Governors of Western States Signify Their Intention of Supporting The Proposition Heartily.

At the meeting of the directors of the fair two weeks instead of having it accelers which was driven by Engineer last one week, as hereiofore. This course was decided on in order to fully carry out the idea of an inland em-pire, or an exposition in which the in-termountain states will join. The secpire, or an exposition in which the inermountain states will join. The secthe governors of those states inviting their co-operation in the scheme. Those taking part will be Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Nevada and western Colora-do. Some assurances have already been received from those states indicating that the project is favored and that a hearty response may be looked for.

The exact date for the fair has not yet been decided on, but it is stated that it will include the regular dates of the regular state fair. In the mean-time a great many changes are being Faith. planned, with an enlargement of the pranned, with an enhangement of the grandstand, new poultry and other buildings, and a miniature mountain for the mineral exhibit. No expense or care will be sparred to get the best shows obtainable, and to make the

BRIDWELL INQUIRY MOVES FORWARD A PEG

Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds Tells of His Methods Of Paying the Men.

Under the system of George M. Eridwell, superintendent of buildings and grounds, it developed at the nquiry made by the board of education last night that some bills had been paid twice. In his explanation of the matter, Bridwell undertook to show that he was the loser and not the Payable vouchers Nos. 4842 and 4941 For the latter part of August and the first part of September show that W. H. Nichols received payment twice for furnishing plans for the superin-tendent of some manual training work. The amount was $51.75. Bridwell said that he had paid Nichols before the amount was passed upon because Nichols needed the money. Then he having forgotten that Nichols had been Charles Standrod is Run Down by Engine in O. engine, Charles A. Standrod, an O. S. L. engineer, was struck down by a passing switch engine, receiving injuries that resulted in his death two hours later. Engineer Standrod had been called for duty, and preparatory to his run had gone to the lockers beneath the coal chute on Eighth North and Third West streets for the purpose of changing his clothes. As he emerged from the lockers and started to cross the the lockers and started to cross the tracks he failed to see a switch engine coming towards him, or to heed its warning whistle. He was thrown across the rail, the wheels passing over and crushing the right log and left foot be-fore the engine could be stopped. Fellow workmen rushed to the in-jured man's assistance and gave such aid as could be given until the arrival of the company physicians. Standrod of the company physicilans. Standrod was removed to thee Groves L. D. S. hospital, but could not survive the ex-treme loss of blood and died shortly after 2 o'clock. Eye-witnesses to the accident state that the oncoming switch excident when was driven by Engineer Third West street. He is survived by a wife and five children, Edith, Vera, Ada, Leonard and Melvin, and his fath-er and mother, Mr. and Mrs. E. Olsen-Standrod of Ogden.

having forgotten that Nichols had been paid-once before. Bridwell said that he had paid Nichols the first time out of, his personal funds. Nichols paid back the $51.75 according to Bridwell as soon as it was discovered and this squared him on this account.

as soon as it was discovered and this squared him on this account. From the testimony it appears that Nichols was pard three times for some work which was performed for the board in September. The first time Bridwell paid Nichols in cash because he did not have a check. Then he paid him a check for the same account. Nichols put a bill into the clerk of the board for the same item and was paid again. Bridwell was unable to ex-tain this transaction further than that he is the loser as well as the board. Nichols will be called later by the board and this transaction will be gone into in detail. Mr. Balley forced Bridwell to admit that he had held the payroll which would have settled this matter in a minute. Bridwell said that it never occurred to him to consult this docu-ment.

In regard to his manner of keeping In regard to his manner of keeping accounts he admitted that he did not go over his checks monthly to see if his account was right. His own bank book he said had been lost a number of times and when he could not find it he paid the men in cash but kept no receipt of it. T. J. Bridwell, his brother, was paid union wages for double time, the vouchers showed, but it was admitted that he did not belong to the union. E.

that he did not belong to the union. E. H. Evans, a foreman, who is a union man, did not receive double time for overtime although he is a union man. These things were brought out by Mr. Thomas in going over a number of vouchers. The investigation will be taken up again on Tuesday evening.
