EASTERN.

Gov. Hampton's Message to the Legislative Assembly.

COLUMBIA, 26.—Gov. Hampton, in his message to the Legislature, convened to-day, says:

"I cherish the hope that you will forget the animosity engendered by the political strife, rise superior to the petty considerations of partisanship, and devoting yourselves with patriotic zeal to the service of your State, you will strive earnestly to restore its lost prosperity, revive its wasted industry, reform all abuses in the government, promote peace, harmony, good will and justice among all classes and parties. All efforts to bring about a better state of affairs will prove unavailing until the finances of the State are put in a healthy condition, and the credit of the State is established on the sound and honorable footing it once occupied. It is due to the credit of the State that there should be no question nor doubt as to our determination to meet every honest obligation fairly and faithfully, but it is equally our duty to ascertain what are its honest liabilities. I respectfully suggest the appointment of a commission of one member from each house, the Comptroller General and Treasurer of the State, and three citizens, under whose directions a complete investigation of the funds and floating indebtedness of the State shall be made an obligation, the validity of which shall be ascertained and shall be certified to in such form as the commission or legislature may prescribe, and the coupons on such bonds alone shall be receivable for taxes. The commission should also be charged with the duty of reporting to the General Assembly at the next regular session, the precise character of all obligations of doubtful validity, or clearly fraudulent, with the specific facts or testimony upon which these conclusions are based. I estimate the amount yet to be funded as about $3,000,000, which at the rate established for funding will require an issue of $1,500,000 of consolidated bonds. He recommends the establishment of such a system of free schools as will place the means of education within the reach of all, the present system, as administered, being characterized as a mere mockery, under which the children have been imperfectly taught, teachers have been swindled out of their pay, and the money of the people squandered. I have before me the teachers pay certified, to which the board of school trustees, consisting of three members, have each affixed his cross mark as his signature. We are bound alike by every consideration of true statesmanship and of good faith to keep up in the State such a system of free schools as will place within the reach of every child, black as well as white, the means of acquiring a honest and honorable education. I shall look with confident hope to your aid in carrying on and fulfilling the pledge to which we are solemnly committed."

To be Ready in Case of Emergency.

WASHINGTON, 26.—The Secretary of the Navy now has under consideration the question of asking Congress to appropriate $500,000, at the approaching extra session, for the purpose of fitting out eight vessels to be held in readiness for service in case of an emergency. It is feared that the eastern troubles may possibly jeopardize American interests, and it is proposed to have these vessels ready to join the European and Asiatic stations. Among the vessels mentioned as most suitable for this purpose are the Benicia, Iroquois, and Tuscarora, now at Mare Island.

A private letter from an officer of Gettysburg, at Constantinople, says the Turks have firstrate ships, and he expresses the opinion that they will give the Russian vessels a stubborn fight. On the other hand the Russians do not seem to have much confidence in their navy in the Black Sea. Foreign officers in that vicinity look upon the Turkish vessels as most formidable.

A Delegation of the White and Black Labor League Visit President Hayes.

A delegation of whites and blacks of the Labor League of the United States called on the President, to-day, and read an address, requesting him to embody in his message to Congress a recommendation for an appropriation of money for internal improvements, to give employment to idle laborers; also to recommend the restoration of suffrage in the District of Columbia, and the payment of 10,000 workingmen who have been defrauded by contractors under the board of public works.

The President, in reply, said: This speech is so voluminous and the topics so numerous that I would not undertake, in unconsidered offhand sentences, to express my opinion in regard to it. Some of the statements of facts, perhaps, deserve a good deal of consideration. Certainly if there are 10,000 men in this District out of employment, or that number of men to whom the Government owes money, it ought to be paid, and Congress would be very derelict in its duty if it is not done. As for the general expression of good will which you express, I appreciate it and return my thanks.

The right of suffrage in this district is not a question that I have given any consideration to. The fact is that during the administration of Washington, Jefferson, Madison, and the earlier Presidents, the suffrage was vested in the people of this district with regard to local affairs, but none as to the general officers. There have been various changes from that time to the present.

Here chairman Hodnell, of the delegation, interposed a query as to what the President thought of that order of things as an American principle.

The President will not discuss it. It is enough to say that whatever you desire upon that subject it is within the power of Congress to grant. I do not know what the feelings of the people are upon this question. It is not for the President to lay down rules for the decision of questions of this sort to the people. It is safe to leave them to the great body of the people. If the people wish to have the suffrage in this district, I shall not interfere with them, and should not veto but sign any bill on that subject. If there is nothing further in regard to this, I again return my appreciation of your kindness.

Department of Justice—Not Yet Notified.

