duck, or goose has been permitted to make an acquaintance with hill or valley of Mount Athos territory. A traveler was startled by the abrupt question, "What sort of human creatures are women?" The very idea of woman, whether as mother, sister, or sister-in-law, is almost lost. To all woman-haters, to bachelors of over forty years' standing, to all men who seek refuge from the wiles and ways of the opposite sex, this region can be safely recommended as a haven of refuge.—Ex.

The Mansfield-Fisk suit came up again on Saturday, at the Yorkville police court. Both parties were present. After some sparring between the attorneys Miss Mansfield was placed upon the witness stand. She testified that Walter named King had left her employment and went into the service of Flak. An affidavit made by King had been served upon her; it was false. Portions of the affidavit which have been already published were read in court. On the cross examination of Miss Mansfield, on the application of Beach, Flak was permitted to leave the court on account of a loudness of voice. Mansfield testified further as to her past history. She was born in Boston; is twenty-four years old; was married in San Francisco, 1864, to Frank Lawler, who is still living. A good deal of argument here followed between the counsel, one side for and the other objecting to the course of examination of the latter protesting against the preparation of Flak scandal for the public. She met Flak at Boston; a friend had given her apartments in the American club house; she had received letters from Flak and continued, "I have yet some of the letters; how many I get have I not received, but suppose I have five hundred left. I had some personal property when I got acquainted with Flak. I had no bank account, but I certainly was not poor. I was always well dressed. For I was not supported by Flak personally while at the American club house. The money for my support came to me through stock operations carried on by Wm. H. Marston with money furnished by Flak. The money thus received amounted to $200 and $300 a week. Flak lived in the club house I left to live at Jersey City. I received money while there through the Erie railway from Flak, who lived there with me. After further testimony the case was adjourned till Dec. 2nd. Peter B. Sweeney, who will be a witness in the case, was present.

We are fast sinking into the sea and yellow leaf of national existence, if we may credit the opinion of a writer in the Posen Gazette. This gentleman is a German, and we need scarcely say the first German who has assumed us of our impending dissolution. He says there are only two powers in Europe—Russia and Germany. "England is a declining nation." He proceeds to say: "The isolation of the aristocratic class from the rest of the English nation is, he thinks, an unmistakable sign of its coming fall. England has abandoned its interference in Continental politics since the Crimean and Mexican wars, probably because she feels that her vital forces are being exhausted. There is no alternative for her but either to ally herself to Germany, or to perish with her antiquated prejudices and obsolete institutions. It is comforting to know that Austria is doomed. But Posen, what art thou? Celebrated, it is said, for a peculiar sausage, cheese, ham, or drink, that makes the renown of its places in Fatherland, while England gave birth to railroad, telegraphing, ocean steaming, penny postage, exploration of the world, and the millions of machinery, and gave birth to political liberty. Avant, land of sausages.—Courier Journal.

According to a Universalist paper, there is a tendency becoming manifest in that denomination towards a "new departure," and some of its members are inclined to go back to the orthodox dogma that sin does not perish with the body and there is punishment after death.

A man who passes through life without marrying is like a mansion left by the builder unfinished. The half that is completed runs to decay by neglect, or becomes at best but a sorry remnant, wanting the addition of that which makes the whole useful.
