

THANKFUL FOR SMALL FAVORS.

Delegates, Homeward Bound,
Draw Up Resolutions of Appreciation.

INTERESTED IN IRRIGATION.

Call Attention to What It Has Done for
The Barren Stretches of the Great West.

Secy. Harris of the Commercial club received this morning from Minneapolis a copy of resolutions adopted by the delegates of Minnesota, North Dakota and Montana, while en route from Ogden to St. Paul, after attending the National Irrigation Congress. In the resolutions the delegates say:

"We have been deeply interested in the work of the irrigation congress, and profoundly impressed with the importance of irrigation of arid lands, not only to the states and territories in which they are situated, but to the older states of the American Union. We have seen the wonderful results of irrigation in Utah, Idaho and Montana, and have viewed magnificent valleys of vast extent which can be made richly productive by proper control and treatment of the water supply. The conservation and distribution of water in the great central states of our Union will not only build there prosperous communities of happy homes, but will also go far toward settling many serious economic problems now pressing upon the public attention in the older states, and will make markets for the manufactures and productions of those states more available and more valuable than any to be had in foreign lands. We believe that this great movement should have attention in all of the states, and that the public should be educated to appreciate, understand and assist in the beneficial work of irrigation. We wish at this time to take notice of this great work in the west where the valleys are being settled and beginnings made for the future maintenance of the men and women who shall there make their homes in the assurance that irrigation will provide them with the harvest, on which will rest alike the prosperity of the country and the business development of the whole northwest, also.

"Resolved, That the courtesy of the Oregon Short Line is hereby acknowledged with fullest appreciation, and in this connection it is well to emphasize the fact that the Oregon Short Line affords to the traveler one of the greatest continuous object lessons of the benefits of irrigation that the country affords. The Short Line passes through the country of the Snake river and the Shoshone desert in Idaho, where a barren stretch of land is being transformed into a great garden of agricultural and horticultural production; it also traverses the northern district of the state of Idaho, affords a view of the large irrigation projects along the Bear river and in the Salt Lake valley.

"Resolved, That we thank the citizens of Ogden and of the State of Utah for their generous and cordial hospitality, and for the complete arrangements made to entertain and inform the members of the congress, we were made to know that we were welcome, and among friends. Our acknowledgments are also due to the Weber club of Ogden, who have given us a most interesting and profitable association for general courtesies.

"Resolved, That the hospitality extended by the Salt Lake Commercial club on the occasion of a visit, made by the delegates to Salt Lake City is recalled as one of the most pleasant incidents of the trip, coupled as it was with a car ride about the city that was thoroughly enjoyed from the standpoint of pleasure and instructive observation."

The committee on the resolutions, part of which are given above, are H. V. Jones, Minneapolis; C. H. Graves, Duluth; Wilbur H. Howard, St. Paul; N. G. Larimore, Larimore, N. D.; W. H. Robinson, Mayville, N. D.

PRIZE FOR IDAHO FALLS.

Col. T. G. Webber Returns and Talks
About Prosperity in Gem State.

Col. T. G. Webber returned last evening from his trip to Idaho Falls. To a "News" representative this morning the colonel said that he was much impressed with the prosperous condition of the country especially around Idaho Falls. The crops all seemed to be in the best possible condition, particularly the wheat, and abundant harvests are assured. The town is growing rapidly with the influx of new population, and buildings of every kind are being erected. The rock is hauled from extensive quarries 10 or 12 miles distant, and is a sandstone excellent for building purposes. The city has a good system of waterworks and electric lighting, and is progressive. Col. Webber noted the progress being made in the new sugar factory, which promises to be one of the foremost institutions of the kind in the west. He was much pleased with his trip.

BROWN AND BRADLEY.

Former Senator and Woman Associate
To Face the Court on Tuesday.

Upon motion of Dist. Atty. Elchorn, Judge Morse this morning ordered that Senator Arthur Brown and Mrs. Annie M. Bradley appear before him next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for arraignment upon the two charges of adultery which have been pending against them for some time. From all indications it is believed that the cases will now come to trial and will not be settled out of court, as was anticipated when Senator Brown and his wife caught up their family differences not long ago.

CAUGHT IN IDAHO.

Smooth Swindler Who Hit the Kenyon
Hotel Nabbed at Pocatello.

