

CITY CANVASS IS COMPLETED.

Council Goes Over Returns of Third and Fifth Precincts and Ends Its Work.

CHANGES MADE NOT MATERIAL

Vote in the Thirty-fifth District is Announced—The Figures in Detail.

The returns of the Third and Fifth precincts were canvassed by the city council last night, thus completing the entire canvass. There were a number of changes, but none of particular importance. The vote on city officials in the Thirty-fifth district which has not heretofore been announced is as follows: Critchlow 137, Buckwalter 118, Moreton 79, Branel 153, Hutchinson 118, Hiles 74, Calne 149, Beattie 153, Swenson 74, Cunningham 155, Vigus 147, Alf 73.

The official vote in the two precincts, resulting from the canvass is as follows:

THE XXTH CENTURY SEWING MACHINE

The highest type of FAMILY SEWING MACHINE—the embodiment of SIMPLICITY and UTILITY—the ACME of CONVENIENCE.

Of its many valuable and unique features, The AUTOMATIC TENSION RELEASER commands notice. It is a veritable boon. Raising the presser-foot automatically releases the thread tension and allows the work to be FREELY WITHDRAWN—no breaking of needles possible. Depressing it instantly restores correct tension.

CITY OFFICIALS HAVE LOVE FEAST.

Councilmen, Members-Elect and Other Officers Enjoy Sumptuous Spread.

PRaise the Administration.

Say Present One is the Best the City Has Ever Had—Good Wishes For Victor.

After the city council had completed the canvass of the election returns last evening, a banquet was given by the finance committee in the large office of Mayor Morris, of which all councilmen, city officials and officials-elect present at the meeting partook. The affair developed into a regular love feast and all of the speakers paid the most complimentary tributes to Mayor Morris and his administration. Representatives of the three parties in the recent election were there, and all agreed that the present administration has been the most successful in the history of the city. They also predicted much success for the incoming administration.

There were 27 at the table, which was beautifully decorated by Franklin and contained a sumptuous spread, consisting of turkey, ham, salads, pickles, nuts, fruit, ice cream, cake, cigars, coffee and other liquid refreshments. Regret was expressed that Mayor Morris was unable to be present, owing to the serious illness of his daughter, who was recently operated upon. In his absence, President Hewlett acted as toastmaster and in his opening remarks stated that the present administration had been the best the city had ever had, and that it established a record to be looked up to. He predicted success for the new administration.

SELF-PRaise BY HARRIS.

City Treasurer Fisher Harris was the first speaker, and he made a hit by referring to his successful administration. He felt safe in saying that he had given the employees of his office less trouble than any treasurer the city had ever had as he had never got in their way to retard their work. He expressed satisfaction with the associations he had had with other city officials and regretted very much that he and others would have to retire from office and be deprived of the emoluments thereof.

CRITCLOW HAPPY.

City Recorder Critchlow was next and said that he was also sorry that the "rollers" had been put under him and the treasurer. Mr. Harris objected to being placed in the same category as the recorder, and wanted it distinctly understood that he was not defeated at the recent election. To this Mr. Critchlow replied that he was aware that Mr. Harris had not been defeated at the polls, and stated that it was simply because he was unable to get a nomination on the ticket. In closing his remarks he expressed the wish that the new administration would be as successful as the present one had been.

HARTENSTEIN LOYAL.

Councilman Hartenstein in an emphatic manner pledged his loyalty to Mayor-elect Thompson. He said that he considered Mayor Morris the best mayor Salt Lake had ever had, but he hoped that Mayor Thompson would be successful in his administration, and stated that he would be just as loyal to him as he would have been to Mayor Morris. He had the latter been re-elected, Councilmen Martin and Ellick expressed regret that some of the members of this council were to retire, as their association had always been agreeable society, regardless of political faith, and the scenes enacted in the council chamber.

BLAMES THE PEOPLE.

Assistant City Attorney Branel created much laughter at the expense of himself, Mr. Critchlow and Mr. Harris, whom he said were compelled to bow to the will of the people of Salt Lake and retire from office. He said he would miss the nice warm office particularly during the winter months, and that he would also miss the stipend attached to the office.

OTHER SPEAKERS.

Among the others who spoke were Councilmen Fernstrom, Tuddenham, Morris and E. H. Davis. Rev. David Land and Water Commissioner Ben D. Luce, Recorder-elect J. B. Moreton, Councilman-elect John Holley and representatives of the Herald and special ad. The enjoyable affair was brought to a close in time for those present to catch the last car for their homes.

HAD A NARROW ESCAPE.

Boys in Burning Barn Rescued by Plucky Woman—Barn Destroyed.

About 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the barn of John M. Whitaker, on Garfield avenue, was destroyed by fire. The cause of the blaze was the dangerous combination of youngsters and matches.

