang.

Funeral Services.—The funeral services over the remains of Sister Helen Condie were held in the Fourth Ward Meeting House at eleven o'clock on Saturday, Bishop Sperry presiding. The opening prayer was offered by Bishop Thorn and the funeral discourse was preached by Pres. Jos. E. Taylor. Remarks were also made by Bro. James Watson and Bishop Sperry, both of whom testified to the exemplary character of the deceased. The benediction was pronounced by Counselor Thos. Corliss. A large procession followed the remains to the Cemetery.

Number Five.—Number five of the current volume of the Juvenile Instructor is out. Its contents are: The Beaver, (Illustrated); How Paper Car-wheels are made; Chapter for the Little Ones, (Illustrated); An Incident on the Plains; Our Rights, by Lycergus; An Interesting Incident, by A. E.; Dierael's Maiden Speech; To a Snow Bird, by J. C.; Items of Experience, by A. M. C.; Editorial Thoughts; The Reformers; The Declaration of Independence, (Illustrated); History of the Church; Early Reminiscences, by J. H. H.; A Noble Example; The Eve of Revolution, by J. H. W.; Hark, Listen to the Trumpeters, Music by L. D. Edwards.

The Robbers.—Yesterday deputy sheriff Polk, of Elko, Nevada, arrived in this city for the purpose of taking Ormus Nay, the wounded robber who was at St. Mary's Hospital, to Nevada. Nay has progressed remarkably since the operation was performed upon his shoulder a month ago. Mr. Polk left with his prisoner on the afternoon train to-day.

The hand have been indicted for an assault with intent to rob the Central Pacific express car, and for assault with intent to kill.

Frank Hawley, the other robber who was wounded, is recovering, but is yet unable to get about.

The desperadoes have a fair prospect of being sent to the penitentiary for a long term of years.

A Distinguished Party.—This morning, after a brief stay in Salt Lake, a delegation of high dignitaries from the Japanese Empire, left for Washington, having a mission of importance to communicate to the ambassador at the Capital. On the way to this country they stopped over for some time at Honolulu, and were present at the late coronation of the King of the Sandwich Islands. Yesterday they visited a number of leading points of interest, among them the Assembly Hall and Tabernacle. They manifested much eagerness to gain information concerning the community of Latter-day Saints, about whom they made inquiries, and appeared greatly interested with the explanations that were given.

His Excellency M. Sugli, is Imperial Minister, a highly cultivated gentleman, who was educated in this country, at Ann Harbor, Michigan. The names of the other members of the party are M. Ishiboshi, Secretary of the Legation; Michimori S. Nagasaki, Secretary of the Imperial Household; K. Kakichi and Prof. K. Sugli, attaches.

The delegation stopped at the Walker House, and were conducted around the city by Mr. Firth, a prominent official of the C. B. & Q. Railroad.

AMERICAN.

CAIRO, Ill., 24.—The Government gauge now shows 52 feet, being a rise of one and half inches since last night, the highest water ever known here. The levees are in good condition. Large forces are keeping watch. The Alton gorge commenced passing here at noon, doing no damage. The river is still stationary at Paducah. Heavy rain last night, clearing weather at noon.

Memphis, 24.—Considerable anxiety is felt for the inhabitants of the "sunk lands," Arkansas, where breakwater from the Mississippi River is said to be rising at the rate of an inch an hour. Communication with the country inundated is almost impossible. The river here rose three inches, and now marks within nine inches of the highest point ever reached.

Chicago, 24.—At 7 o'clock this morning, a fine, drizzling rain began, freezing as fast as it fell. Buildings, sidewalks, streets, telegraph wires, etc., are already heavily coated with ice. The effect is already felt by railroads and telegraph offices. Serious interruptions to trains and wires are probable.

New Albany, Ind., 24.—The relief committee return thanks to the people of the United States for generous contributions in aid of the flood sufferers, and says enough is received to relieve the actual wants of sufferers.

OMAHA, 24.—A letter tells of the murder at Driftwood, Hitchcock

County, last Tuesday, of a man named Owens. He and Elisha Kearns, who are brothers-in-law, and residing at Driftwood, had been bitter enemies for some time. On Tuesday they had a quarrel about family matters and became very excited. Finally, Kearns drew a revolver and exclaimed with an oath, "You son of a bitch," fired, the bullet taking effect in the stomach and coming out at the back. Owens died on Wednesday. Kearns made his escape.

Detroit, 24.—Four masked men entered the house of Peter Brown, near Fenton, Mich. The aged couple were bound and gagged, and robbed of $2,400 in cash; no clue.

Toronto, 24.—Redmond, teller of the Dominion Bank, has decamped, and is supposed to be in the United States. He is short $75,000. He has been dealing in stocks.