The Attorney General had a consultation, to-day, with several officers of the department of Justice, and examined the roll of the United States deputy marshals, assisting United States attorneys and others, employed by marshals and attorneys, with a view to reducing the number of assistants as far as possible.

The State Department has not yet received any official notification from either the Russian or Turkish Minister of the declaration of war. It is probable that our government will send two or three officers abroad to observe the military operations between Russia and Turkey.

Indian and Military Affairs.

Lieutenant General Sheridan arrived here, to-day, and in company with General Sherman, had an interview with the President concerning Indian and military matters in the west. Hon. John Smith, Commissioner of Indian affairs, met him and General Sheridan at the War Department, and they had a long conversation as to the intended removal of the Indians from the Red Cloud and Spotted Tail agencies to new reservations in Dakota and Missouri, where they can be provided for with more security and less expense. The location of the new agencies and the time for removal is yet to be determined upon. No final conclusion is to be reached until after Sherman shall have consulted General Crook, who is expected to arrived in Chicago in a few days. The Sioux and other Indians to be removed number about 12,000.

Indicted.

TRENTON, 26.—The grand jury found indictments against Somerville and Eagle for stealing and altering United States bonds.

Memorial Day.

PHILADELAHIA, 26.—Governor Hartranft, as commander-in-chief of the national organization of the Grand Army of the Republic, has issued a general order designating May 30th as Memorial Day.

Wool Market.

BOSTON, 26.—The wool market is moderately active. New spring California is arriving freely, but sales are moderate and at wide range of prices, owing to the varied condition of wools.

The Stock Market.

NEW YORK, 26.—The Post says of the break in stocks, to-day, that it was part due to a natural reaction, but the larger part to the unpleasant discovery that the clique that has contributed so much to unsettling confidence, and had been so successful in the past few months in breaking down prices, is again at work to the same end.

WESTERN.

More Renegade Indians.

SAN FRANCISCO, 26.—A Tucson dispatch says agent Clum arrived at the Hot Springs agency on the 21st instant. The next day Geronimo and two other prominent renegades came in and accounted for 434 more to come in. The Indian police act efficiently. The troops were to arrive next day.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Eastern War News.

LONDON, 16.—The following notable passage occurs in the St. Petersburg Golos, the chief Russian diplomatic organ: It remains for our diplomacy to determine whether military operations are to be carried on energetically and with the full strength of our active forces, or if we are to content ourselves with a pre-determined movement for the occupation of certain limited localities.

It is stated that all foreign officers in the Turkish service are promptly paid, but the native officers and soldiers are not paid at all.

A dispatch from Pascani, Moldavia, on Wednesday evening, says 15,000 Russians passed through Unghini, 10,000 through Leova, and 35,000 through Bolgrand. These troops are to effect a junction at Galatz and Braila.

A special from Constantinople states that the Sultan, in a proclamation to the troops, declares that in case of need he will join the army with the standard of the Prophet, and sacrifice his life for the people.

Osman Pasha addressed a proclamation to the inhabitants of Kalafat, assuring them that they need not fear the Turks, who will occupy the town as friends.

A battle may be expected to take place at Tultzcha, in Dobrudscha, where an attempt by the Russians to cross the Danube may be looked for very shortly.

A Pesth special says it is feared that the Russian column passed over the Danube near Gladowa.

The "Times" on Von Moltke's Speech.

The Times, in reviewing the argument that the Czar was irresistibly compelled to war by the will of the people, says, "This is consistent and intelligible, but it is not the language of a reasonable being. It is the language of the northern hordes who are thrust or starved out of their forests to seek food wherever found. The world will not long permit the earth to be desolated by a struggle begun in an interchange of defiances, and if left to itself is pretty sure to last as long as one party has strength to hurl defiance at the other. General Von Moltke feels as we all feel, how easy it would be to extend the area of war so as to include the majority of the European powers. We have been told again and again, that if peace was once broken we should enter upon a war of which no one could see the end. The German government know this, and they were apparently perfectly prepared before, and because preparations in critical times excite counter-preparations, and jealousy excites jealousy, until we bring upon us what we would prevent by our very anxiety to prevent it; but we do not interpret his speech as meaning anything more than the resolution of a strong man armed to hold his own in peace. It does not deprive us of the hope that the present war will remain localised, but it is a sore provocation to despair.

DALMATIA.

Will Defend His Territory.

RAGUSA, 26.—The Prince or Montenegro has sent a note to the powers, accusing the Turks of having broken off negotiations because Montenegro required that the refugees from Herzegovina should be restored to their homes and the Kutchi prisoners liberated. The Prince declares that, alone and without allies, but relying on the abnegation of his subjects, he will, as in former times, desperately defend his territory against superior forces, hoping that, if defeated, Christian Europe will save the women and children.

