No more delightful affair could have een desired than the func-tion given on Monday night been tion given on Monday r in honor of Major and Mrs. G. Downey. A committee composed of two score or more of their friends arranged the affair, and the details were carried out with artistic and delightful results. 'The Ladies' Literary club rooms, were brilliant with the national colors, in flags and bunting and emblems suggstive of the army and the Phillippines were used as favors in the cotillion. Eight sets of these were used, among them being army buttons, tiny silk flags of all nations, kimonas and oriental caps with a shower of carnations for Mrs. Downey, given in a flower figure by all the dancers. Mr. Harry Shearman and Miss Maud Thorne led in the cotillion. The or-chestra was stationed behind a screen of palms, and the rooms downstairs in which refreshments were served were prettily decorated. A table in a cor-ner of the dancing hall held the favors and presiding over them were Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, Miss Hanauer, Miss Sprague, and Miss Kimball, The hosts were C. R. Alley, J. M. Bidwell, J.
