SESSION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

Solons Hold That Providence is Responsible for High Waters. And City Not Amenable.

SPEEDING AUTOISTS FINED.

Farmington Constable Stops Street Racing Auto Drivers—Justice Wishes He Was Polyglot.

OGDEN, March 8.—The question as to whether the city would be held responsible for the acts committed by Providence, was the subject of some discussion at the session of the city council held last evening when the subject of damage from high water from Ogden river was brought before the council. The question arose in the form of a petition from residents east of the Ogden Short Line bridge in the Third ward and who asked that damages be built along the south bank of the river to protect their property from damage.

As soon as the petition was read the council's attention was brought to the fact that the city was now engaged in repairing the north bank of the river in the same district near the fair grounds. It was also intimated by the petitioners that the city was showing preference to the people on the seventh street side of the river and thought the city should do as much for them. The matter was discussed at length when Councilman Thomas made a motion that the city abandon all the work immediately. The motion prevailed. Some of the councilmen contended that the city could not be held responsible for the damage done to property of the residents who live along the river banks who are aware of the danger of high water which is controlled by Providence and not by the city.

The railroad and street committee reported that they had investigated the petition of the residents along the route of the Salt Lake and Ogden road near the corner of Wall avenue and Thirty-second street, and had found that there was no obstruction placed in the streets or on property as yet. The committee further reported that the city engineer and city attorney had been instructed to act in the matter if any obstructions were placed in the road. The recommendation of the committee on buildings and grounds that the sum of $1,000 be paid now, $2,000 May 1 and $2,000 July 1 to the board of park commissioners was adopted.

Claims amounting to $2,542.25 and payrolls for the half month, amounting to $909.91, were allowed and ordered paid.

The residents from Harrison avenue and Twenty-seventh street asked that the street be put in passable condition. The petition was referred to the street committee.

The sanitary inspector reported that there were 20 cases of contagious and infectious diseases in the city at the present time.

SPEEDING AUTOISTS FINED.

Farmington Constable Stops Racing in Streets of County Town.

OGDEN, March 9.—According to the statements of the constable at Farmington, J. C. Jensen, proprietor of the Healy cafe in Ogden, is entitled to the world's automobile record for fast time. The rural Hawshaw claims that on midnight Friday night he saw Jensen coming down the road and that before his watch had ticked three times, Jensen had passed him and was a half mile up the road. The total distance covered in the three ticks would be about a mile.

Friday night Jensen, accompanied by L. H. Hecraft and a doctor and an automobile agent, left Salt Lake for Ogden in his new automobile. They left the main part of the city at 11 o'clock and were traveling along at a good rate of speed. When they passed through Bountiful, there was not a soul in sight and the town was as quiet as a grave. When they reached Farmington, however, the rural constable stood in the middle of the road brandishing a revolver of extraordinary caliber, and commanding them to stop, saying the constable came to him from Bountiful. No sooner had the machine stopped than the wary officer of the law said that they were under arrest for racing through the streets and violating the speed law.

The constable's loud talking and threatening manner brought a deputy sheriff on the scene who suggested that the men be given a trial immediately instead of putting the $10 bail each as the constable wanted. The justice of the peace was routed out of bed. The party then repaired to an old schoolhouse and the trial held, at the conclusion of which Jensen was fined $10. The constable then wanted to arrest the quartet for disturbing the peace, but no one would serve the warrant he would swear to as there apparently was no case to be held against the Ogdenites.

Jensen's experience when learned in Ogden, caused great indignation among the auto men. It is very probable that the Automobile associations of Salt Lake and Ogden will investigate the methods employed by the Davis county commissioners and by the court to consider the legality of the proceedings. It is reported that a number of Salt Lake autoists who have raced Advice received at the sheriff's office yesterday announced the arrest in Pocatello, Sunday evening, of "Doc" J. K. Kellogg, the man who jumped from a window of an Oregon Short Line train near that town, early Saturday morning, being taken back to Montana by Deputy Sheriff Murray from Ogden, where he was arrested last Thursday.