The boys were Eugene Whitaker, Bert Dean and another small boy. They got into the barn and began lighting matches. The straw and other inflammable stuff quickly ignited, and almost instantly there was a big blaze. The boys were in the loft and were unable to get out. Kenneth Dallas, 13 years of age, saw the flames and yelled lustily for help. A woman in the employ of the Dallas household rushed to the assistance of the imprisoned youngsters, and at the risk of being severely burned, carried them out of the burning barn.

An alarm was turned in, but the run was such a long one that the barn was destroyed before the fire apparatus arrived. The distance from headquarters is about four miles, but the run was made in about twenty minutes. The firemen did good work in saving the adjoining property.

The building was valued at $600 and was insured, but the loss to Mr. Whitaker will be upwards of $1,000.

Sells More of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of All Others Put Together.

The following letter from a locality where Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is well known shows by the unprecedented demand for it that the medicine sells on its own merits. The following is a true story as told by Mr. Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do of all other lines I have on my shelves put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee, I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results." For sale by all druggists.

New Power Company to Erect Plants in the Cottonwood Canyons.

The Inter-Mountain Power company of Nevada is credited with intending to expend $750,000 in reservoirs and power plants in the Big and Little Cottonwood canyons near this city, to supply power to the mines and smelters in this valley. The company has just filed here a deed of trust to the Capital Savings & Trust company of Columbus, O., dated July 1, 1905, securing first mortgage, 4 per cent 25-year gold bonds, of $500 and $1,000 each, due Aug. 1, 1930, the bonds to be used to pay cost of construction and equipment of the company's plant and system.

The Inter-Mountain company includes these Utah mining men: J. J. Chambers is president; W. J. Craig, vice-president; C. O. Ellingwood, treasurer; Bismark Snyder, secretary, and these with Gibson Snyder and E. J. Raddatz constitute the directorate. The capitalization is $1,500,000.

A majority of the reservoirs and distributing pipes which it is the intention to utilize are on the forest reserves, and applications for the rights are now on file with the agricultural department. As soon as these are granted, active construction work will be commenced.

LUKE GOT THERE.

Collected Judgment on a Note Barred By Statute of Limitations.

A judgment on a note executed 15 years ago and which had been barred by the statute of limitations for nine years, is the basis of a suit filed in the district court by Arthur B. Manassa against Studebaker Brothers' company. The complaint alleges that judgment was rendered against Manassa in favor of Studebaker Brothers by Justice McCune of Murray for the sum of $236.57, which the justice found to be due on the note executed as stated above and on which Manassa was simply an indorser. It is claimed that the note is barred by the statute of limitations, that it was executed in this city where Manassa resided at the time and hence the case whatever the said judgment was rendered without any notice or service upon Manassa and hence the same is null and void. Notwithstanding these facts, Francis O. Lake who represented Studebaker Brothers, had an abstract of said judgment filed in the district court in Boxelder county, where Manassa now resides, and levied upon certain credits belonging to him of the value of $335.57. Judgment is accordingly asked against Studebaker Brothers for that amount.

AMUSEMENTS.

Plays come and plays go, but "In Old Kentucky" goes on forever. Last night it was again given at the Salt Lake Theater and, if possible, it drew a heavier house than ever before in its history. This, after 13 years of regular presentation. The same old applause greeted the sensational developments, the Pookananny band, which is unusually clever this year, the negro organ in the band, the rescue of the hero, the horse-racing episode of Madge, etc., etc. The success was so pronounced and the enthusiasm so frenzied that the management announced from the stage a popular priced matinee this afternoon which will no doubt go to an equally overflowing house. Tonight ends the engagement.

The best instances of acting in the performance were on the part of Marion Shirley as Madge, Mr. French as Neb, the old negro, Mr. Bradley as the colonel, Mr. Layton as Frank, one of the heroes, and Mr. Duncanson as Joe, the other one.

The sale for "The Sho Gun," which plays tomorrow afternoon and evening at the Theater, is now going on at the box office.

The last performance of "The Jolly Grass Widows" will be given at the Lyric tonight. "The Washington Society Girls" open tomorrow afternoon.

"The Knobs of Tennessee" went on at the Grand last night, and proved a veritable feast for the gallery gods, who wants his killings often and fast, and refused to accept even a hero unless he has a bowie knife or a cocked and loaded gun in his hand. The play goes back to the illicit stills of Tennessee for its inspiration, and of course with moonshiners, detectives, negro villains, white villains, heroic daughters who love their lovers better than gold, and a mother who shoots her own son before she will allow him to be hung by the officers, there is no end of excitement. The company presenting the play is far so far as its ability goes. "The Knobs of Tennessee" remains until the end of the week, with a Saturday matinee.