WALLACHIA.

Prince Charles Will Fight.

BUCHAREST, 26.—At the opening of an extraordinary session of the Roumanian Chambers, to-day, the message of Prince Charles was presented, who said, "Our presentation to the Porte and Powers to obtain their recognition of the neutrality of Roumania was unsuccessful. Roumania, abandoned by all, must rely on her own resources. We must undergo every sacrifice to prevent Roumania from becoming the theatre of war. The Prince will fight if necessary for the integrity of the frontier. The Czar has declared that he had no intention of violating our rights. As a proof of this, Bucharest will not be occupied by Russians while waiting for the decision of the Chamber. The government has and will preserve the attitude of reserve."

Russian Troops in Roumania.

It is estimated that 80,000 Russians have entered Roumania. They are concentrating at Barbasochi. No Russians have crossed to Sereth on the Danube.

BRITISH AMERICA.

Canadian Respect for Queen Victoria.

OTTAWA, 26.—Letters have been addressed to the press calling attention to the fact that on the 20th of June Queen Victoria will have completed the fortieth year of her reign, and proposing that the Canadians should manifest their national attachment by requesting Her Majesty to take the title of Empress of Canada.

TURKEY.

The First Battle.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 25.—The following is official: Safvet Pasha has addressed the following dispatch to the Turkish Ambassador at London: The first engagement has just been fought at Tehuruksoi, near Batoum. After some fighting the enemy was defeated and put to rout, with a loss of 800.

Will Be Protected.

The Sultan has issued a proclamation to the officers and men of the fleet, especially recommending them to protect the Mussulman population of the Crimean and Caucasian coasts, now groaning under the Russian yoke.

AUSTRIA.

Great Excitement.

VIENNA, 26.—An incident is reported from Belgrade which creates a great sensation here. The Grand Vizier notified Servia that a Turkish detachment will occupy Gladowa on account of the approach of the Russians from that side. Abdul Kerim telegraphed to the same effect to Servia. The general who commands on the frontier of Servia replied that he will resist by force of arms any attempt at the occupation of Gladowa.

SPAIN.

An Ironclad Squadron.

MADRID, 27.—A dispatch says that Spain will send an ironclad squadron to the Levant.

A certain deacon formed his Sunday-school in line and marched them along the aisles, himself in front, singing "Hold the Fort." The consternation which seized all parties at the second stanza:

"See the mighty host advancing, Satan leading on"—

can be better imagined than described. Deacon B. has objected to new methods ever since.—Chicago Alliance.

Special attention given to Interference Cases before the Patent Office, Extensions before Congress, Infringement Suits in different States, and all litigation appertaining to Inventions or Patents. Send stamp for Pamphlet of sixty pages.
United States Courts and Departments.
Claims prosecuted in the Supreme Court of the United States, Court of Claims, Court of Commissioners of Alabama Claims, Southern Claims Commission, and all classes of war claims before the Executive Departments.
Arrears of Pay and Bounty.
OFFICERS, SOLDIERS and SAILORS of the late war, or their heirs, are in many cases entitled to money from the Government, of which they have no knowledge. Write full history of service, and state amount of pay and bounty received. Enclose stamp, and a full reply, after examination, will be given you free.
Pensions,
All OFFICERS, SOLDIERS and SAILORS wounded, ruptured, or injured in the late war, however slightly can obtain a pension; many now pensioned are entitled to an increase. Send stamp and information will be furnished free.
United States General Land Office,
Contested Land Cases, Private Land Claims, Mining, Pre-emption and Homestead cases prosecuted before the General Land Office and Department of the Interior.
Old Bounty Land Warrants.
The last Report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office shows 2,497,500 acres of Bounty Land Warrants outstanding. These were issued under act of 1855 and prior acts. We pay cash for them. Send by registered letter. Where assignments are imperfect we give instructions to perfect them.
Each department of our business is conducted in a separate bureau, under the charge of experienced lawyers and clerks. By reason of error or fraud many attorneys are suspended from practice before the Patent and other offices each year. Clients whose cases have been thus suspended will be gratuitously furnished with full information and proper papers on application to us.
As we charge no fee unless successful, stamps for return postage should be sent us.
Liberal arrangements made with attorneys in all cases of contests.

UNITED ORDER RULES.
HAVING had frequent enquiries for copies of the "Rules that Should be Observed by members of the United Order" since the first edition of the same was all sold, we have lately printed an authorized edition on fine fancy colored paper, on a sheet 12¾ by 20 inches, suitable for framing or mounting on a stretcher and hanging up in the houses of the saints.
They can be had at this Office, or mailed to any address for 10 Cents per Copy.
