Commencement Exercises-Addresses by Dr. Fanner and Eishop O. F. Whitney. Special Correspondence,

The comencement exercises of the Oncida Stake academy were held in the academy building, Thursday and Fri-day, May 25 and 26, and were very largely attended. Supt. of Church Schools Dr. J. M. Tanner addressed the students.

Never did Dr. Tanner speak better in Preston. His speech was short but interesting and impressive, emphasiz-ing the value of patience. The lack of patience, said be, causes one to throw down his burden before he reaches the desired goal. "Can't walt" makes poor farmers, poor busi-ness men, poor teachers.