Greensboro, N.C., 24.—While Mr. and Mrs. Terrell were asleep, the negro, Jerome, got into the house and crept into bed with them, with a knife and revolver in his hand. He woke Mrs. Terrell and told her he would kill Terrell if she waked him. She awoke her husband and a fearful struggle ensued. The husband disarmed the negro, who, in the course of the melee, fatally hurt Terrell's son, 10 years old. The negro was finally overpowered and locked up. It is believed he will be lynched.

New York, 24.—Nathan S. Bennett is arrested, charged with buying for $2,000, $14,000 worth of jewelry, stolen from ex-Minister Curistancy, in Washington.

Helena, Ark., 24.—J. H. Grant had 75 penitentiary convicts employed at work on the levee below the city. They made an arrangement to capture the guards and escape. One of the convicts was working spading dirt near a guard. He knocked the guard down. The other convicts then rushed upon the other guards. At this time Grant came upon the scene, riding a horse. He fired upon the convicts, but seeing them armed, turned to retreat, when one of the convicts fired, the lead passing through his body, killing him instantly. Seventeen convicts then made their escape. They came across a lot of negroes working near, and compelled them to change clothes. A posse of citizens has gone in pursuit.

Chicago, 24.—Albert J. Howell, broker, of the firm of Howell, Crapper & Co., committed suicide by shooting, at noon to-day. Poor health was the cause.

Helena, M. T., 24.—Charles Story, employed in the bank of Nelson Story, at Bozeman, obtained $10,000 from the First National Bank of this place by forgery, and left last Saturday. He has been arrested at Miles City with most of the money.

LAWRENCE, Mass., 24.—Seven suits are instituted against the Augustine Society, a Roman Catholic organization formed here in 1870, to receive deposits of the parishoners of the church. Attachments have been issued for $27,000, and more are likely to follow. The society was formed by priests, and subsequently chartered by the Legislature, with authority to hold property not exceeding $200,000. A large amount of real estate, including church property, has been conveyed to the society since 1881. When Father Regan took charge of its affairs depositors had difficulty in securing deposits, and several claims had been entered against it. He has been selling real estate for some time past, and has been a large borrower of money from the banks. At a meeting of depositors the latter were notified there was no money left, but the security would endeavor to pay at the rate of $240,000 yearly. Indebtedness, $50,000 to depositors, $200,000 to mortgage holders. The depositors number 700, the majority being poor female mill operatives. It is generally believed that this is the culmination of several years of gradual depreciation of the affairs of the society. Father O'Donnell, one of the first controllers, invested largely in railroad stock, resulting in heavy losses. In addition to the poorer depositors, there are several heavy deposits, from $16,000 down to $500.

NEW YORK, 24.—A Wall Street paper of bear proclivities says: "A good many people think the Central Pacific stock, paying 6 per cent is pretty low at 80. We doubt if this can be the case. On the contrary, it is more than likely to go a good deal lower. The Central Pacific people in building the Southern Pacific have invested, so we are told, at least $100,000,000 and the property is practically dead. The only chance of saving it is in building up the country by inducing immigration, and this they are about to do by carrying passengers from New York via New Orleans for $20. Of course the Central Pacific and Union Pacific will go to the dogs, but the only hope of getting $100,000,000 out of the Southern Pacific is in the new scheme of populating the Pacific Slope. We are told the C. P. people are resolved upon this scheme, and to let the Government take back its property for the amount of its mortgage; and that the pro rate would not have been made with the U. P. last winter were it not that the C. P. people wanted a little more time to get rid of their stock. Under these circumstances we would not advise the purchase of Pacific stock.

The Stockholder says of the U. P.: The street generally is not favorably impressed with the report of the government directors so far as that document was made public; and as the result of its conclusions is disposed rather to sell stock short than buy it for a possible rally. Still, strong people are free buyers, and the point given is that the stock will again sell at par within thirty days.

New York, 24.—J. C. Stubbs, general traffic manager of the Central Pacific Railroad, left this evening for San Francisco, via St. Louis and New Orleans, having completed the details of the new connection with steamers from this port to New Orleans and Galveston, thence over the Galveston, Harrisburg & San Antonio and the Southern Pacific roads to San Francisco. The first steamer will sail on Wednesday next.

New York, 24.—The steamer Republic, from Liverpool, met Feb. 16th, in latitude 50 degrees north, longitude 20 degrees 10 minutes west, the steamer Glamorgan, Capt. Court. The Glamorgan was a wreck. The Republic took off J. W. May, first officer; W. A. Warbrick, third officer; Wm. Palmer, boatswain; J. Gillard, carpenter; J. Whallen, Thomas Anderson, E. Anderson. G. Bohle, C. Horn and J. Morgan.

On Wednesday morning, following the departure of the Glamorgan, a tremendous sea struck her, carrying away the foremast, all the ventilators of the fore and main winches, and pipes, bridges and rails, and flooding all below deck. On Friday, Saturday and Sunday succeeding, the wind and sea increased in fury, and the vessel hove to. On Monday the weather moderated, and a few miles were made. On Tuesday the storm returned with increased violence, and a very high sea was running.