The recapture of the man in Pocatello was effected at an obscure rooming house where Kellogg went to secure rest and food after being out in the hills for 36 hours. He will be taken to Montana where he will face the charges of kidnapping and obtaining money under false pretenses.

WISHES HE WAS A POLYGLOT.

Judge Murphy of the police court is beginning to wish that he had studied Greek, Spanish, French, German, Italian, Portuguese, Italian, Hindoo, Japanese and Chinese at school instead of Blackstone. He finds he has as much use for all these languages these days as he had for Blackstone. He was a day passed by what there are foreigners in the court charged with some petty offense, and it is with difficulty that any testimony is secured because of the absence of an interpreter.

Yesterday in court the case on the docket was one against a Mexican, charged by a Greek with petty larceny. Neither could speak English, but the latter made it known to the court by gesturing that he was a Mexican. The Mexican entered his room and was trying to steal some clothing when he was captured. By many shrugs of his shoulders, etc., the Mexican informed the court that he was guilty. In the end the case was dismissed.

BABY'S ITCHING WAS INTOLERABLE

Girl of Six Months had Fearful Attack of Eczema—Spread All Over Her Face and Eyes Began to Swell—Scratched Till Blood Came—Relieved in a Night and

CURED BY CUTICURA AFTER LONG SUFFERING

"When my little girl was six months old I noticed small red spots on her right cheek. I did not pay any attention to them but finally the spots grew so large that I had to look for the doctor who said it was eczema. He prescribed an ointment which I used for two weeks, but instead of helping the eruption, the ointment seemed to make it worse. I then went to a second doctor who after examining the baby said it was eczema. He also gave me an ointment which did not help either. The disease in the meantime spread all over the face and the eyes began to swell. I became very anxious. The itching grew intolerable. I had to tie the baby's hands to her cradle to prevent her scratching. The cheeks were covered with blood and it was a terrible sight to see. I consulted doctors from September to December, but they were unable to cure the baby. I paid out from twenty to thirty dollars without relief.

"One of my friends told me of the Cuticura Remedies and I sent at once for a set which I began to use that evening. The next morning the baby's face was all white instead of red and you can imagine how surprised I was. I could find words enough to praise Cuticura and I do not know what would have become of my baby only for it. I used the Cuticura Ointment and one bottle of Cuticura Resolvent and I never use any other soap. I always recommend them wherever there is a chance for doing so. I will send you one of her pictures which she had taken just after she was healed. Mrs. E. G. Gumbin, Sheldon, Ia., July 13, 1908."

Cuticura Soap (2 lbs.) 50c, Ointment (1 lb.) 25c, and Resolvent (1 lb.) 25c, are sold throughout the world. Write for a free sample. Send 10c for a box of Cuticura Soap and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent.

They were invited into the annex of the ward house, where an excellent repast had been provided them by the bishopric of the ward. Fifty guests were seated at the banquet, all of which a lengthy original poem, in the form of a toast to the choir, was read by the author, Charles Denney. Complimentary remarks were made by Bishop Hutton, Counselors Painter and Walker, Choir Leaders Cox and others.

Fountain Green Briefs.—The Indian War Veterans of this place held their annual reunion yesterday, March 3. There were 20 present who answered to roll call. The program consisted of speeches, songs, etc., and concluded in evening with a dinner given by the veterans ending with a dance wherein the veterans led out in a grand march.

There is yet about six inches of snow on the ground. There is an abundance of snow in the mountains well packed, so the prospects for a good supply of water the coming season is promising. Hay is very scarce and the price is 10 per ton. The sheep on the west desert are reported to have wintered well, and the wool clip has all been sold at 16 cents per pound.

Moapa Valley Notes.—The Muddy Valley Telephone line of which S. H. Wells, S. R. Whitehead, Brigham Whittemore and the Moapa Fruit Land company are the principal promoters, is well under way and will possibly be in operation by May 15. The line is to be constructed from Moapa, down the valley southeast through Logan, Capitol, Overton and terminating at St. Thomas. It will be of great service during the harvesting season, and prove an invaluable factor in unifying the valley. Another great improvement is the new road to be constructed along the section lines and winding down the center of the valley.

