CHANGE MARRIAGE DECREE

Gen. Brooke's Hule Was Arbitrary, and Against Church Marriages-Now Official Appointments Go.

[Early Dispatches.]

Havana, May 24 .- Except among Cuban politicians there is comparatively little interest in the approaching elections. This is shown by the very light registration. One of the worst features of the situation is the fact that as soon as a party sees it is not likely to win In a particular quarter, it withdraws its candidate and declares that everything has been arranged unfairly with a view of defeating him. The Democratic Union and the Republican parties have both withdrawn their candidates in Havana, leaving the election a practical walk-over for the National party. On the other hand, at Matanzas and Santa Clara the Republicans are likely to have easy victories, and the Nationalhave easy victories, and the National-lists there are objecting to the election laws. Santiago will be controlled by the Conservative party, of whom Deme-trius Castillo is the leader. Pinar del Rio has only a National ticket and this only applies to the mayoralty. General Wood has issued a modifi-cation of the electoral law for the city of Hayana we that among the council-of Havana, so that among the council men the minority will be represented The city will be divided into six dis-tricts, each having four councillors. No one will be allowed to vote for more than three candidates, thus assuring to the minority at least six representa-tives, In view of this arrangement anther week will be allowed for nomina

Mgr. Sharretti delivered an address,

"The decree of General Brooke," said the bishop, "created and maintains a useless conflict between the civil and the ecclesiastical law, and good Catho-lics consider it an imposition, forcing upon them, as it does, an empty ceremony. The decree was a gratuitous attempt to restrict liberty and it is the direct cause of embarrassment and of increased expense to Catholics when ontracting marriage.

The probability is that the decree will be repealed sufficiently to allow the marriage ceremony to be legally perormed by any clergyman in regular or-

San Francisco, May 24.—Julius Ar-noid, senior member of the law firm of Keighley & Co., of London, England, has been arrested here by United States Marshal Shine on a warrant Stephen Kelsey, one of the stalwart Pioneers who entered the Salt Lake Vaffey in 1847, passed away at his home States Marshal State on a warrant charging him with embezzlement committed in England. The man is wanted for an alleged theft of £4,500 from an estate which was placed in the keeping of the firm of which he is a member. in Paris, Bear Lake county, Idaho, on Tuesday last. He had nearly attained to the allotted age of man, having been born in Ohio, on December 23, 1839. He received a fair education while young, and in 1842 removed to Nauvoo and to Winter Quarters in 1846. When Brigham dition and is willing to go back to face those who accuse him.

Arnold sailed from London under the assumed name of McKay on March 24. He will be brought before United States District Judge Dehaven today and if he offers no resistance to extradition he Young, with a small band of men, turned their faces to the west, Mr. Kelsey, although but 17 years of age, joined the party, arriving in Utah on July 23rd, 1847. The first thing that was done was to dam up City Creek and flood the valley with water, as the encrustation of the surface of the earth was so hard that a plow could not penetrate it. A crop of potatoes was planted immediately but, they were very meager, the season being so far gone when they were planted.

Mr. Kelsey had not been a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints up to this time, but he joined the Church soon after arriving in Utah. He was ever ready and energertic, and participated in the hard work incident to the early life in the valles. Mr. Kelsey returned to the States with Brigham Young and as went to California in 1850, and visite the gold districts, where he succeede n washing out $500 in gold dust bout two months. On his return Utah the party he was with were et tached by Indians and for severa hours there was a flerce encounter be ween the white and the red skins. It 1850 Mr. Kelsey married Miss Lydio Snyder, one of the brave, true women of the early days, and up to the tim of his death, she was his constant com-panion and wise and helpful counselor.

Mr. Kelsey and his wife were in the party which went to Bear Lake, Ida., in 1864, headed by Abostle C. C. Rich. Untold hardships were endured during the process of subduing that country, but a strong and brave man was at their head, and his words greatly light-ened their burden and their sacrifices were at last rewarded and that coun-try is now one of the gem spots of the Rocky Mountain belt.

ocky Mountain belt. Mr. Kelsey was a faithful member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, ever holding himself in readiness to do anything that came to hand and always quick in responding to the ery of want. The National Live Stock association has taken a hand in the fight against the holdup game so popular these days murder?" he was asked.
"I was in Ogden and expect to be able to prove it. The officers say that if I can prove that they can establish no case against me. I expect an affidavit from my wife to the effect that I was in Ogden on the night of the murder and I met in Ogden on that night a traveling optician named Farrington. I sold him a horse and if I can find him he will be another witness for me to with State governments in the west, called "sanitary inspection," and which is played by political pegs on one side and stock shippers on the other, says the Denver Stockman. The fee system in government, no matter to what branch applied, has always proven a bad thing for the government and a big thing for the political heeler. The practice of collecting fees from stockmen for examining their stock and giving a certificate of good health, was originally a protective measure an well enough, but in these modern day ors to inspect all the interstate ship ments without cost to the shipper. This pection, that should certainly be suf-cient and attempts on the part of tate officials to collect fees for work than a system of blackmail and not be tolerated. It may be necessary go to the courts to have the practice stopped, but it is believed that it can be stopped without this method being resored to and the bulletin soon to be issued will contain some valuable hints