Sheriff Emery today received word from Sheriff Griffith, of Pocatello, Idaho, of the capture in that city last night of C. W. Sloane, who is wanted here on the charge of issuing a fictitious check. On Aug. 31, Sloane, who was stopping at the Kenyon hotel, accompanied by a woman who passed as his wife, gave Mr. Porter a check for $150 in payment of his hotel bill and money advanced, amounting in all to $75.50. Mr. Porter took the check and said that he would pay Sloane the balance which he called for after he heard from the bank on which it was drawn in Atlantic City, N. J., as to whether or not it was good.

The check was sent through the clearing house, but before it was returned marked "no good." Sloane and the woman left town. Upon receiving the information that the check was fictitious, Mr. Porter swore to a complaint against Sloane, and the officers have been trying to locate him ever since. Now that he has been caught, required papers will be issued today and Sheriff Emery will leave tonight to bring the man back here to stand trial.

"Resolved, That we thank the citizens of Ogden and of the State of Utah for their generous and cordial hospitality, and for the complete arrangements made to entertain and inform the members of the congress, we were made to know that we were welcome, and among friends. Our acknowledgments are also due to the Weber club of Ogden, who have given us a most interesting and profitable association for general courtesies.

"Resolved, That the hospitality extended by the Salt Lake Commercial club on the occasion of a visit, made by the delegates to Salt Lake City is recalled as one of the most pleasant incidents of the trip, coupled as it was with a car ride about the city that was thoroughly enjoyed from the standpoint of pleasure and instructive observation."

WHERE IS HE?

W. S. Little Wanting for Collecting Money Under False Pretenses.

W. S. Little, a former employee of the Salt Lake City Soda Water company, is wanted on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Little, it appears, has been covering his old ground of late, representing to the people of Nevada that he was still in the employ of the soda water company and on the strength of it taking orders and incidentally collecting a little money on the side. How much he has collected is not known, but complaints have reached the office in this city to the effect that in several cases he has collected as much as $10, without even the return of a bottle of soda. Information concerning the whereabouts of this enterprising young man would be gladly received both in this city and in Nevada.

MR. SUTHERLAND MAKES DENIAL.

Declares He Was Maliciously Misrepresented by Salt Lake Telegram.

MAKES A PUBLIC STATEMENT.

Claims Falshoods Are Such as to Take the Paper Out of the Classification of Decent Journalism.

Editor Deseret News:
The Salt Lake Telegram of yesterday has what purports to be the particulars of what is called a secret meeting of "James Mormon Workers" of the Second precinct. I am represented as being present and taking a prominent part in the meeting.

"It is true I attended a meeting of gentlemen at Mr. Hutchinson's office on last Monday night. There were both Gentiles and Mormons present. They were sympathizers with the effort to make Mr. W. F. James mayor of this city. This discussion, however, was the subject of discussion. The report in the Telegram, however, as to what occurred, is a gross misstatement. For instance, it is said that one object of discussion was as to how Republicans who favored Odell or Knox could be kept from voting in primaries, that "Congressman Sutherland" in this discussion, and declared that if a man is a Republican and is entitled to vote in a district primary the only thing to do is to "bluff him out." It is further claimed that when it came to the discussion of the Rio Grande vote it was stated that a certain Rio Grande employee was against James, and that Mr. Sutherland, who is attorney for the Rio Grande, asked who the man was and promised to fix the railroad by having him transferred or disciplined. These statements in regard to an absolutely false, and my judgment is they are deliberately and maliciously so. If not, their publication manifests upon the part of the editor of the Telegram such a careless disregard of the rights of the citizen to be secure against the publication of unfounded and malicious falsehoods as to take the paper out of the classification of decent journalism.

With reference to the first statement, what occurred was this:
It was suggested that in one district there was reason to believe that a number of saloon keepers and non-residents of the district would be run into the primary to control its action. I among others was asked what might be done under these circumstances, and I stated that if a man presented himself at the primary, claimed he was a Republican and resident of the district, that ordinarily would be taken as conclusive, but that if any man so presenting himself was in fact not a resident of the district and not a Republican, not entitled to vote in the primary, he would have the consciousness that he was in the wrong and that if he were challenged and a firm stand taken against him he would probably himself not press the matter.