Boston, 24.—Special from Hull, England: The steamship Bywell Castle, for the Black Sea, with a cargo of cotton seed and beans, bound for this port, is thought to have foundered, and all on board lost.

Staunton, Va., 24.—Five inmates of the Western lunatic asylum are dead. It is supposed they tampered with the medicine.

Mount Carmel, Pa., 24.—Charles Breslin, Martin Brennan and Thos. Gallagher were horribly burned by an explosion at Green Ridge colliery. A cave in the gangway at Blekel colliery probably fatally injured Joseph and Elias Powell.

A large number of people assembled to-night at Salmi Morse's "residence" to witness the dress rehearsal of the Passion Play. All the seats were occupied. A large crowd gathered in the street. A strong force of police were inside the building in citizens' dress and many in the street. Policemen were also at the stage door while the scenes were being fixed. Simeon, Caiaphas, John, Anna the Prophetess, Joseph, Mary, the Assyrians, Levites, and the multitude took their places, and everything was pronounced ready. The curtain went up, disclosing the presentation chamber of the temple. The orchestra began a solemn chant. The strain was taken up by leading singers, soon following, and the house was hushed. As the first song died away, Caiaphas advanced, holding aloft the scrolls upon which the law was written, and delivering a recitation. The chorus began to sing the reply, when Captain Williams issued from a pillar of the "temple" and arrested Morse, who stood near him. The performance at once stopped. Morse's counsel was loud in denunciation of the "outrage" and cries of "shame" came from the people. He called on them to witness that the performance had been stopped in the middle of a sacred song.

WASHINGTON, 24.—Red Cloud is here and makes the following claim;

he was told to make application before next session of Congress.

Washington, D. C.,
Feb. 20, 1883.

To the Law Chief:

I am an Indian; look at me. My name is Red Cloud. I have sense. The government through General Crook in 1876, took wrongfully 605 horses from me and my people. I have sense; so have my people. I represent them. I am in debt, and have a large family. Secretary Teller asks me to take cows for my horses. If the government gives me all the cows they have promised I will have more kine than we can milk. I am a man of sense. I want money to pay my debts. Law Chief, pay me not in cows, but cash. I am at peace. Let me remain thus.

(Signed) His
RED CLOUD.

LONDON, 24.—W. S. Crawford, a well known turfman, is dead.

Gen. McAdams telegraphed Trevelyan Chief Secretary of Ireland, as follows: "I am willing to submit to the most rigid scrutiny of my actions."

The Times says Parnell's speech was read with the profound repugnance it excited in the House. His coolness is not maintained with entire success; it does not imply courage so much as shamelessness. Some consciousness of the utter inadequacy of his evasive quibbles to dispose of the charge built upon very broad induction, may account for the labored explanation, and the trifling he resorted to was ill-timed, as well as the recrimination which marked his speech.

Dublin, 24.—Harrington, secretary of the organizing committee of the Land League, in jail for using intimidating language, is elected without opposition, to the Commons for Westmeath.

Paris, 24.—In the Chamber of Deputies a vote of confidence in the government passed 368 to 63.

Berlin, 24.—Van Camp, of the Uhlans, dismissed from the service, killed himself.

The confirmation of the French cabinet caused a slight disappointment. A Berlin journal describes Lacour as minister of foreign affairs as a Gambettist, a doctrinaire, knowing the Revanche policy only from study, and though no friend to Germany, yet an honorable foe.

St. Petersburg, 24.—It is stated that letters have been received by authorities conveying a threat to blow up the Kremlin at Moscow where the Czar is to be crowned. Search is made, but nothing indicating preparations for the destruction of the palace is revealed. A close watch is being kept and the public is not allowed to enter the building.

Copenhagen, 24.—Russian officials are enforcing the new regulations in Schleswig-Holstein with moderation.

A DREARY DESERT.

A TRIO OF GENTLEMEN FROM THIS CITY TAKE A TOUR THROUGH THE WEST.

Recently Brother Chariton Jacobs and two other gentlemen, returned from an arduous tour through the barren deserts of the Great West, leaving on the 4th of last Sept., having been absent something over five months. They started out by way of Tinto, striking the old emigrant road at Riverhead, an old stage station well known to old settlers. Passing round by Dugway and Black Rock, they reached Fish Springs. Between Cherry Creek, West Tinto and that place, a distance of 110 miles, they found a dreary waste, there being but one family living on their entire line of March. From Fish Springs to Spring Lake Valley is a large extent of country, apparently barely habitable, there being about six families found by the party, widely scattered along the route, and from the latter place to the State line of California is a sandy, rocky, volcanic desert, the dry desolation being relieved only by a few springs and seeps. In all that extent, Columbus and Candalaria were the only two towns touched by the travelers, and business is only done in the latter. In places varying from 20 to 75 miles north and south of the line of route taken by the party some business is being done, but it is but little. Four