ML Pleasant Briefs.—Joseph Seely shipped a car of beef cattle to Sunnyvale today. A car of sheep also left the Mt. Pleasant depot today, Drago & Bros. disposing of them. One of the twins of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Larsen was born today. One day early in the week, Andrew Neilson and Garner Jensen, a couple of high school boys, grew weary of Utah weather, started for California unknown to parents. On reaching Los Angeles, they telegraphed home, informing their families they were all right but needed money. Elder Adolf Merz, who has been in Germany doing missionary work, is bound for home, because of ill health. He will reach in the evening an elegant banquet was given to the visiting team, which was followed with a grand ball, given in the large room of the auditorium of the academy, when the real fun of the two institutions furnished most delightful music for the dancers.

The Snowflake Stake academy itself has had a veritable boom this year. In addition to the regular studies, manual training and domestic sciences were added to the regular curriculum of study. As a result over 50 ladies alone took domestic science and 27 boys took manual training. The attendance at the whole school has been larger than ever before. And with the excellent lent spirit prevailing and the high esteem in which the school is held, together with the new addition to the building for the next year, the school bids fair to become one of the foremost schools in Arizona. It is already gathering students from all parts of northern Arizona.

This has been a most delightful winter, without snow in this locality, while the mountains are full of it, giving evidence of plenty of water for irrigating purposes, and therefore also a bountiful harvest.

Several of the enterprising citizens of Snowflake have united in establishing a bank and for this purpose a fine two-story brick building has been erected which is a great credit to the town.

The farmers are busy putting in their crops, therefore everything indicates thrift and enterprise now.

He was first assistant to the Sunday school superintendent and a very exemplary young man beloved by all who knew him. The funeral services were held at the meetinghouse Monday, Feb. 22. A large number of friends attended the funeral. The deceased was a native of Scotland and had been in Stirling for some time. He was a member of the Stirling branch of the Odd Fellows and a very successful business man. He was a native of Scotland and had been in Stirling for some time. Notes from Cowley, Wyo.—The quarterly conference of the Big Horn Stake convened at Cowley, Saturday and Sunday. Though there was some of the general authorities present. There was a splendid attendance of the people and a profitable time was had. Representatives of an eastern company were in Cowley last week taking business on land and signing agreements to begin boring for oil before the first of July next. These gentlemen were highly pleased with the developments at Byron and particularly with the quality of oil found here. This was encountered by Mr. C. W. Cline, who drilled a well on his city lot here in Cowley, last week.

Notes from Tropic.—The weather in Garfield county has been exceptionally severe this winter. There has not been so much snow piled up in the mountains for the last 15 years. Water in abundance for irrigation is assured, and also good feed for stock.

The young ladies of the M. I. A. gave an old folks party on Feb. 25, which was greatly enjoyed. The tables were loaded with the good things of life, and ample justice was done to the same. All over 60 years of age were presented with badges. Songs, choruses and a dancing contributed to the delightful time. Miss Chastula Leese, president of the Y. L. M. I. some time in April. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Rasmus Anderson, Mrs. Joseph Monson have just returned from an extended trip through California and Mexico.

Charleston Notes.—Elder James Ritchie returned Monday from the Scottish mission and was given a banquet and a hearty reception by relatives and friends. The winter has been hard here in Wausatch. It set in early and necessitated much feeding, and the heavy rains have literally rotted all stacks of grain happened to be unprotected. Potatoes, beef, pork and wool are becoming very scarce and commanding a high price. Hay is worth from $1 to $1.50 per ton. Potatoes are out of sight, as the few left are small, chaff, wheat and barley, not enough for the shiekies. A number of best farmers are convinced that they should make use of their beautiful cold springs, hence are building fish ponds to catch trout in April. There is very little sickness, but the whole town is in mourning since the senate killed the prohibition bill. About a year ago the people here shut down the saloon and the town has been dry since. The county soon followed the example, and all were in hopes that our fair state would fall into line.
