A BONANZA IN ANY HOME.
Hard Times Book.

In all parts of the world there always have been and still are found certain persons, many gifted by nature, who have discovered and learned how to use simple home remedies for all the ills of the flesh. Some of these persons have become very expert in the cure of disease. These "experts" are generally nurses, though not always, or mothers of large families, who have acquired skill by long experience.

The fact had often been expressed that if some one would obtain and bring together from all over this and other countries all these simple remedies and the method of applying them, he would confer upon mankind a boon equal to any invention of any age, one of the value of which could hardly be estimated in dollars and cents.

To do this of course would involve immense labor and much expense, which naturally would deter almost anyone from making the attempt.

It however remained for the publishers of a book known as "Vitalogy" to undertake this herculean task, they bringing out their book under this title. In 1885 they began their labor, by gathering this country and Europe they found in Japan remedies that were regarded of extraordinary value, and the Japanese method of applying them made these simple remedies still more valuable. After more than 30 years of gathering they have finally given to the world in "Vitalogy" a volume whose practical value can hardly be measured by money. In fact it must prove a "bonanza" in any home.

It can truly be termed a "Hard Times Book" for it is a treasure to a family in this land to whom it would not prove a saving of many dollars each year during their whole lives. The book is a family, or is the harder the times, the more valuable this book is to them.

The value of this book lies not alone in saving money, and saving suffering and often life itself. There is another consideration that is of no less importance, for it will be the means of preventing people from taking drugs into their system. As the Japanese would say, "taking an unknown drug is to an unknown stomach to produce an unknown effect."

Drugs generally leave a deposit in the body that weakens or injures it for the rest of life. We often take medicine and think that the medicine cures us. Yet we get well in spite of the medicine.

The following is a pertinent paragraph from the writings of the late Dr. B. F. Clayton: "No greater imposition could be practised on the people than to tell them that the so-called Family Doctor Books found in almost every home, that advise drug remedies which only a trained physician is capable of prescribing. If some one would bring out a book of Home Remedies, regular grandmothers' remedies, he would have something that would be a blessing in every home."

The literary division of this book is, of special importance, as every page of it is of actual money value to the reader. -Morning Chronicle.

DOLLAR SELLS FOR $2,000.

R. G. Parvin of Denver Parts With a Famous 1804 Coin After Debate.

Two thousand dollars is the price received yesterday by Rolf G. Parvin, secretary and treasurer of the Union Deposit and Trust company, for a silver dollar made in 1804. The man who paid this sum was H. G. Brown of Portland, Or. The money was received Friday afternoon, and immediately on its receipt Mr. Parvin shipped the coin via Wells-Fargo express.

The cause of this high price is as follows: In 1804 1,700 silver dollars were coined by the mint in Philadelphia, and they were to be used expressly for paying off American sailors, then stationed at Tripoli. The ship on which the money was sent was lost and but six of the 1,700 dollars were ever recovered. Two of these are at the United States mint at Philadelphia, one is at New York, one at Omaha, the one Mr. Parvin shipped yesterday and the ownership of the other is at present unknown. Mr. Parvin came into possession of his coin ten years ago, and he paid $1,000 for it.

The silver dollar made in 1804 is known as the gem of the United States coinage, and the price paid yesterday is the highest ever paid for an American coin. The story leading up to the sale is interesting. For some years past there has not been a mail that has not brought to Mr. Parvin inquiry in regard to the coin, and each contained a query as to what price would buy it. Mr. Parvin the mint unsalable coin, and the first figure which came into his mind, because he did not wish to part with the coin. When he answered Mr. Brown's letter he placed the figure at $2,000 and forgot about the matter. No sooner had the letter been received than telegrams began to pour into the office of Mr. Parvin from Mr. Brown. The Denver man declined to part with it, but in order to keep his word he sent the dollar today in receipt of the order for $2,000.

STREET CAR ACCIDENT.

A broken brake chain on a First street car was the cause of a collision Saturday evening, at the Pioneer monument, with a Jordan Bridge car. The two motemen, Stevenson of the First street and Peterson of the Jordan Bridge cars, were slightly injured. Harlow Pickett, a passenger on the north bound car, had his leg bruised.

I used it, and got two more bottles. It cured me and I haven't felt any rheumatism since. I can recommend Snow Lintment to the best friend I have in earth for rheumatism. FOUND DYNAMITE.

Officer Brown Makes a Startling Discovery at Rear of Gardner's.

Yesterday afternoon Police Officer J. D. Brown, discovered a 25 box of dynamite concealed in a shed at the rear of J. P. Gardner's store on East Temple street. The fact that the box was surrounded with the remains of burned paper led to the belief that an attempt was made to blow up the building. How the box came there or why it was concealed in the shed is not known to the police. It was thought that the dynamite had been stolen from the Salt Lake Hardware store, but the officials from that institution said that they had not missed anything. The dynamite was removed to a place of safety, since which time the police have been trying to find a clue as to who placed the box in the shed.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A cough of mine had a child just over two months of age, and a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat, the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child.