With reference to the second statement, the name of a gentleman was suggested in one of the districts whom it was feared might be unfavorable to Mr. James. I inquired his name, was given it, and asked where he was working, was informed that he was in the employ of the Rio Grande company, and was informed, and there the matter wholly dropped. No suggestion whatever was made that the man was a Republican or an effort made in that direction, and I may add that no such thought was entertained by me or any one else at the meeting so far as I know.

THE SKELTON CONCERT.

Well Known Violinist Scores a Triumph at the Presbyterian Church.

The First Presbyterian church was well filled last evening, on the occasion of the testimonial concert given to George E. Skelton, who has for so long been the violinist of the choir. The artist appeared to most excellent advantage, and his powers of interpretation and skill in technique and expression were admirably displayed. In response to one encore, Mr. Skelton played "Alice, Where Art Thou," and captured his audience by his skill in portraying the delicate sentiment of the song. Jacob's Hungarian Dance No. 5, and the Wilhelm's Romanza were excellently given, and the violin obligatos were an indication of the skill of the soloist. Mrs. A. D. Melvin, soprano, and Mrs. John Reed, eleocutionist, are always favorites with Salt Lake audiences, and were handsomely received. Miss Isabel Morahan made a very pleasing impression in the aria "Joan of Arc," and Miss Jennie Sande, pianist, Fred Graham, tenor, and the Apollo quartet, were well appreciated. The accompaniments were Mrs. L. G. Burton, Miss Hattie Wishard, and Mrs. Fred Graham. The entire evening was most enjoyed.

JUMPED FROM A CAR.

Miss Elizabeth Rausch Has Her Skull
Fractured as a Result.

While returning from a dance last night Miss Elizabeth Rausch of 243 Third East street, jumped from a rapidly moving car, and was thrown to the ground with such violence as to cause a slight fracture of the skull. The accident occurred shortly after 12 o'clock midnight, at a point on Third South between Third and Fourth East streets, and was occasioned by the car going past the street at which the young lady desired to get out, causing her to get somewhat excited, and to jump before it had come to a full stop. Miss Rausch was rendered unconscious, and the car immediately returned to East Temple street, where a doctor was summoned and the young lady's injuries attended to. At last reports she was doing nicely.

PENALTY PAID ON THE CALLOWS

TO EXAMINE BRAIN.

Eight minutes after the trap fell Keffor was pronounced dead and his body was cut down and taken in charge by the coroner and a number of physicians who held a secret autopsy for the purpose of examining the head and brain matter of the murderer.

Not a hitch occurred during the execution and Sheriff Stough is being warmly complimented. This was his first hanging and while everything passed off all right he does not care for another execution.

MOST ATROCIOUS CRIME.

The crime committed by Keffor was one of the most atrocious in the history of Wyoming. Keffor was employed by A. C. Warren, the stage tender. One night in December Keffor, who had been drinking, attacked Warren in his cabin at Derby station. Warren was asleep in his bed when Keffor entered and fired the contents of a shotgun into his body. Death was probably sudden, for there was no evidence of Warren's having resisted Keffor. The body was dragged to the center of the room, the chairs and table overturned and other things were done to make it appear that the killing was the result of a struggle. Warren kept a small sum of money in the house and this was taken by Keffor. The murderer went to the nearest ranchhouse and confessed the killing, but said it was done in self-defense. He was twice tried, his defense being insanity.

Keffor was 35 years of age and was born in Franklin county, Kan. His father, two brothers and two sisters live in Glencoe, Washington county, Or.

From an injury to his head received several years ago Keffor had been insane at times and efforts were made to obtain a commutation of the death sentence on this ground but Gov. Chatfield refused clemency.

BALL TONIGHT.

There is no excitement here, although the town is filled with people from the country. A big ball will be given in the Opera House.

HIS BRAIN NORMAL.

At noon today a number of the leading physicians of Lander held an autopsy on the remains of James Keffor, the murderer who was executed this morning.

The brain matter and head were examined closely and the verdict reached that Keffor's brain was normal, thus disproving the statements of Keffor and his friends that he was insane and he was not responsible for the crime.

The courts never took any stock in Keffor's claim of insanity, but there were many who believed the authorities were executing an irresponsible person. The autopsy will dispel all doubts.

THE DANCE OF DEATH.

Keffor Engaged in Riotous Revelry and Story Telling Through the Night.

Butte, Mont., Sept. 25.—A special to the Miner from Lander, Wyo., says: James Keffor, the murderer of A. C. Warren, spent his last evening on earth in riotous revelry. Keffor had been on the verge of collapse all day, but last evening he suddenly braced up and requested that Jim Dillard, charged with the murder of Frank Bryan and Ross Stringer, be permitted to play a mouth organ. The music was played and Keffor passed away the time. The request was granted and for several hours Keffor danced and sang to his heart's content. Finally, tired of this sort of thing, he requested that the music be stopped and death watch and prisoners in story telling until far into the night.

SUIT AGAINST RIO GRANDE.

James Holmstrom Seeks to Recover
$20,000 for Injuries Received.

James Holmstrom today filed suit in the district court against the Rio Grande Western Railway company to recover $20,000 as damages for personal injuries alleged to have been received on Nov. 4, 1902, at Castle Gate, Carbon county. It is alleged that plaintiff was crossing a railroad bridge near Castle Gate when defendant negligently allowed a car, used by the public as a footbridge, and that he was run down by an engine and received injuries which resulted in the loss of his left leg. He, therefore, asks judgment in the above amount.

Where it is Epidemic.

TUMOR CAUSES DEATH.

Wife of Peter M. Clegg of Tooele Passes Away After an Operation.

Mrs. Agnes Clegg, wife of Peter M. Clegg, one of the leading citizens of Tooele, died this morning at the Holy Cross hospital, in this city, following an operation for the removal of an immense tumor. The deceased was formerly Miss Agnes McLaws, and was a lovely young woman with a host of friends. She was born in this city Dec. 31, 1864, and was therefore in her thirty-sixth year. The remains will be shipped to Tooele City, where the funeral will be held on Sunday. This is the second wife of Peter M. Clegg, who was killed in the Mexican war. His first wife, Mrs. Edith Clegg, having passed away a number of years ago.

TREASURER WENT WRONG.

Millard County Official Arrested at Fillmore for Embezzlement.

(Special to the "News.")
Fillmore, Utah, Sept. 25.—Frank Rogers, ex-county treasurer of Millard county, was arrested today by Sheriff Beauregard on a charge of embezzling and appropriating to his own use $1,245.48 of the public moneys of Millard county. Mr. Rogers is a young man who had the misfortune to meet with an accident at the saw mill in the mountains east of this city several years ago. He was taken to the hospital, but he never recovered. He is now in the hospital at Salt Lake where his leg was amputated. When he returned home the citizens elected him city treasurer.

of this city, which position he held for a period of one year and gave good satisfaction. He was then elected county treasurer and his accounts appeared correct during the first part of his term. The last year, however, he frequented the saloons some and spent considerable money there. It is also reported that he was addicted to the habit of gambling, and when the time arrived for a settlement with the county it was ascertained that he was short the amount above stated. His bondsmen have been called on to settle the shortage, which they are doing and it seems to be the opinion of several of them that he should be prosecuted criminally. This morning G. R. Huntsman who originally signed his bond, swore to a complaint prepared by County Atty. Melville, which was filed in Justice Jackson's court. The defendant will be arraigned this afternoon.

All of the samples except four were found to be clean and free from sediment and foreign odor.

THE ST. LOUIS FAIR.

Commission Holds a Meeting and Discusses That Exhibit.

The Utah Louisiana Purchase Exposition commission held a lengthy session today and discussed the plans and specifications for the Utah building and exhibits. The plans for the Utah building were not approved definitely as it was deemed advisable to have the plans for the Utah building meet with the managers of the exposition at St. Louis and settle some details in connection with its construction before finally adopting the plans. The commission approved the plans and estimates submitted at its last meeting by Mr. Whitaker for the Utah exhibit in the Agricultural building.

Mr. Whitaker was instructed to continue the work of photographing the most prominent scenery throughout the state, the pictures to be used in adorning the walls of the state building. He will leave for St. Louis next Monday and will make all the final arrangements for Utah's exhibit. Mr. Hoyt Sherman, a member of the commission, will continue to act as secretary and it is expected that Samuel Newhouse will also be there at that date, and the three together will complete all the details of the display. The board will meet in regular session on next Thursday.
